

CARDINALS NEAR CELLAR POSITION

St. Louis Starts off Slowly in National League—Giants do Worse

By Gayle Talbot (Associated Press Sports Writer) With the big league ball season one frigid week old, it begins to look as if the champion St. Louis Cardinals will receive a run for their money in the National League.

In losing their fourth straight home game yesterday the champions set a new low for the first two seasons, dropping into seventh place. Their longest losing streak at Sportsman's park last season was three straight, and only once did they drop four in a row on the road.

Long Climb Ahead Where they started last season with a succession of triumphs, winning eight of their first eleven games and taking a lead they did not relinquish, they found themselves today with only two wins in six starts and a long, uphill climb before them.

It is probable that the Cardinals' boys will collect themselves soon and move around the top, but the odds are long against their making another "runaway" at that of last year. Charlie Gehringer, who set them down with four hits yesterday and would have scored a shutout but for an error by Rookie Bill Herman in the ninth, the score was 3 to 1.

Giants in Cellar The one cheering note for the Cardinals is that the New York Giants, generally regarded as their most dangerous rivals, have an even worse start. Walter (Duck) Betts of the Boston Braves handed the McGrawmen a 7 to 1 beating yesterday, sending them definitely into the basement.

Led by Babe Herman and Ray Kulp, the Cincinnati Reds further aroused their constituency with a 5 to 0 win over Pittsburgh. Kulp held the Braves to five hits while Herman drove in four of the Reds' five runs with a double and a homerun.

Babe Phelps, who led for Brooklyn in 1930 and a flop in 1931, made his 1932 debut by blanking the Phillies, 8 to 0 on six hits. Glenn Wright, Dodger shortstop, hit a homerun and two singles.

Solons Crush A's The Washington Senators supplied the fireworks in the American league with a crushing 15 to 7 triumph over the Athletics. Walt Johnson's proteges topped things off with a six-run spurge in the ninth, to which Sam West and Joe Judge contributed homers.

Wes Ferrell rang up his second victory as Cleveland stopped the Chicago White Sox, 2 to 1. Vic Frasier pitched steadily for the Red Sox, permitting five hits in eight innings, but the Sox made six errors behind him.

Whitney Watts of Detroit likewise scored victory No. 2 as the Tigers took a loose one from the St. Louis Browns, 14 to 7. The Tigers knocked Sam Gray from the hill in the fourth. The Yanks and Red Sox were not scheduled.

GIRL, 13, WINS HER FIRST BIG TIME LAURELS

CHICAGO, Apr. 19 (AP)—A 13-year-old girl from Indianapolis, Helen Lee Smith, has popped into the women's Olympic swimming picture.

The Indianapolis youngster last night won her first big time start in the Illinois women's athletic association's invitational meet, defeating Lisa Lindstrom of the women's swimming association of New York, in the 220-yard free-style event.

New York swimmers dominated the meet, with Eleanor Holm, national backstroke champion, winning the 100-yard event in 1:11.8, six-tenths of a second slower than the world record. Other New York victors were scored by Catherine Ames in the 100-yard free-style, in which the Indianapolis swimmer finished third; Susan Robertson in the 500 yard free-style, and the eastern 100-yard relay team.

Coach Declares New Grid Rules Cause of Injury WILMINGTON, O., Apr. 19 (AP)—The revised football rules, relating to the kickoff, were exposed today to a coach's criticism that they were responsible for the critical injury of one of his players.

Tom Williams, 10, a Wilmington high school player, suffered a brain concussion in a practice game yesterday while trying to block an opponent.

Middle Western Olympic Hopefuls To Strut Stuff in Kansas Relays

LAWRENCE, Kan., Apr. 19 (AP)—Olympic hopefuls from colleges and universities in the western half of the nation will parade their talent at the tenth annual Kansas Relays here Apr. 23.

The carnival is an unofficial test as far as Olympic qualification is concerned, but it will assay the prowess of the outstanding prospects for the international competition at Los Angeles in August.

On the program, sponsored by the University of Kansas, are seven University class relays, four college class relays, a mile relay for junior collegians and nine special events for individuals of collegiate rank.

The decathlon, under auspices of the Missouri Valley A. A. U., will see James A. Bausch of the Kansas City Athletic club a favorite to repeat his victory of last year.

Athletes from the Big Ten, Big Six and Southwestern conference schools will meet representatives of many other conference institutions and independent collegians.

