Butter Prices Unchanged But Demand is Good

PORTLAND, Apr. 22 (AP) — With the local make slightly decreased during the last few days and with a like condition reflected at country points offerings of cube butter here appear smaller in general.

With this comes a rather good demand which has enabled the trade to keep cleaned up from day to day.

There was no change generally announced in the price of either prints or cubes for the day.

Butterfat also remains practically stationary.

Demand for heavy hens continue favorable in the local trade with prices held intact. Market remains active for light and medium weights but at the low prices recently quoted.

A few really worth while turkeys are arriving. Most of these consist of hens which are being sold to retailers around an extreme of 19@20c lb. Most of the toms are around 14c lb.

Market for onions continues to reflect a very firm tone for both old and new crop; the former being of nominal character. A carload of Chochella wax, the first of the season, has been cleaned up at $4 for 50s. Another car is due Monday.

Asparagus reflects strength for offerings but an increase in the supply is again noted. More is arriving from Kennewick and Walla Walla. Both are quoted generally $1 for 12s. Local stock mostly around $1.10@$1.25 dozen bunches.

First official quotations on new peel cascara or chittim bark will be mailed to buyers within the next day or so. The price has finally been established at 2½c lb. Peeling on the south slopes is due to start any day.

Generally better quality is noted in late arrivals of strawberries from California. Florin-Sacramento 20s are quoted $2.50 as are the better grade Fresno. The Los Angeles season is definitely closed here.

Full carload of around 18,000 lbs. of rhubarb is being moved to San Francisco by the Farmers' Produce company, the initial loading of this vegetable here for the season.

Advance of $1 orange box generally followed a shortage of offerings in the local spinach trade Friday. Reports indicate that most of the Chinese gardeners' crops have been exhausted.

Notes of wholesale trade:

Car California root vegetables here to relieve shortage. Beets and turnips 90c dozen bunches.

Some rather good California asparagus offering $2 per pyramid of at least 32 lbs.

Country killed veal market is steady to firm with hogs and lambs just about steady for tops.

Egg market is nominally steady with the bulk of the supplies rolling into storage.

Demand for hothouse cucumbers is chiefly for the lower grade and priced sorts.

WOOL REPORT

BOSTON, Apr. 22 (AP) — The Commercial Bulletin will say of the wool market tomorrow:

"The wool market continues to drag along. Manufacturers are running on very much reduced schedules —about 20 per cent generally — and some of them are closing down entirely.

"With such a lack of interest in wool—hardly anything moving—prices are quotable only on a nominal basis. It is difficult to say with any certainty what is a fair price for any grade or description of wool.

"The foreign markets have been rather slow. Offerings in London have been reduced and the sales shortened, closing yesterday afternoon. On the basis of reduced offerings, prices have been fairly well maintained.

"In the west, there has been very little business going on. Some few lots of wool have been moved mainly on consignment at low advances, mostly around 7 to 9 cents; occasionally a bit more.

"Mohair is as dull as ever in the seaboard markets. A half million lbs. or more have been sold in Texas, we hear, at 8¼ and 25¼ cents, respectively, for the adult and the kid hair."

The Bulletin also will publish the following quotations: scoured basis:

Oregon: fine and f. m. staple 44-45; fine and f. f. Fr. combing 43-45. Fine and f. m. clothing 40-43. Valley No. 1, 43-45.

Mohair: Oregon— 17-19.

Domestic graded: first combing 27-30; second combing 24-26; third combing 20-22; fourth combing 18-20; good carding 21-24; first kid 50-55; second kid 45-50.

Closing Tone In Exchange is Weak

NEW YORK, Apr. 22 (AP)—The stock market fell back abruptly in light trading today. Yesterday's upturn was cancelled, as leaders lost 2 to 5 points, but the day was one of the dullest of the year, with a turnover of less than a million shares. The closing tone was weak.

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS — By Blosser

JAY IS INSULTED!

THE TINYMITES — STORY BY HAL COCHRAN — PICTURES BY JOE KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

AS Scouty disappeared from sight, wee Windy said, "I'm filled with fright. We never should have let him go into that house alone.

"If anything should happen now, we'd have to rescue him somehow. Hey, listen very closely. I just thought I heard a groan."

"Ha, ha!" laughed Coppy. "You're all wrong. You see, the wind is getting strong and what you heard was just a squeak that came from yonder trees.

"Two great big branches rub up there, and send a strange noise through the air. Just keep your nerve and don't get so excited, if you please."

* * *

INSIDE the house brave Scouty dropped down to the floor and then he stopped and shouted, "Hi, there, Duncy! If you're here, lad, answer me."

And then, the next thing that he knew, a voice replied, "Hurray for you!" And Duncy ran into the room, as happy as could be.

"I knew you'd find me. This is great! And, listen, I can hardly wait to tell you of some skinny men who brought me to this place.

"They caught me and I made no fuss. The truth is, I was curious to find out what they wanted. Gee, I'm glad you lads gave chase."

* * *

"I GUESS those men were scared of you and thought the best thing they could do was lock you in this crazy house," said Scouty, with a smile.

"Let's go outside. Friend Windy's there, with Coppy, in the open air. No doubt they're getting anxious. They've been waiting quite a while."

It wasn't long till everyone decided they would have some fun. Said Scouty, "All those skinny men are near at hand, I know.

"Wait here and I will bring one back." They shortly heard his lasso crack. And then they saw brave Scouty, with a skinny man in tow.
