Mrs. Lee Warnick Guest of Honor At P. E. O. Party

Mrs. Lee Warnick, who is leaving soon to make her home in Portland, was the guest of honor yesterday when Chapter J. P. E. O., gathered at the home of Mrs. H. S. Brown, luncheon was served at 1 o'clock, with Mrs. J. T. Richardson, Mrs. C. R. Eberhard and Mrs. Clyde Seitz in charge of arrangements.

Jonquils and freestars were used to decorate the rooms.

Mrs. E. E. Kiddle expressed the regret of the chapter at Mrs. Warnick's departure, and presented her with a gift.

Mrs. H. H. Richardson was in charge of the afternoon's program, presenting the lives of George Washington, president; and Haydn and Mozart, composers. The three famous men lived at the same time, and the bi-centennial of the birth of Mozart is being celebrated in Vienna, Austria, this year.

Mrs. Ann Craig, of Enterprise, was a guest for the afternoon.

Mrs. C. H. Bidwell will entertain at a 1 o'clock luncheon on April 1.

Mrs. Carroll Is Hostess at Party

At a delightful 1 o'clock luncheon, Mrs. Caroline Carroll entertained her bridge club at her home yesterday afternoon. Eight were invited.

Bridge was played during the afternoon and the prizes for high scores were awarded to Mrs. George Walker, first, and Mrs. E. C. Stephenson, second.

Mrs. Leighton Everle will entertain the club in two weeks.

Mrs. Stevens Is Hostess For Club

A southern motif was featured when Mrs. Robert Stevens entertained yesterday afternoon for the H. L. club at her home. Clever score cards were miniature dainties and a southern menu was used for the refreshments which were served at the close of the afternoon.

Mrs. M. M. Christensen and Mrs. Homer Leffel were guests, and Mrs. Leffel received the guest prize. Mrs. Herbert Davies received the high score among the members, and Mrs. Eva Gardner was fourth.

Mrs. Jed Allen will entertain in two weeks.

Honor Brother At Dinner Party

In honor of her brother, George Duke, of Eugene, Miss Bess Duke will entertain this evening at a 7 o'clock dinner at the Sackajawa Inn, followed by bridge at her home.

Guests invited for the evening are Miss Joan White, Miss Judy Moore, Miss Lois Nelson, Ken Siegrist, Henry Haggard, Norman Jesse and the guest of honor.

Elks Dance Will Be Held Tonight

A large crowd is anticipated for the Elks dance tonight at 9 o'clock in the ballroom at the Elks temple. Patriotic decorations are being featured.

Misses Virginia Bramwell and Miss Joan Pidocek will preside at the punch bowl during the evening. Robert Carey, chairman of the dance committee, stated this morning.

Assisting Mr. Carey on the committee are Harley Richardson, Clyde Smith, Earl Lester, Dal Hudspeth, Clive Moore, L. L. Snodgrass, L. Wisler, Stanley Mills, Raymond Gray, J. G. Ormond, Ed Mayberry, H. G. Dow, Dr. W. K. Ross, E. P. Walden, C. L. Thompson, and J. B. Shanks, of Union.

Diversity Club Is Entertained

The members of the Diversity club entertained their husbands at a 6:30 o'clock potluck dinner at the Eagles hall last night. Thirty-five were seated for dinner at one large table for the informal event.

Bridge was played during the evening, and the prizes were received by Mrs. Paul Hansen and Otto Ott, first, and Mrs. Otto Ott and Vera Holman, consolation.

Mrs. Lucille Price will entertain the members on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and will be assisted by Mrs. John Price.

Mr. Longfellow Speaks at P. T. A.

J. T. Longfellow, superintendent of city schools, addressed the Riveria Parent Teacher association in "Environmental Factors That Affect a Child's Mental Health" yesterday afternoon at the school. Miss Imogene Russell's room was awarded the attendance picture for the month, and also received it for the year for having the largest total number of parents present at each meeting.

Mr. Longfellow believes there are physical, chemical, neural and social factors which affect the mental health in the home, school, community and church. Since the latter are all dependent on each other, co-operation between them is essential, he said.

H. E. Brady discussed the widows' and orphans' pension bill, and gave a short address on "The New America," centered on the bi-centennial celebration of Washington's birth.

Miss Russell's room sang two spring songs, "Robin Red Breast" and "Pussywillow."

