Keller Case To Be Adjourned To Monday Morning

DALLAS, Apr. 15 (AP) — Adjournment over Saturday at the close of testimony tonight in the trial of Frank J. Keller Jr., of the Empire Holding corporation, seemed probable at the noon recess today. Judge Arlie G. Walker and Defense Attorneys Frank Loneragan of Portland and Oscar Hayter of Dallas, were reported agreeable to adjournment. A conference between the attorneys, including Barnett Goldstein, special prosecutor for the state, and Judge Walker was to be held later. Nineteen witnesses have been called by the state in its case against Keller, the first of five ex-officers of the Empire Holding corporation to go on trial for alleged defrauding. This is nearly half of the number expected to be called by the state and equal to defense witnesses. Little additional light has been thrown upon the operations of the salesmen of the Empire corporation. Medford furnished the witnesses for the morning session, including Mayor E. M. Wilson, a certified public accountant. Mayor Wilson testified that he had been asked to subscribe the full $20,000 necessary to qualify for a directorship and was told by Dr. E. R. Clancey of Medford, that a place might be found for him as auditor for the company, probably one of the subsidiary insurance units. After two months the Mayor Wilson stated that he was finally satisfied with the personnel of the company and gave a $3,000 mortgage and $3,000 note for $5,000 worth of stock. Mayor Wilson said he asked for cancellation and attempted to repudiate his obligation. Under cross examination by Attorney Loneragan Wilson said he understood that 15 percent included all expenses of the promotion, commission, advertising, and office overhead of the Empire corporation. Stock in an insurance company was being acquired by the investment of $500 for five shares. Dr. J. D. Rickert, Medford optometrist, told the jury. He paid $350 by check and gave a note for $150. Dr. Rickert occupied the greater portion of the morning. Another Medford man to invest was Roland A. Smith, deputy Jackson county engineer, who said that the names of Clancey, Coshov, Adams, and Kozor "looked good to him." He signed for ten shares paying a $10 deposit and later paid $500 cash for

KIDDIES GETTING PETS READY FOR PARADE SATURDAY

(Continued from Page One) boy parading with a pet, the smallest kid parading with a pet, and the pet brought from the farthest distance from La Grande. Judges will be Mrs. Agnes McCachan, principal of Central school, Fred Henning and Angus McAllister. Every boy or girl in the parade will receive an all-day sucker and a balloon. Plans are to have the paraders form a procession at the intersection of Washington and Hemlock at 12:30 o'clock, and every entrant is urged to be ready to fall into line at this time. Between 12:30 and 1 o'clock, parade officials will be busy registering and classifying each entry. Must Fill Out Blank To enter the parade it will be necessary to fill in an entry blank, which may be found on another page of this paper today, and hand it to a parade official between 12:30 and 1 o'clock as the parade is forming. In return for the entry blanks, the officials will provide each contestant with an identifying number which is to be worn on the back of each to facilitate identifying prize winners by the judges. Three judges will decide the winners and their decisions will be final. The winners will be announced from the marquee of the Liberty theatre directly after the judges make their decisions. Motion pictures of the parade will be taken by W. M. Heughan, and the equipment necessary to take the pictures has been secured and the films will have their premier at the Liberty a week or so after the parade. A world premier showing of Tom Mix in "Destry Rides Again," his first talking picture after two years with the circus, will be shown for the benefit of the kids after the parade. Vicious Battle Fought Today In Auckland, N. Z.

AUCKLAND, New Zealand, Apr. 15 (AP) — Vicious fighting broke out in the streets again tonight and for three hours crowds of jobless men and women, who rioted all day yesterday, held their own against police volunteer reinforcements and a landing party from a British cruiser. Mounted men charged the rioters and foot police advanced in close formation with drawn clubs, but they were beaten back by the jobless who fought with clubs, rocks and fists. During the melee fire broke out in the church of the Epiphany and the building was badly damaged. Police said the blaze was started by the rioters. At least 30 persons were injured, some seriously. The mayor, who marshaled civilian volunteers to assist the police yesterday, said tonight if the fighting continued he would read the riot act. Prime Minister Forbes told the house of representatives these were not food riots but the work of criminal elements. He reported that not a single grocery or food shop had been looted and most of the victims were proprietors of jewelry stores whose loss he estimated at about half a million dollars. "The government is fully prepared to meet any eventuality," he said, "we will not permit those rioters to get the upper hand."

Teachers and Exercise

Teachers might be able to avoid many of their ailments if they would take more exercise. A survey made by Frances Ross Hicks and reported in Hygeia, the Health Magazine, shows that nearly 63 per cent of 602 teachers take no daily exercise other than that required in going to school. Nearly half of the 602 state that they ride to school.

Extra Guards On Duty At Prison

COLUMBUS, O. Apr. 15 (AP) — Extra guards, including city radio cruiser crews, were on duty at Ohio penitentiary last night and today for some unannounced reason. City and penitentiary officials would not discuss the special precaution. It was generally believed that Warden Preston E. Thomas called on the city for guard aid when he learned something was "brewing" within the walls. Extra guards had not been on duty at Ohio penitentiary since East: Monday two years ago, when a fire killed 330 convicts who were locked in their cells. The prison is within a few blocks of Ohio's new state office building, in which a half dozen men met death in a terrific explosion of mysterious origin late yesterday.

