Farewell Party
For Two Couples

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Towler and Mr. and Mrs. Max R. Sarvis were complimented at a farewell party last night at which Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wright entertained the Lions and the auxiliary members at their home in the La Grande hotel.

"ALL-BRAN LIVES UP TO REPUTATION"

Her Constipation Overcome
by This Delicious Cereal

If you are troubled with constipation, read Miss Bundy's enthusiastic letter:

"I would like to congratulate the one who discovered ALL-BRAN. It really does live up to its reputation when it is said to 'relieve constipation.'"

"I used to feel poor all the time—just down and out—and after reading an advertisement in a magazine about ALL-BRAN I got a box. It has evermore helped me, and it is not hard at all to eat."—Miss Mary Bundy, Bennettsville, S. C.

Laboratory tests show ALL-BRAN brings two things needed to correct common constipation: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines; Vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also furnishes iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Within the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently, it clears the intestines of wastes.

How much safer than taking pills and drugs—so often harmful. ALL-BRAN is not habit-forming. Two tablespoonfuls daily will overcome most types of constipation. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Eight members were present and spent the afternoon playing bridge. Prizes were received by Mrs. Charles Graham, first, and Mrs. C. L. Thompson, consolation.

Mrs. Henry Hess
Thursday Hostess

At a delightful bridge-luncheon at the Sacajawea Inn, Mrs. Henry Hess entertained the Jolly Bridge club yesterday at one o'clock. A St. Patrick's motif predominated in the luncheon table decorations and in the centerpiece of green carnations and white narcissus arranged in a green basket.

Guests of the club were Mrs. Roy Emberg and Mrs. Clarence Rosenbaum. Mrs. Emberg was the high scorer among the guests, while the other prizes were awarded to Mrs. Nate Zweifel, first, and Mrs. William, second.

Mrs. Christensen
Entertains Club

At a one o'clock luncheon yesterday, Mrs. M. M. Christensen entertained at her home for members of her club. Luncheon was served at small tables, after which bridge was played during the afternoon.

Mrs. George McDonald received the prize for high score, Mrs. E. C. Stephenson was second, and Mrs. Helen Knight was awarded the guest prize.

Mrs. Chris Miller
Is Complimented

Mrs. Chris Miller entertained the Mary Elizabeth club yesterday at her home for an afternoon spent in games and sewing. Then at 5 o'clock, the occasion being Mrs. Miller's birthday anniversary, the guests enjoyed a birthday dinner.

The dining table was lovely with a centerpiece of pink and orchid sweet peas and a birthday cake with lighted candles. Mrs. Miller was presented with a gift by members of the club. The Mary Elizabeth club will enjoy another meeting in two weeks.

St. Patrick's Day
Party Thursday

A St. Patrick's day party was enjoyed yesterday afternoon by the Divinity club at the home of Mrs. Philip Lockwood. Assisting the hostess was Mrs. Otto Ott.

Four tables were arranged for bridge and the prizes were received by Mrs. Paul Hansen, first, Mrs. John Price, consolation, and Mrs. Donald Cole, high for guests. Other guests were Mrs. Culvert Watkins, of Elgin, and Mrs. Reta Stoyka.

Refreshments were served after bridge, in keeping with the motif. A potluck supper was planned for March 18, at which the members will entertain their families at 6:30 at the Eagles hall. Mrs. Luella Price will be the next hostess in two weeks, assisted by Mrs. John Price.

Senior 16 Club
Is Entertained

The Senior 16 club was entertained last night at the home of Miss Marjorie Kiddle's grandmother, Mrs. Fred H. Kiddle, at Island City. Twelve girls were invited for bridge, and the prizes for high scores were received by Miss Sally Siegrist, first, and Miss Atha Damerell, second.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Kiddle, following bridge. Misses Siegrist and Virginia Bramwell will be the next hostesses, entertaining in two weeks.

Pinochle Party
At Zweifel Home

Mr. and Mrs. Nate Zweifel entertained the Three D club at a pinochle party last night at their home. A St. Patrick's motif was carried out cleverly in the bridge table appointments and in the refreshments which Mrs. Zweifel served at a late hour in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Maxwell received the prize for high scores at pinochle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Noyes will entertain in two weeks for the club.

Rileys Entertain

according to plans made yesterday afternoon when the aid met at the home of Mrs. C. A. Newman, 1702 K avenue. Mrs. Frank Wuri will be the next hostess on March 24.

The afternoon was devoted to transacting business and refreshments were served at the close by the hostess. Several guests were present for the afternoon.

Eggs and Witches

That an egg may betray a witch was an old belief, for if a man takes an Easter egg into church and looks about him, if there be any witches in the congregation he may know them by their having pieces of pork instead of prayer books in their hands, and milk pails on their heads for bonnets.—Exchange.

Corinth in History

Corinth was an important city at the time the Apostle Paul visited it, although it had not fully recovered its grandeur or the import and export trade which it enjoyed before it was despoiled by the Romans in 146 B. C. In 46 B. C. Julius Caesar reoccupied Corinth with Italian freedmen and dispossessed the Greek population. Augustus Caesar made it the capital of Achaia.

"Too Proud to Fight"

The expression, "Too proud to fight" was employed in a speech made by President Wilson in Philadelphia, May 10, 1915. The exact wording is: "There is such a thing as a nation being so right that it is too proud to fight, there is such a thing as a nation being so right that it does not need to convince others by force that it is right."

Pepys Relic Displayed

A gaming table, which was given by James II to Samuel Pepys, is on display in London museum. It is inlaid with ivory and various colored woods, and with it are a set of chessmen and checkers in tinted ivory and an ivory dice box with markers.

Chinese First

The Chinese knew the direction finding power of the lodestone before the Europeans devised the real mariners' compass in 1300.

True Foolcap Paper

This is a British paper, and measures 13 1/2 by 17 inches. It is so called because the watermark is a fool's cap and bells. The so-called American foolcap is the same size as "legal cap"—13 by 16 inches.

Interesting Forgeries

Harvard university has a collection of the so-called Ireland forgeries, papers and letters which William Henry Ireland wrote in the Eighteenth century and strove to have attributed to Shakespeare.

Historical Globe

The globe that first put America on the map is in Philadelphia. Intended originally as a gift for the Emperor Charles V, it is almost 400 years old and was made by the famous geographer and mapmaker, Mercator.

The Only Difference

There is this difference between great leaders and the average citizen: The average citizen doesn't know how to save the country, either, but he doesn't know it.—Los Angeles Times.

Why Justice Is Called Blind

Justice discards party, friendship, kindred, and is always, therefore, represented as blind.—Addison.

For 16 years five farmers in Woodford county, Illinois, have been co-operators in farm accounting work sponsored by the University of Illinois department of agriculture.