San Francisco will meet the invasion of the Oaks tonight, the other games being daylight contests. Portland was entrenched in the home ground against Notre Dame, which will send Captain William McCormick, a sprinter, and its crack mile relay quartet.

Henry Brocksmith, is expected to run anchor on the Indiana middle distance medley relay team.

Among the outstanding stars entered are Capt. Harry Hinckley of Kansas State college, who bettered the world record for the 60-yard high hurdles by stepping over the barriers in 7.6 seconds at the Big Six indoor carnival; Capt. George J. Saling, University of Iowa, Big Ten 70-yard high hurdle champion; and Ernest Lenington, Illinois pole-vaulter, who tied for first at 13 feet 1/2 inch here last spring.

Capt. Joe Klauer, Big Six 100-yard dash champion and anchor of the University of Kansas 440-yard and half-mile relay teams that set new intercollegiate records at the 1931 Kansas relays, again, will be on hand.

Amos Alonso Stagg, the grand old man of athletics at the University of Chicago, has been chosen as referee of the meet. John C. Grover, dean of midwestern sports officials, will be starter for the ninth consecutive year.

Two years ago Sande returned to the saddle, after a disastrous experience in the great West, and he turned to the movies and radio to keep his mind off the job.

But the lure was too great. On a honeymoon in Florida with the widow of the late Clarence Kramer, once a rival for public acclaim, Sande just couldn't resist the thoroughbreds. He started working out and in a few days found he could take off weight all right, but he was still a fat man.

That was a relief. When riding Gallant Fox, he had difficulty making even 12 pounds, and the task of shedding poundage told on his health. Yesterday he rode at 113 pounds.

"I never felt better," Sande said. "I have been on the road only once or twice since I got back, and I feel stronger. The 18-month layoff restored me to health. Of course Mrs. Sande watches what I eat but it has been very healthy that has brought down my weight."

Earl's comeback campaign was given a temporary setback yesterday when he was suspended for three days for misbehavior at the post. "It was my fault," Earl said. "I was too anxious to get away on top. Sande has money but most of it is tied up in real estate. He admits the need for a new factory in his decision to return to the saddle."

That was a relief. When riding Gallant Fox, he had difficulty making even 12 pounds, and the task of shedding poundage told on his health. Yesterday he rode at 113 pounds.

Earl's comeback campaign was given a temporary setback yesterday when he was suspended for three days for misbehavior at the post.

Earl Sande On Comeback; Aims At Derby Honors

NEW YORK, Apr. 19 (AP)—Earl Sande is on his way back to the top again, with designs on the Kentucky derby.

Winner of three derbies, a fast and flashy rider, Sande is the most popular horseman in the Midwest. Sande again has answered the call of the turf with hopes of being the first to boot horse four winners in the $50,000 Blue Grass classic, which will be renewed at Churchill Downs May 7.

Sande hasn't got a mount yet but he has several prospects. Maxie Hirsch, trainer of Mrs. Louis G. Kaufman's Oaks and the Post, has promised him one of the colts if both are sent to the post. Pete Wallis, contract rider for the stable, will get his choice but Hirsch can't decide which is the better of the two.

Two years ago Sande returned to the saddle, after a disastrous experience in the great West, and he turned to the movies and radio to keep his mind off the job.

But the lure was too great. On a honeymoon in Florida with the widow of the late Clarence Kramer, once a rival for public acclaim, Sande just couldn't resist the thoroughbreds. He started working out and in a few days found he could take off weight all right, but he was still a fat man.

That was a relief. When riding Gallant Fox, he had difficulty making even 12 pounds, and the task of shedding poundage told on his health. Yesterday he rode at 113 pounds.

"I never felt better," Sande said. "I have been on the road only once or twice since I got back, and I feel stronger. The 18-month layoff restored me to health. Of course Mrs. Sande watches what I eat but it has been very healthy that has brought down my weight."

Earl's comeback campaign was given a temporary setback yesterday when he was suspended for three days for misbehavior at the post. "It was my fault," Earl said. "I was too anxious to get away on top. Sande has money but most of it is tied up in real estate. He admits the need for a new factory in his decision to return to the saddle."

That was a relief. When riding Gallant Fox, he had difficulty making even 12 pounds, and the task of shedding poundage told on his health. Yesterday he rode at 113 pounds.

"I never felt better," Sande said. "I have been on the road only once or twice since I got back, and I feel stronger. The 18-month layoff restored me to health. Of course Mrs. Sande watches what I eat but it has been very healthy that has brought down my weight."

