

Hitler Troops Declared Illegal By German Order

BERLIN, Apr. 14 (AP)—Adolf Hitler's national socialist "storm troops" were declared illegal throughout the country by a government decree yesterday.

The ban affects 400,000 "Nazis" organized on military lines and referred to by their political opponents as Hitler's "pretorian guard" sometimes as "the state within a state."

This is not only a heavy blow to the Nazi movement, but is a matter of bread and butter for hundreds and thousands of unemployed who receive food and clothing as members of Hitler's "storm troops."

STORM AT PENDELTON PENDELTON, Apr. 14 (AP)—Pendleton's hottest day since Sept. 30, ended in disorder yesterday when following a temperature of 82 degrees, a wind and dust storm broke over the district from the west late in the afternoon, and was displaced by a heavy shower in the evening.

SNOW AT KLAMATH FALLS KLAMATH FALLS, Apr. 14 (AP)—Flurries of snow fell here this morning. A 50-mile wind whipped in from the south Wednesday, filling the air with dust, and accompanied by a sharp drop in temperature.

WEATHER TURNS COLDER PORTLAND, Apr. 14 (AP)—Spring weather, noted for its vagaries, was recovering in Oregon today from complete rout and disorder following a 24-hour period in which summer temperatures, rain, wind and snow were mixed in indiscriminate fashion.

Fresh and strong south winds continued offshore today and rain was predicted in the western section of the state. Frost in the eastern districts was forecast.

At The Dalles a gale of more than 50 miles an hour stirred up one of the worst dust storms in years, obscuring land marks until light rains cleared the air. Chilly, partly cloudy weather today followed the storm.

The weather was reported to have been through felled cherry trees, it was believed there was no bloom damage. Federal frost warnings were issued for tonight. Orchardists are more alarmed over prospects of cold rain than from frost. The storms prevent bees and other insects from assisting pollination.

ened to add, "I'm not going to let my enemies run my campaign for me."

Will Speak in Ohio Ohio, the governor said, will be the next objective of his speaking campaign, although the date of his invasion depends upon the situation that is calling him back to Oklahoma. "I won't have anything else to say until I get home," he went on.

He returned repeatedly to say what had caused him to cancel his campaign tour in Oregon and also declined to say anything about Oklahoma's internal troubles.

WHAT HE SAID TO DERN DENVER, Colo., Apr. 14 (AP)—This, says the Rocky Mountain News, is what the governor of Oklahoma says to the governor of Utah: "Never heard of you. Are you a Democrat?"

The News says this is on the authority of those who witnessed the meeting of Governor William H. Murray of Oklahoma, and Governor George H. Dern, of Utah, on a train en route to Denver Wednesday.

"Alfalfa Bill" was eating breakfast when Governor Dern entered at his table. The Utah governor stopped at his table.

"Governor Murray?" he queried. "Yes," returned Murray in a loud voice. "What do you want?"

Governor Dern introduced himself. "Well," said the Oklahoma governor, between bites, "never heard of you. Are you a Democrat?"

After receiving an affirmative answer the two governors chatted amiably for several minutes. Governor Dern is an enthusiastic supporter of Franklin D. Roosevelt for the Democratic presidential nomination.

THE plane that swooped down to the ground bumped just a bit and swerved around. The Tinies hesitated as a queer man jumped right out. Said Scooty, "Gee, I wonder what he landed for, upon this spot. Shall we run up and bravely ask him what it's all about?" "Why not?" said Windy. "He looks kind and maybe he will help us find poor Duncy, who by now must be just miles and miles from here."

"You see, it may not be in vain if we ask him to loan his plane. If he says yes, I'll pilot it and there'll be naught to fear."

"SAY! That's a grand idea, lad! It is the best you've ever had," said Copy. "Come, let's waste no time. I'll gladly take the lead."

And then the Tinies promptly ran up to the funny looking man. As soon as Windy reached him he began to talk and plead. "Please let us use your plane," said he. "We're just as worried as can be about a little pal of ours who disappeared in air."

"He can't be very far away. We'd like to fly to him today, but we can't walk and we feel sure your plane would take us there."

The man replied, "Well, young-sters, I am tired of flying way up high. You see, I am a sky cop and keep the air roads clear."

High scores at cards were made by Eva Thornstrum and Claude Barmine. Consolation went to Mrs. G. O. Thornstrum and Orville Baum. Mrs. Claire Staret and daughters, Virginia and Doris, of Colfax, Wash., spent their spring vacation visiting friends and relatives in La Grande and Hilgard last week.
