Special Services and Musical Programs Feature Sunday in La Grande.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR HOLD SERVICES

Occasional Rain Fails to Dampen Spirit—Sunrise Breakfasts and Meetings Held.

With rain pattering part of the day and assuming the proportions of a shower occasionally, Easter day in La Grande proved to be rather damp. However the rain did not dampen the local ardor, and impressive church services were held during the day, from sunrise breakfasts at 6:30 until the day was closed with cantatas and musical programs by several churches.

One of the most pretentious affairs of the day was the cantata, "The Great Light," presented before a large audience at the Methodist church, under the direction of Paul Knautz. Thirty-eight voices formed the chorus choir, and were accompanied by Miss Helen Williams at the organ. Soloists were Miss Ethel Carson, Mrs. B. E. Edgill, Harvey Carter, Ted Allen, Mrs. Stanley Lyons, Mrs. Thomas McGuire, Mrs. Sherwood Williams, E. E. Hurley, Sherwood Williams, Mrs. Ray Fuller, Frederick Herzog.

"The Rose Again" was presented at the Baptist church at 5 o'clock, and the singers taking part were Mrs. Manley Arant, Mrs. Ralph Webb, Mrs. W. H. Parkinson, Miss Bessie Barry, Mrs. Alma Bichel, Miss Engle, soprano; Mrs. Mervel Moore, Mrs. Harvey St. John, Mrs. Elmer Scala, Mrs. Christina Lester, Miss Mertie Whitmer, Miss Alice Ketcham, Mrs. H. E. Hurley, George Plank, Raymond C. Williams, baritone; Elliott Pinsky, bass. Mrs. Parkinson directed the cantata and Miss Olga Damrell presided at the piano.

Mrs. Alfred L. Richardson, accompanied by a double mixed quartet, sang "Flamingo and Accordion" from the oratorio, "Stabat Mater," by Rossini, with Mrs. H. H. Richardson playing the piano accompaniment. Members of the choir were Mrs. Hal Bohnekamp, Mrs. S. B. Morgan, Mrs. Ray Fuller, Miss Corinne Baker, Dr. R. F. Murphy, Raymond C. Williams, J. T. Longfellow and E. Hurley.

Sherwood Williams led in congregational singing. Robert S. Eakin played the offertory selection on the piano. Dinner was served to the members and their families later in the afternoon.

Bishop William P. Remington conducted two services at St. Peter's Episcopal church yesterday, one at 8 and the other at 11 o'clock. The (Continued on Page Four)

Mills, Of Cove, Enters Race For Commission Post

Four Republicans Now Seeking County Position—Congressman Hawley Files at Salem.

Walter Stevens, Republican county commissioner from Union, is finding himself more and more in a contest for re-nomination.

When he filed his name as the sole candidate on the ticket, he shortly after wards Merton Davis, Union Republican, entered the race. So it went for a few days and then last weekend J. W. Johnson, Republican who lives between La Grande and Summerville, tossed his hat into the ring.

The fourth candidate for the Republican nomination appeared today when James E. Mills, prominent Cove citizen, filed his declaration of candidacy. Mr. Mills was to begin circulating petitions to complete his filing today.

JAPS REFUSE TO FURNISH A STATEMENT

Belief Also Expressed Japan Eventually May Withdraw From League

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28 (AP)—The bi-partisan insurgent coalition was defeated in the house today on a proposed bill that income tax returns be made available for public inspection.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28 (AP)—A house that has run rough shod over its leadership probably will receive an appeal tomorrow from Speaker Garner to pass a bill to balance the budget.

He indicated today in a conference with newspaper men he would take the floor to urge the house to accept that bill that would offset the loss of revenue represented by its action in trimming the sales tax from the pending revenue bill.

It has come to a point now where the worst kind of taxes are better than no taxes at all, he said.

His statement came about the time there were being distributed to house members copies of a letter from the American farm bureau federation, advocating selected taxes on luxuries and certain manufactures and levies on a group of imports to make up the amount lost by elimination of the sales tax.

Some of the import taxes proposed were similar to amendments that were pending Saturday when Democrats, Republicans and independent leaders united in appeals to the house not to transform the tax bill into a tariff measure and finally succeeded in turning back the flood of such proposals.

Speaker Garner renewed his assertions the budget must be balanced at his morning conference with newspapermen and indicated he might take the floor tomorrow to appeal to the house to pass a tax bill that would accomplish this.

I thought it was the wisest way to balance the budget as a temporary measure," he said, "but the house did not care for that kind of tax. We will have to turn to other taxes to get the revenue to balance the budget."

"Unless the budget is balanced foreign exchange will depreciate and I don't know what would happen. You would and the dollar would be affected in foreign exchange."

Asked whether there was growing sentiment in the house to permit the senate to draft the revenue bill, Garner said, "I have no opinion on that."

The Texas said he would make a tremendous fight in order to get enough revenue to meet the running expenses of the government.

He said he would not be in France or Italy or in any other country where the government was running behind in its operating expenses $20,000,000 a day and no effort was made by the government to meet the situation you wouldn't keep your money in that country," Garner said.

"You would get it out of that country. The same thing might apply to this country unless the budget is balanced."

Meanwhile Representative Rankin, (D. Miss.) a leader of the anti-sales group, said the house committed a "terrible blunder" when it inserted in the tax bill amendments providing for high protective tariffs on oil and coal.

"These amendments should be stricken from the bill by all means and I shall bend every effort to that end," he said.

"In the first place a protective tariff provision has no place in a tax bill. This bill is designed to protect special interests at the expense of the people."

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Mar. 28 (AP)—Another tornado dipped into Alabama yesterday and added six deaths to the 362 caused by freak spring storms in the South a week ago today.

The Easter Sunday twister struck hard into Central Alabama and then swept into Georgia with diminished force, leaving wreckage and scores of injured. High winds whipped through sections of Louisiana and Tennessee with damaging effect.

Senate Approves Bill Extending Time of Payment

WASHINGTON, Mar. 28 (AP)—The senate today passed and sent to the White House the Thomas-Carey bill extending the time for payment of construction charges owed by government irrigation districts to the government.

The senate agreed to a house amendment that the deferred payments should bear interest, the rate to be fixed by the secretary of interior.

The measure, sponsored by Senators Carey (R. Wyo.) and Thomas (R. Idaho) deferred payment of all the 1931 construction charges, due last December 1, and 50 per cent for the charges for the current year.

It was advocated as a relief measure for the western reclamation districts and was endorsed by Commissioner Mead of the reclamation bureau and representatives of the districts.

Hess said one of the horses fell, upsetting the wagon and throwing the children out. The horse jumped up and the team again began to run, drawing the wheel of the wagon over the bodies of the children.

They were born in Baker, Ore., and the family came to Pocatello two years ago, moving to Fort Hall last week.
