Schwartz, Yarr To Demonstrate Their Talents In Movies

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Marchmont Schwartz and Tom Yarr, Notre Dame's 1931 All-Americans, have responded to Hollywood's call for "big names" of the gridiron.

The Irish halfback and center, both now coaching at their alma mater, will go to the west coast early in July to make two football pictures.

The first they say, will be a sequel to "The Spirit of Notre Dame," made last year with a number of older players receiving mention as "All-Americans" last fall.

The movie contracts will not, Schwartz and Yarr say, interfere with their coaching contract work here.

They expect to be off the sets by late August and to report here Sept. 12, contentants from the region.

It's cheaper to paint your home now... than not to!

Now is the time to paint your home. Labor costs are low. It is actually cheaper for you to give your home a fresh protective covering of Rasmussen 100% Pure Paint now, than to let your home deteriorate from wind, rain, sun and weather conditions over another year or so.

Now, prices are low. The actual value of the building you paint with Rasmussen 100% Pure Paint will increase over and above the cost of painting. Look for the label on the can of Rasmussen 100% Pure Paint. The label proves to you that no cheapening fillers or substitutes are used.

Because Rasmussen 100% Pure Paint is all paint it naturally lasts longer, covers more surface and does a better job. See that your painter uses only Rasmussen 100% Pure Paint. Detroit Outfit Early Sensation Of Big Leagues

By Gayle Talbot (Associated Press Sports Writer) After two lean years, in which he experimented right and left and practically rebuilt from the ground up, Manager Bucky Harris appears at last to have a pretty slick combination at Detroit.

Tied with Washington for the leadership of the American league after winning five of their first seven starts at home, the Tigers easily qualify as the sensations of the early going. It is doubtful if even Harris expects them to stay at the top but, even so, the former "boy manager" can report progress.

So far the Tigers have enjoyed the finest pitching in either league from Earl Whitehill, Vic Sorrell, George Uhle and Whitlow Wyatt, and their hitting has been both hard and timely. One of their two defeats last week was charged to Sorrell, and on a day when he allowed the St. Louis Browns only three hits.

Rightfielder Roy Johnson has supplied the big batting punch so far with 14 hits in 32 trips for an average of .438, but the club has been hitting right down the line. Charlie Geringer, whose bat has been a potent factor in almost every game, drove three runs across with a double and triple yesterday as the Tigers made it three out of four from the Browns, 8 to 0.

The Washington Senators continued their heavy cannonading to lick the Athletics, 7 to 4, and square the series at Shibe park. Rube Walberg yielded 14 hits in eight innings, including a home run and two singles by Joe Cronin.

The Yanks and Red Sox divided their patriots' day double-header at Boston, the Sox scoring their initial victory of the year in the morning tilt, 6 to 5, and the Yanks unlimbering their long-range artillery to take the second encounter, 6 to 3.

Lazzeri replaced the rookie Jack Saltzgaver at second base for the Yankees in the afternoon bout and drove across four runs with a home-run and a double.

Willie Hudlin hurled Cleveland to a 4 to 2 win over the White Sox, allowing only five singles, while his mates jumped on Sad Sam Jones for all their runs in the last three frames.

Travels Nose Out Giants Wally Berger's triple with two on in the 13th inning enabled the Boston Braves to nose out the Giants, 8 to 7, and above the McGrawmen further into the National league cellar.

Bill Terry, Giant first sacker, sent the game into extra innings when he connected with one of Ed Brandt's shots for a homerun, with two on in the last of the ninth. In all, Terry drove in six of the Giants' runs.

With Hack Wilson on the bench, nursing a leg injury, the Brooklyn Dodgers caught a 10 to 2 beating from the Phillies. Ray Bengie pitched steadily but all the way, allowing only five hits, but was robbed of a shutout by Glenn Wright's homerun in the sixth. Walter Hoyt made his second start for the Dodgers and again was knocked from the hill.

Only the two games were scheduled in the National.

"We must still get by the Olympic tryouts at Boston June 11 and then on July 6 at Chicago before we have even a fighting chance to run at Los Angeles," Sweeney points out.

VENZKE HARDLY WARM Venzke's career at middle distance record-busting has just begun, in Sweeney's opinion.

"Thirty-six years ago I witnessed the record-breaking performance of Tommy Connett when he negotiated the 1320 yards in 3 minutes, 2 4-5 seconds.

"At that time, everyone agreed that record would stand for several decades, if not for all time, and I never thought I would live to see anyone even approach that great time.

GOOD OLD DAYS Speaking of holdouts, Burt Shotton, in a fanning bee at Winter Haven, recalled the case of George Stone, outfielder of the St. Louis Browns, who batted his way to the American league championship in 1906 in a field that included such hitters as Cobb and Lajoie.

Stone, Shotton recalled, was offered a salary of $4500 for the following year, refused to accept it and quit baseball when the Browns stood equally firm on their proposal.

For about three times that much salary, Chick Hafey of the St. Louis Cardinals, 1931 National league batting champion, has refused to report and remained at loggerheads with his employers.

GABBY STREET NOT WORRIED ABOUT CARDS

ST. LOUIS, Apr. 20 (AP)—Despite a left-footed start which saw his world champion Cardinals lose four straight games in the first week of the season, giving them undisputed possession of seventh place, Sergeant Gabby Street took over the reins; he is still "fundamentally sound."

"No one expects the team that started in the first division of the National league to stay there," Street asserted as the Cards departed on their first road trip.

Although he didn't say it in so many words, it was also apparent the sergeant hardly expected his boys to maintain their almost unprecedented percentage of .333. Never since Street took over the reins have the Redbirds ranked so low in the list.

"Position in the race at this stage doesn't mean anything," Street opined.

"We have the pitching, our team has the punch and we have proved in more than one stiff pennant race that we have the heart."

Although fans may have forgotten it, Gabby pointed out the Cardinals have had losing streaks before, only to come back with a winning streak for every string of defeats. Gabby, remembering, says: "My confidence in the Cardinals is unshaken."
