

Delegates From Cove Return To Homes Tuesday

By Mrs. A. G. Conklin (Observer Correspondent)
COVE (Special) — Delegates to the convocation of the Episcopal church returned home Tuesday. Cove was represented by Mrs. A. G. Conklin. The convocation was held at The Dalles, the oldest church in the diocese of Eastern Oregon, including Baker, Vale, Ontario, Nyssa, La Grande, Bend, Burns, Klamath Falls and many other small missions. The meeting opened Sunday with holy communion at eight o'clock. The service of the church following featured the annual address of bishop Wm. F. Remington. This included words of cheer and comfort to those present, commendation for service rendered during the past year, with plans for the future.

The convocation was organized Sunday afternoon and in the evening a mass meeting for citizens of The Dalles and visitors was held in the Congregational church. A number of the visiting clergymen assisted in the service and the combined choirs furnished the music for the service. Addresses were made by Rev. M. G. Tennyson on "The Christian Way Out—Economic Dislocation," "Lawlessness" by Senator J. Upton, of Bend, and "War and Peace" by Bishop Remington. Rev. John Dawson, of Portland, oldest active clergyman in the Episcopal church was present for the convocation. The Dalles has a new parish house that was dedicated Nov. 9, 1931. It is a beautiful edifice, built close to St. Paul's church. The Women's auxiliary provided entertainment and created comfort for all visitors. Sunday and Monday were devoted to the convocation proper while Tuesday was women's day. This meeting was presided over by Mrs. Remington and a complete resume of the work of the women of the district was discussed and plans for the future were made. Reports were made by delegates of all parishes and missions. Mrs. Remington was elected president. Mrs. M. Woodward, of Baker, and Mrs. Olive Fry, of Heppner, vice presidents. Miss M. Sophie, of Heppner, secretary and Mrs. M. A. Harden, treasurer. Convocation in 1933 will convene in Klamath Falls.

The baseball team of Cove will have the use of the ball ground on the Ascension property again for the spring term.

Richard Wade was taken to St. Elizabeth's hospital in Baker Saturday for examination and the decision was that it was a surgical case.

Mr. and Mrs. Sim Van took their small son, Johnny, to Hot Lake Thursday afternoon for examination.

Miss Ethel Hansen was hostess to her bridge club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hefty Saturday afternoon. Hot house flowers were used in decoration. Bridge was played at three tables. Besides the members, guests were Mrs. C. E. Lawson, Miss Lola Martin and Mrs. Frank Wells. Mrs. T. B. Conklin made high score. A delicious lunch was served after the games.

Mrs. W. J. Hallmark was hostess at a party Monday afternoon honoring the third birthday anniversary of her son, Keith. The guests were Charles and Donald Hefty, Anne Barker, Clarice Gale and Dick Conklin. Freddie White, Beulah Mae Bloom, Roderick French, Paul and Ardith Gorham, and the children's mothers. Mrs. A. H. Orton was also a guest. The children played games and were served dainty refreshments at four o'clock. The birthday cake, a lovely angel food, bore aloft three pink candles.

Rheumatic Cripples

New Medicine Guaranteed to Free Your Muscles and Joints in Less Than a Week or Money-Back

No matter how crippled and helpless you are with rheumatism, you can now ease that pain in a day and break rheumatism's terrible grip on your system in less than a week.

A $1 bottle of Ru-Ma is guaranteed to free your muscles and joints from all crippling stiffness, swelling and torturing pain or your money refunded.

No long wait for that awful agony to stop, for Ru-Ma eases pain the first day. Magically your muscles and joints limber up, swelling vanishes, aches and twinges disappear, away go crutches and canes.

Red Cross Drug store has so much confidence in Ru-Ma that they want every rheumatic in town to try it and guarantee money-back if it does not stop your rheumatic misery.

Mrs. Lulu Weeks, of Seattle, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Anna Lorenz.

A family party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Loree Sunday, including Mr. and Mrs. Clifford and children, of La Grande, and Mr. and Mrs. Theo McClain and children, of Cove.

Mrs. A. G. Conklin returned Wednesday from The Dalles where she attended the Episcopal convocation. She reports that Eastern Oregon looks wintry after a visit to the warmer climate where peaches, cherries, apricots, are in full bloom and even early apples are opening. Tulips, carnations, and all the flowers we rejoice in May, are now in bloom in The Dalles and along the way.

WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, Apr. 15 (AP) — The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow: "The domestic wool market probably was never nearer to a standstill than at the present moment. It is estimated that not more than 20 per cent of the wool machinery of the country is in operation and in all branches of the industry everyone is waiting for everyone else to move. Prices are naturally in favor of the buyer, although it is practically impossible to quote with certainty."

"In the west, there is very little being done, buyers having been withdrawn by their eastern principals to a marked extent, where weather has permitted shearing to take place. Some scattering consignments to dealers are being made here and there."

"The foreign markets generally are easier. London opened the third colonial series with prices down generally 5 to 10 per cent on both merino and crossbreds, puntas being about 15 per cent below the closing rates of the preceding series. Prices have held through the week at the opening rate."

"Mohair is dull and prices are unchanged."

The Bulletin also will publish the following quotations:

Scoured basis: Oregon: Fine and f. m. staple 46-47; fine and f. m. clothing 40-43; valley No. 1, 45-47.

Mohair: Oregon, 17-18.

Domestic graded: first combing 27-30; second combing 24-26; third combing 20-22; fourth combing 18-20; good cutting 21-24; first kid, 60-65; second kid 45-50.