Earl's comeback campaign was given a temporary setback yesterday when he was suspended for three days for misbehavior at the post. "It was my fault," Earl said. "I was too anxious to get away on top. Sande has money but most of it is tied up in real estate. He admits the need for a new factory in his decision to return to the saddle."

That was a relief. When riding Gallant Fox, he had difficulty making even 12 pounds, and the task of shedding poundage told on his health. Yesterday he rode at 113 pounds.

"I never felt better," Sande said. "I have been on the road only once or twice since I got back, and I feel stronger. The 18-month layoff restored me to health. Of course Mrs. Sande watches what I eat but it has been very healthy that has brought down my weight."

Earl's comeback campaign was given a temporary setback yesterday when he was suspended for three days for misbehavior at the post. "It was my fault," Earl said. "I was too anxious to get away on top. Sande has money but most of it is tied up in real estate. He admits the need for a new factory in his decision to return to the saddle."

That was a relief. When riding Gallant Fox, he had difficulty making even 12 pounds, and the task of shedding poundage told on his health. Yesterday he rode at 113 pounds.

"I never felt better," Sande said. "I have been on the road only once or twice since I got back, and I feel stronger. The 18-month layoff restored me to health. Of course Mrs. Sande watches what I eat but it has been very healthy that has brought down my weight."

Earl's comeback campaign was given a temporary setback yesterday when he was suspended for three days for misbehavior at the post. "It was my fault," Earl said. "I was too anxious to get away on top. Sande has money but most of it is tied up in real estate. He admits the need for a new factory in his decision to return to the saddle."

CLASSIFIED ADS

THE MARKET PLACE OF UNION & WALLOWA COUNTIES (Count five average words to the line.)

PER LINE, 1st insertion... 100 PER LINE, each added consecutive insertion... 70 Minimum charge on one order... 250

WANTED MEN-WOMEN—18 TO 50 Civil service positions pay $1200 to $3400 yearly. Prepare yourself now for the next examination and pay later under our

FOR SALE—Late 1930 Austin in good condition. Phone Farmers 398. 4-19-32

FOR SALE—Baby chicks. Mrs. Receptor, 2 blocks east of county garage. Ready for delivery. 4-19-32

FOR SALE—26 acres, known as Dan Boyl place at Enterprise, Ore. 7 r.m. mod. house, furnace, fireplace, lots of running water on place and large barn. 3-acre tract with small house and barn will go with the place or will sell separately. Close to business section. Easy terms. Price $3500. Write G. G. Maxin, Milwaukie, Ore. 4-18-32

FOR SALE—Bliss triumph seed potatoes. Ph. Farm. 104. 4-15-4 tp

DRY WOOD, posts. Also truck for hire anywhere. Insured carrier. Ph. 1051, W. Frank Seward. 4-12-0 t

ORIMM and common atraita, white sweet clover, seeds at lowest prices. C. W. Bond, Haines, or Owen Ledridge, Ph. 47, Union. 4-7-1 m

FOR SALE—10 A. mod. improvements. Or will sell 5 A. all in orchard. Good location. Ph. 498 J. 4-1-1 m

AUSTRALORP hatching eggs, $5 per 100; baby chicks $15 per 100, 20 E. 60th St., Portland, Ore. 3-22-1 mp

ALFALFA and clover seed. Send for samples. Weiser Grain and Feed Co., Weiser, Idaho. 3-4-2 mp

AUTOMOBILES CHEVROLET—FOUR-DOOR SEDAN New Three—$125.00. PERKINS MOTOR CO. Ph. Main 500 4th & Adams. 4-10-1 t

Professional Directory Hospitals DR. LEE B. BOUVY Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Hospital 2nd floor Foley Bldg.—Ph. Main 16

Osteopathic Physicians DR. J. L. & MARGARET INGLE General Practice and Obstetrics Sommer Bldg. Office, Main 100 Res., Main 643

Miscellaneous ASTROLOGER MRS. FREDERICK BALMES 203 N. Ave. Readings Daily.

THE NEW FANGLES (Mom's Pop) Putting You Wise! M. AFFEL, CHICK'S BOSS, HAS HIS HEART SET ON LANDING THE ACCOUNT

Beavers Begin Series At Home With Missions

By the Associated Press. Coast leaguers prepared for new assaults on east today to open the third week of the annual baseball war. The artillery was quiet yesterday as the big guns were being adjusted to new salutes.

