ANNUAL REPORT SHOWS WORK OF CLUB LAST YEAR

are not good. Should this project be started it would open vast timber resources, tap the Mt. Emily Lumber company camps, and be a direct outlet to Central Oregon.

Little Sheep Creek Road: This road although in Wallawa county will open up a new trade territory in the Inmaha country. This project is now on the state highway program and actual construction will start in 1932.

Approximately 10,000 people attended this past year's Grange Fair and Home Products show. Excellent cooperation was received from Union county granges and farmers in the preparation of exhibits for this successful event.

Land Settlement: Hundreds of letters have been received from all parts of the country from parties interested in Union county lands. These letters have been personally answered and literature and statistics sent them.

Marketing Conference: An agricultural marketing conference has been scheduled for March 3 and 4 for Union county farmers and business men. Agricultural experts will be here to conduct the conference.

New Wheat Plan: A delegation from the chamber of commerce with local wheat growers appeared before representatives of the federal farm board presenting a plan of wheat control through reduction of wheat acreage.

4-H Club Work: The chamber of commerce entertained with a complimentary luncheon the winners of prizes at the Oregon State fair and the Pacific International Livestock exposition in 4-H club work.

Dairying: The agricultural committee of the chamber is working a plan of financing additional dairy cows.

Irrigation: That the Grande Ronde valley will eventually be under irrigation is inevitable. Plans are now underway for development of the Meadow Brook dam site.

"Ship By Rail"

As a result of the activities of the "Ship by Rail" committee of the chamber of commerce, local railroad freight has increased approximately 25 per cent. That La Grande merchants should receive their shipments via rail is becoming of increased importance.

Car Registrations: Nine hundred and fifty cars were issued non-resident permits during 1931 by the car registration bureau of the chamber of commerce...

Roads and Highways: A-Erect a dedicatory monument along the Mt. Emily road. B-Preserve our national scenery.

Public Improvement: A-Better marking of city streets. B-Beautify Jefferson street near the depot so as to present a more respectable appearance from the train.

Think It Over: The grandest heroic deeds are those which are performed within four walls and in domestic privacy.

Most Powerful of Birds: The great hairy eagle of British Guiana is said by zoologists to be the most powerful bird known to man.

Last Gold Dollars Minted: The Great Memorial gold dollars of 1922 were the last gold dollars issued by the United States treasury.

Drawing Conclusions: Any conclusion drawn from any man's life must be a platitude. American Magazine.

Training School: A training school building costing $130,000 will in all probability be erected on the Eastern Oregon Normal campus sometime during the present year.

Better Business Bureau: During the past year the better business bureau of the chamber of commerce received 33 applications for solicitation permits.

Following is the program of work which the chamber hopes to accomplish during the coming year:

Land Settlement: Hundreds of letters have been received from all parts of the country from parties interested in Union county lands.

Marketing Conference: An agricultural marketing conference has been scheduled for March 3 and 4 for Union county farmers and business men.

New Wheat Plan: A delegation from the chamber of commerce with local wheat growers appeared before representatives of the federal farm board.

Last Gold Dollars Minted: The Great Memorial gold dollars of 1922 were the last gold dollars issued by the United States treasury.

Drawing Conclusions: Any conclusion drawn from any man's life must be a platitude. American Magazine.

Training School: A training school building costing $130,000 will in all probability be erected on the Eastern Oregon Normal campus.

Agriculture and Land Settlement:

A-Encourage irrigation of the Grande Ronde valley so that diversified crops may be raised to a greater extent.

B-Encourage the dairy industry—promote our creameries. C-Promotion of a public market.

D-Encourage the production of sweet cherries. E-Promote a better feeling between rural population and the business man.

F-Again foster the Grange Fair and Home Products show. G-Buy local grown produce in preference to outside produce.

H-Encourage boys' and girls' 4-H club work. I-Sponsor an economic or marketing conference.

Civic Improvement: A-Better marking of city streets. B-Beautify Jefferson street near the depot.

Think It Over: The grandest heroic deeds are those which are performed within four walls and in domestic privacy.

Last Gold Dollars Minted: The Great Memorial gold dollars of 1922 were the last gold dollars issued by the United States treasury.

Operation with the railroad:

C-Greater support of home manufactured products. D-Lend all possible aid in securing an airport.

E-Encourage new industries to locate in La Grande. Call Softened by Love: In the courtship season the bluejay sings a sweet love song very different from the harsh call usually associated with this bird.

Reconstruction's Cause: The precursor of every great period of social and political reconstruction has invariably been, as John Stuart Mill has pointed out, "a great change in the opinions and modes of thinking of society."

Young Reformer's Handicap: In her school essay on "Parents," a little girl wrote: "We get our parents at so late an age that it is impossible to change their habits."

Iodine and Goiter: While iodine is a valuable preventive of simple goiter, the United States public service warns that certain kinds of developed goiters are harmed by iodine treatment.

Think It Over: The grandest heroic deeds are those which are performed within four walls and in domestic privacy.

Most Powerful of Birds: The great hairy eagle of British Guiana is said by zoologists to be the most powerful bird known to man.

Gives Gold Value to Silver

What makes a silver dollar worth a dollar in American money is what is called "the image and superscription"; that is, the name of the United States and the exclusive design.