Founding of Group Is Commemorated

In commemoration of the founding of the Relief society, the Second Ward of the L. D. S. church entertained Thursday evening at the chapel. A short program was presented, after which dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

Mrs. Argenta Salkid, president, opened the program with a short history and outline of the activities of the society. Mr. Vest sang a vocal solo. Miss Leona Coakwell furnished a reading. Miss Leona Comb presented a piano solo; and Mrs. Clea Johnson gave a reading.

The members of the committee in charge were Mrs. Salkid, Miss DeLoe Wade, Mrs. Johnson and Miss Viola Fullmer.

"Double" For Lindbergh Baby Startles Tennessee Town

Excited throngs stampeded to Crossville, Tenn., during a quiet Sabbath afternoon when word spread that the curly-headed baby above had been located. The child, shown in the arms of Dr. V. L. Lewis of Crossville, at first was believed to be the kidnaped Lindbergh baby. But examination by Dr. Lewis showed that the descriptions, although distinctly similar, did not match. A billing station proprietor notified police when he observed the baby in the company of two visiting couples at a home across the street. They later gave their names as "Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of Pennsylvania." They were released after questioning and after Colonel Lindbergh, from a telephoto of the child and marks of identity, had definitely decided it was not his.

school. They have completed three of their five projects and many of them have filled out questionnaires which are being filed at Oregon State college. Mrs. Sadie Lambert, leader, announced.

Projects completed are: a luncheon set decorated with wax crayolas, a crocheted mat for hot dishes and a cover for a floor pillow.

Since many of the pupils at the Greenwood school have expressed their wish to join the club, a new club will be organized next week. They will begin their project at once, and children wishing to join are asked to inform Mrs. Lambert.

March 30 is the date of the next meeting.

Camp Fire Girls Select Project

The bedroom of a doll house is the project on which the Wiccas Wiccas Camp Fire girls will work for the council fire in May. The furniture was planned when the girls met Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Miss Marguerite Heese, their guardian.

Those present were Maxine Peterson, Von Cile Bruce, Marjales Purdy, Marcella Gardner, Virginia Hardiman, Kathleen Avery, Jean Henning. Two members were also present, Pauline Watkins and Marguerite Touberg.

Missionary Group Is Entertained

An unusually large attendance was enjoyed Thursday afternoon when the Missionary society of the Methodist church, South, met at the home of Mrs. Ruth Elam, 2611 North Birch street. The hostess led the devotions, after which singing and conversation were enjoyed.

Among the visitors for the afternoon were Mrs. Herbert Evans and children and Mrs. P. W. Daugherty. Because of the Easter service next week, the special social meeting that was planned for March 24 has been postponed indefinitely.

George Eastman Commits Suicide

"To my friends: My work is done. Why wait?" ... That was the brief note which George Eastman, 77-year-old multi-millionaire manufacturer and philanthropist, wrote before he shot himself to death in his Rochester, N. Y., home. World famous as a genius of the photographic industry, art collector and big game hunter, Eastman is shown here in a recent posed portrait.

Much to Unlearn
What's the use? You are content in the belief that you know everything and then you get educated and discover you don't know any thing.—Los Angeles Times.

Always Good
Jud Tunkins says the Maryland oyster gets a heap of attention by making itself scarce for a while, which shows it's best to be a little uncommon. Maryland fried chicken doesn't get near as much attention because it's good all the year 'round.—Washington Star.

The Nilgiri Hills
The Nilgiri hills form a plateau rather than a range of hills, rising abruptly from the plains of south India to a height of 6,500 feet above sea level. The highest point is called Dodabetta, which is 8,700 feet high. They are sometimes referred to as the Blue mountains.

Small but Mighty
Manhattan Island has an aggregate area of 21.9 square miles. Its greatest length is about 13 1/2 miles, its greatest breadth about 2 1/2 miles.

Big-Hearted
We read that a convicted criminal has "accepted" his prison sentence. That old fool notion of "honor among" them has been fairly definitely exploded, but it seems that there is such a thing as magnanimity—in the profession.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

in sympathy. Stop loss orders were set off in the first rush of selling and there were wild scenes in the pits as many wheat holders tried to unload as the news spread there had been a demoralized selling in Liverpool as a result of Secretary Hyde's announcement. The farm board holdings, since 40,000,000 bushels have been set aside for the needy, still total upwards of 300,000,000 bushels.

George S. Milnor, president of the Stabilization corporation, called for Europe this week but said he was merely on a vacation when asked if he was going abroad to arrange for sales of farm board wheat.