San Francisco will meet the invasion of the Oaks tonight, the other games being daylight contests. Portland was entrenched in the home ground against Notre Dame, which will send Captain William McCormick, a sprinter, and its crack mile relay quartet.

Henry Brocksmith, is expected to run anchor on the Indiana middle distance medley relay team.

Among the outstanding stars entered are Capt. Harry Hinckley of Kansas State college, who bettered the world record for the 60-yard high hurdles by stepping over the barriers in 7.6 seconds at the Big Six indoor carnival; Capt. George J. Saling, University of Iowa, Big Ten 70-yard high hurdle champion; and Ernest Lenington, Illinois pole-vaulter, who tied for first at 13 feet 1/2 inch here last spring.

Capt. Joe Klauer, Big Six 100-yard dash champion and anchor of the University of Kansas 440-yard and half-mile relay teams that set new intercollegiate records at the 1931 Kansas relays, again, will be on hand.

Amos Alonso Stagg, the grand old man of athletics at the University of Chicago, has been chosen as referee of the meet. John C. Grover, dean of midwestern sports officials, will be starter for the ninth consecutive year.

Two years ago Sande returned to the saddle, after a disastrous experience in the great West, and he turned to the movies and radio to keep his mind off the job.

But the lure was too great. On a honeymoon in Florida with the widow of the late Clarence Kramer, once a rival for public acclaim, Sande just couldn't resist the thoroughbreds. He started working out and in a few days found he could take off weight all right, but he was still a fat man.

That was a relief. When riding Gallant Fox, he had difficulty making even 12 pounds, and the task of shedding poundage told on his health. Yesterday he rode at 113 pounds.

"I never felt better," Sande said. "I have been on the road only once or twice since I got back, and I feel stronger. The 18-month layoff restored me to health. Of course Mrs. Sande watches what I eat but it has been very healthy that has brought down my weight."

Earl's comeback campaign was given a temporary setback yesterday when he was suspended for three days for misbehavior at the post. "It was my fault," Earl said. "I was too anxious to get away on top. Sande has money but most of it is tied up in real estate. He admits the need for a new factory in his decision to return to the saddle."

That was a relief. When riding Gallant Fox, he had difficulty making even 12 pounds, and the task of shedding poundage told on his health. Yesterday he rode at 113 pounds.

"I never felt better," Sande said. "I have been on the road only once or twice since I got back, and I feel stronger. The 18-month layoff restored me to health. Of course Mrs. Sande watches what I eat but it has been very healthy that has brought down my weight."

Earl's comeback campaign was given a temporary setback yesterday when he was suspended for three days for misbehavior at the post. "It was my fault," Earl said. "I was too anxious to get away on top. Sande has money but most of it is tied up in real estate. He admits the need for a new factory in his decision to return to the saddle."

Treasury's Tax Plan Submitted To Senate Again

WASHINGTON, Apr. 19 (AP)—The treasury's revenue plan was resubmitted to the senate by Secretary Mills Monday at the request of the finance committee.

The plan submitted today does not make income taxes retroactive as did the original bill, but the secretary told the committee the loss would be offset by increased revenues made available by tightening the law through administrative changes.

He added that in the former plan, the estimated revenue in case of government of $120,000,000 would now be at least $200,000,000.

He recalled that his predecessor, Secretary Mellon, in submitting the original plan advised that it follow the 1924 act as the country had prospered under the tax levied in that bill and would prevent embarking on new and untried ventures in taxation.

The plan submitted today does not make income taxes retroactive as did the original bill, but the secretary told the committee the loss would be offset by increased revenues made available by tightening the law through administrative changes.

He added that in the former plan, the estimated revenue in case of government of $120,000,000 would now be at least $200,000,000.

He recalled that his predecessor, Secretary Mellon, in submitting the original plan advised that it follow the 1924 act as the country had prospered under the tax levied in that bill and would prevent embarking on new and untried ventures in taxation.

The plan submitted today does not make income taxes retroactive as did the original bill, but the secretary told the committee the loss would be offset by increased revenues made available by tightening the law through administrative changes.

He added that in the former plan, the estimated revenue in case of government of $120,000,000 would now be at least $200,000,000.

He recalled that his predecessor, Secretary Mellon, in submitting the original plan advised that it follow the 1924 act as the country had prospered under the tax levied in that bill and would prevent embarking on new and untried ventures in taxation.