Menaced by Newfoundland Rioters

Assaulted by infuriated mobs that stormed parliament buildings in St. John's, Newfoundland, and wrecked government offices, Prime Minister Sir Richard A. Squires was reported to have resigned. Sir Richard is shown in a recent photo with his wife. Though present in the legislative assembly when the rioters seized the building, Lady Squires was unharmed. The riot—described as "virtual revolution"—was attributed to the slowness of the government in dealing with public demands for unemployment relief.

The Master and His New Toy

Here is the first photo of Henry Ford at work on his much-discussed new "V-8" engine. The new power plant, built in two banks of four cylinders each, has an S. A. The new downdraft carburetor is seen above the engine.

(Continued from Page One) prospect. He will not have to fight at any stage. His inauspicious opposition has almost stopped protesting, and most of it will either stay away from the convention, or sit in a corner and keep quiet. But not Roosevelt's opposition. Now that the battle-smoke of Wednesday's Democratic "harmony" meeting in Washington is clearing away it appears the Democratic plum will be kept dangling until the very last minute. Roosevelt will be so close to it that he can almost pick it off at once, and it will take a desperate struggle to keep it out of his grasp. Two Bombshells Two bombshells have landed within the last few days in the pathway of the Roosevelt advance, but it does not yet appear whether they are duds. "Al" Smith's slashing attack at the Democratic banquet here disclosed at last his opposition to Roosevelt "to the bitter end," but it cast no light on the number and identity of the troops that may be counted on to stand at the last ditch. Smith has no delegates instructed for him—the one from Wisconsin which had been assumed New Jersey, Louisiana, and Delaware, with 89 votes, would be irreconcilably anti-Roosevelt. Where will the others come from, to make up a veto bloc of 385?

330 For Favorite Sons

There are several places they might come from — or might not. More than 250 will be locked up, temporarily at least, behind favorite sons. No one knows how many of the delegations will perform when the pressure is put on. The New York state has 94, and possession of them may easily bring on a tug of war. Seven or eight other states may fairly be classed as doubtful. Three of these, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, and California, have a total of 156 delegates.

"Alfalfa Bill" Speaks

The second major projectile hurled at the Roosevelt camp this week was the charge of "Alfalfa Bill" Murray that votes have been bought for the New Yorkers in the West. Threats to investigate have followed, but the

MAIL ROBBER ESCAPES FROM McNEIL ISLAND

TACOMA, Wash., April 15 (AP) — An all night search Warden Fincher Archer was planning today to intensify his efforts to capture James Sargeant, mail robber and alleged murderer who escaped yesterday from a working-gang at McNeil Island federal penitentiary. Sargeant was missed when a check-up was made as the prisoners were being returned to their cells for the evening. Warden Archer immediately called out all the prison guards available for a search of the island and ordered out the boat patrol in an effort to forestall an escape by water. It was believed, however, that he was still on the island unless he had outside help. Sargeant had served two months of a 26-year sentence for mail robbery on a Southern Pacific train at Nobel, Contra Costa county, California, in which $57,000 was taken on November 7, 1929. He was captured a year later in Portland and returned to San Francisco for trial. Prison authorities said that he is wanted at Bradley Beach, N. J., for the fatal shooting of a messenger during a payroll robbery and that robbery charges are also pending against him in Philadelphia.

(Continued from Page One) upshot is yet to be seen. This sort of charge always makes excitement, and sometimes in the past it has had effective repercussions. The high spot of the week's voting was the Moberg primary. For the first time Roosevelt contested directly with Speaker John N. Garner. The sweeping Roosevelt victory over both Garner and Murray was no surprise to those who have realized the extent to which the Garner boom, in particular, has been deflated in recent weeks. His friends do not count him out entirely, but they are not claiming much.

Sargeant had served two months of a 26-year sentence for mail robbery on a Southern Pacific train at Nobel, Contra Costa county, California, in which $57,000 was taken on November 7, 1929. He was captured a year later in Portland and returned to San Francisco for trial. Prison authorities said that he is wanted at Bradley Beach, N. J., for the fatal shooting of a messenger during a payroll robbery and that robbery charges are also pending against him in Philadelphia.

MAIL ROBBER ESCAPES FROM McNEIL ISLAND

TACOMA, Wash., April 15 (AP) — An all night search Warden Fincher Archer was planning today to intensify his efforts to capture James Sargeant, mail robber and alleged murderer who escaped yesterday from a working-gang at McNeil Island federal penitentiary. Sargeant was missed when a check-up was made as the prisoners were being returned to their cells for the evening. Warden Archer immediately called out all the prison guards available for a search of the island and ordered out the boat patrol in an effort to forestall an escape by water. It was believed, however, that he was still on the island unless he had outside help.
