Perhaps the most valuable asset Stalin has is his personality. He lives a quiet Spartan life, enriched by his chemistry-studying wife, and his young daughter, 11-year-old son and his small daughter who likes to hear her father tell stories.

He can be ruthless and is. But to close friends, he talks easily, smiles almost to the point of a grin and works hard. He likes to read the works of Lenin and does his rough best with native shrewdness to guide his party, which he uses as his mouthpiece in carrying out orders and wishes.

Biggest Boss on Earth Stalin is being extolled. In fact he is being worshipped as a hero, with elaborate eulogies being heaped upon him.

So great has been this admiration that the word "vozhd" is being coined to guide his party, which he uses as his mouthpiece in carrying out orders and wishes.

Thursday afternoon county trucks hauled several loads of gravel and dumped them in the big mud hole that has been causing a lot of trouble in the road between the William Hovens farm and the Zundel place.

Blue Mt. Grange will hold its regular meeting next Wednesday, April 6. Members having birthday anniversaries in April are to have charge of the program for the lecture hour. Section two will serve dinner.