The plan submitted today does not make income taxes retroactive as did the original bill, but the secretary told the committee the loss would be offset by increased revenues made available by tightening the law through administrative changes.

He added that in the former plan, the estimated revenue in case of government of $120,000,000 would now be at least $200,000,000.

He recalled that his predecessor, Secretary Mellon, in submitting the original plan advised that it follow the 1924 act as the country had prospered under the tax levied in that bill and would prevent embarking on new and untried ventures in taxation.

The plan submitted today does not make income taxes retroactive as did the original bill, but the secretary told the committee the loss would be offset by increased revenues made available by tightening the law through administrative changes.

FOR RENT—5 r.m. mod. house, cor. 4th and Y. 2 blocks to school. Inq. 2507 N. 8th. 4-18-32p

FOR RENT—Modern 6-r.m. Turn. house. Inquire 2115 Pine. 4-12-1 t

FURN. HOUSES AND APTS. — With baths, clean, quiet, lowest rent. Adults, 1810 Greenwood. 4-2-1 m

FOR RENT—Safety deposit boxes. La Grande Investment Co. 3-12-1 m

FOR RENT — House and Apts. La Grande Investment Co. 3-12-1 m

MODERN ROOMS—Comfortable steam heated rooms $3 per week and up. Hot and cold water. Close in. Pleasant surroundings. 1002 Second St. 2 blocks west Montgomery Ward on Washington St. 4-11-12tp

FOR BUILDING and shop work call M 960. Pete Boussart. 4-4-1 mp

RAISE, MOVE, repair and rebuild houses, John Mars. 4-2-1 t

DOWELL BROS. CLEAN-UP—We will clean up your ashes, papers, etc. Phone 323-J. 3-8-1 t

DRY WOOD, posts. Also truck for hire anywhere. Insured carrier. Ph. 1051, W. Frank Seward. 4-12-0 t

ORIMM and common atraita, white sweet clover, seeds at lowest prices. C. W. Bond, Haines, or Owen Ledridge, Ph. 47, Union. 4-7-1 m

FOR SALE—10 A. mod. improvements. Or will sell 5 A. all in orchard. Good location. Ph. 498 J. 4-1-1 m

AUSTRALORP hatching eggs, $5 per 100; baby chicks $15 per 100, 20 E. 60th St., Portland, Ore. 3-22-1 mp

ALFALFA and clover seed. Send for samples. Weiser Grain and Feed Co., Weiser, Idaho. 3-4-2 mp

AUTOMOBILES CHEVROLET—FOUR-DOOR SEDAN New Three—$125.00. PERKINS MOTOR CO. Ph. Main 500 4th & Adams. 4-10-1 t

Professional Directory Hospitals DR. LEE B. BOUVY Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Hospital 2nd floor Foley Bldg.—Ph. Main 16

KITTY FREW

Chapter 23. "WHAT PRICE CHRISTMAS?" KITTY anticipated Kitty's cry of alarm.

"It's nothing, Kit—he took a little too much, that's all. This Merry Christmas business, you know, just got Red and me put him to bed. He'll be fine and dandy in the morning, you'll see. The stuff was all right, don't worry."

Kitty, wordless, retreated before them, her eyes averted from the sight of their dragging burden. A nurse seized her. She went to the window and flung it up, wildly, staring blindly out into the black and white night.

"Oh, that wasn't her Gar—that hanging, shambling figure!" "I say, Kit," Tubby came out of the bedroom and stood beside her, his round face concerned. "Don't take it like that. It doesn't happen to Gar very often. Of all us fellows Gar knows the best when to stop. It got him tonight because he hadn't had any supper. Come on, Kit, come away from that window. He took her arm urgently.

Kitty shuddered away from his touch. "I loathe you all!" "Now, Kit, you don't, not anything of the sort. Tomorrow Gar'll be as sorry as hell, missing the party. Don't be hard on him. It's when a fellow stubs his toe like this he needs his wife. You got a tree all fixed up and everything, haven't you? And a new dress? Kit, come on to the dance with me. It's like that."

It got through Kitty's distress that Tubby was trying to help her. She smiled, a little wanly. "Oh, no, Tubby, thanks. I couldn't go. But I'm all right." She let him shut the window behind her. She faced Red as he came out of the bedroom. "Thanks, Red," she said to him, her head up, her eyes proud. "He's sound asleep now, Kitty. You won't hear a peep out of him until morning."

