General Trend Of Egg Market Continues Weak

PORTLAND, Apr. 7 (AP) — General trend of the egg market continues weak but prices are showing little actual change at any leading point. Accumulations are being rushed into storage in order to save the market from further loss.

Market for butter continues to gather weakness generally through the country with occasional loss in price reflected. Locally the market is weak with considerable accumulation.

Demand for live chickens continues sufficient to keep the trade arrivals cleaned up from day to day. The only weakness continues for light weight broilers and the bulk of these are from the Puget Sound country, which appears demoralized.

First carload of strawberries was of even better quality than expected. Sales were very good around $1.75 crate for 12s. Another car reported due for Friday.

First confirmed business in onions at Willamette valley primary points is reported at $5 a car, the recently reported lower price but could not be confirmed in actual trade. Reports indicate 9 to 10 cars in growers' hands.

Reaching a new low level at 6c or even less, the market for California asparagus is depressed here. Recent arrivals have been very liberal and somewhat in excess of demand. Quality is fair to very good.

Market for country killed hogs continues to reflect a sagging tone along the wholesale way. Sales are principally no higher than 6¼c. Veal and lambs are steady.

Notes of wholesale trading:

Further decline in California green peas.

New potatoes and onions fairly steady.

Rhubarb market is steady with a fairly active call.

Oranges are up about a dime for Navels.

Phoenix, Ariz. lettuce down 25c crate with top of $3.75.

Cauliflower is steady for local offerings; little good Roseburg stock here.

PORTLAND, Apr. 7 (AP) — Considerable difficulty is being encountered by the distributors of eggs and especially those storing on an extensive scale by the repeated refusal of many producers to leave their eggs unwashed. Owing to the fact that many poultrymen are saving money by allowing their fowls to feed in the open, many eggs are laid in the open and become dirty. To make it appear as if the stock is clean, many wash the eggs and bring them to market in expectation of obtaining the top price.

Washed eggs do not sell at full prices at any time. Owing to the fact that the washing destroys the seal that nature placed upon each shell, washed eggs do not keep well. Therefore as soon as discovered they are placed for sale on the immediate market. Such stock is not utilized for storage.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

Closing Tone In Market is Steady

NEW YORK, Apr. 7 (AP) — The stock market was accorded some relief from the stubborn selling pressure of the past week today. While there were numerous declines of 1 to 4 points for a time, they were substantially reduced in the last hour, and a few issues managed to work a point or two above yesterday's final prices. The closing tone was steady. Transfers were less than 2,000,000 shares.

Utilities again bore the brunt of the day's selling, and failed to participate much in the late recovery.

WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, Apr. 7 (AP) — The wool market continues very slow, and somewhat unsettled. An occasional buyer, however, shows a little more confidence in the current level of asking prices on wool, and buying a few very moderate quantities. Strictly combing 58-60's territory wools bring 47-50, scoured basis, and original bag lines of 64's and finer bulk French combing wools sell at about 45-47, scoured basis. Inquiries also are being received on 48-50's combing territory wools.

LEADERS OF SENATE URGE EARLY ACTION

supported by M. L. Seidman, representing the New York board of trade. He proposed that there be no tax on bond transfers and that the tax on stock sales be reduced from one fourth of one per cent to four cents a share.

Opposition also was expressed to levies on sporting goods.

The hearing was recessed until Monday.

Favor Prompt Service

After the Democratic meeting, Senator Robinson said "the general opinion seems to be that the revenue bill should be acted upon as promptly as may be consistent with fair deliberation."

"It is not contemplated that partisan action shall be taken, the design being to give the finance committee the benefit of the thought of the members of the Democratic conference and to secure for the conference full information as action in the committee progresses," he said.

Senator Connally (D., Texas) announced to the conference he intended to propose a scaling up of the surtax brackets on higher incomes but no specific figures were mentioned.

SUPPLY BILL REPORTED

WASHINGTON, April 7 (AP) — The interior department appropriation bill, its total cut by $12,000,000 by order of the senate was reported from committee today by Senator Smoot (R., Utah), who said he would ask that it be taken up tomorrow.

HOOVER AGAIN ATTACKED

WASHINGTON, April 7 (AP) — A new sweeping denunciation of President Hoover's naval policy was issued today by the Navy League of the United States.

The president was charged with neglect of the navy and with wrongly parading armaments as the "scapegoat" for the great increase in taxation during recent years. This charge was accompanied by an argument to show that other expenditures have played the major part in building up the taxpayers' burden.

The league said Mr. Hoover had done "virtually nothing" to replace vessels which have passed or are reaching the limit of effective age, and that "while Europe smolders and Asia is ablaze, the president insists that we cannot now afford even to start moderate measures for building up our fleet to treaty terms."

Today's attack was the most conspicuous one by the league since last October when its president, William Howard Gardiner sowed the seeds of a notable controversy with the White House by a statement charging Mr. Hoover, among other things, with exhibiting "abysmal ignorance" on naval matters. That incident ended with the verdict of a special board, chosen by the president to investigate the charges, which upheld the chief executive and said the league statement contained many inaccuracies, false assertions and erroneous conclusions. The league disputed the finding, however. Today's statement also was issued over Gardiner's signature, in the form of a printed 17-page pamphlet entitled: "The treasury deficit and a treaty navy."

HOOVER, CURTIS SALARIES APPROVED

WASHINGTON, April 7 (AP) — The $75,000 salary for president Hoover and the $15,000 salary for Vice President Curtis in the next fiscal year was approved today by the house in the independent offices supply bill.

Including the salaries, a total of $429,380 was allowed the executive office for 1933. This is $113,000 less than the amount allowed for this year, as recommended by the budget.

WILKERSON EXPLAINS ACTION

WASHINGTON, April 7 (AP)—Judge James H. Wilkerson told a senate committee today he had rejected the agreement under which Al Capone was to plead guilty because the gangster wanted to bind the court on the sentence to be imposed.

The circumstances of the Capone case were explained in a letter to the senate judiciary sub-committee considering his nomination for circuit court.

He said counsel for Capone claimed to have an agreement with government prosecutors that the gangster's plea of guilty was not to stand unless the court followed the proposed recommendation for a sentence of 2½ years.

Attorneys for the government denied they had made such an agreement, Wilkerson said.

"The hearing did not reach the point where the court was required to decide whether or not it would adopt the government's suggestion," he wrote.

"Defendant was allowed to plead not guilty, and afterwards to withdraw that plea and be heard upon a demurrer to the indictment.

"The defendant never had an agreement with the court as to the sentence to be imposed. He objected to proceeding with the hearing to determine what action would be taken on the government's recommendation and never claimed that there was anything connected with the pleas of guilty or their withdrawal which precluded the court from imposing the sentence which was imposed after the trial."

Wilkerson subsequently sentenced Capone to 11 years in jail.