Tubby lingered after Red had gone out of the door. "Sure you won't change your mind and come along with me?" "I couldn't, Tubby."

"Well, then, Merry Christmas, Kit."

The holidays well over. "What price Christmas?" laughed Kitty, dolefully, facing a little accumulation of bills which had come in after the first of January. She had put them unopened into a drawer of the buffet. It had been a childish thing to do.

She'd been afraid of a quarrel. Garr always was so difficult when she touched on their finances. And just now she could not bear that any rift should come into the closeness that had grown out of that horrible midnight of Christmas Eve.

She had lain that night through, uncomfortably curled among the pillows of the divan in the living room, sleepless, wretched, shamed. Long after a thin streak of cold daylight crept across the room she had fallen into a troubled sleep from which she had awakened to find Garr kneeling beside her. His remorse had been heart-breaking. He had been incoherent, humble, self-debasing, burying his face against her shoulder like a little boy.

She had lain that night through, uncomfortably curled among the pillows of the divan in the living room, sleepless, wretched, shamed. Long after a thin streak of cold daylight crept across the room she had fallen into a troubled sleep from which she had awakened to find Garr kneeling beside her. His remorse had been heart-breaking. He had been incoherent, humble, self-debasing, burying his face against her shoulder like a little boy.

She had lain that night through, uncomfortably curled among the pillows of the divan in the living room, sleepless, wretched, shamed. Long after a thin streak of cold daylight crept across the room she had fallen into a troubled sleep from which she had awakened to find Garr kneeling beside her. His remorse had been heart-breaking. He had been incoherent, humble, self-debasing, burying his face against her shoulder like a little boy.

She had lain that night through, uncomfortably curled among the pillows of the divan in the living room, sleepless, wretched, shamed. Long after a thin streak of cold daylight crept across the room she had fallen into a troubled sleep from which she had awakened to find Garr kneeling beside her. His remorse had been heart-breaking. He had been incoherent, humble, self-debasing, burying his face against her shoulder like a little boy.

Boston Red Sox Wins First Game

BOSTON, Apr. 19 (AP)—The Boston Red Sox won their first game in five starts of the current American league race today, defeating the New York Yankees 6-5 in the morning engagement of a patriots day doubleheader.

The score: R. H. E. Boston 6 5 0 New York 5 8 0

Allen, Adair and Dickey; Durham, Moore and Connelly.

THE TINES ran along the sand and every bit of it was scanned to see if they could find poor Duncy, but they had no luck.

Said Scouty, "This is very queer. Not long ago he was right here. But we have searched and called and now it seems like we are stuck."

"Oh, no we're not," said Windy. "I think it would be real wise to try and find him in the woods. That's likely where he went from here."

"The little footprints on the sand just prove that others were on hand. Our little pal's in trouble now. I very sadly fear."

"COME, follow me! The brush is thick, but to our task we'll gamely stick. We'd better stay together. Then we'll know we're safe and sound."

"I'll take the lead and blaze the trail. I hope this is to some avail. We will be ready for a snoot when Duncy's finally found."

Then, through the trees they worked their way. Windy often shouted, "Hey! Where are you, Duncy? Answer us so we can rescue you!"

But no sound came from far or near. Said Coppy, "Well, he can't be here, but let's keep right on going. That's the only thing to do."

ALL of a sudden Coppy cried, "Quick! Jump behind some trees and hide. Then look right through those bushes and you'll see a real strange sight."

The Tines looked and what they saw made Windy softly whisper. "Aw! Some skinny men have Duncy, but at least he is all right."

The skinny men had played a trick on Duncy, and it worked out slick. They all had gathered round him and then dragged him to their house.

FOR SALE—Only $300.00 down. 15 acres improved, joining golf links. Balance long time. See J. R. Martin, 1104 Penn. Ave. Phone 494-M. 1-21-1 t

FOR RENT—5 r.m. mod. house, cor. 4th and Y. 2 blocks to school. Inq. 2507 N. 8th. 4-18-32p

FOR RENT—Modern 6-r.m. Turn. house. Inquire 2115 Pine. 4-12-1 t

FURN. HOUSES AND APTS. — With baths, clean, quiet, lowest rent. Adults, 1810 Greenwood. 4-2-1 m

FOR RENT—Safety deposit boxes. La Grande Investment Co. 3-12-1 m

FOR RENT — House and Apts. La Grande Investment Co. 3-12-1 m