

County Grader Working on Ladd Canyon Roadway

By Mrs. Charles Grandy (Observer Correspondent)
LADD CANYON (Special)—The county grader was at work here Tuesday grading the Ladd Canyon market road again.

The renters of telephone line 14 got together recently and repaired the line all the way to La Grande. Mrs. William Banton and Mrs. L. W. Drummond both have been quite ill, but are rapidly improving now. The water is still very high, some of the fields being entirely under water. It is going to be late by the time some of the crops can be planted due to the high water.

George Tilton, of Lostine, was an overnight visitor Monday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henry Coussell.

The two young sons, Francis and Donovan, of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Y. Beale, entertained a number of young people at their home Sunday evening. Kermit Raglan was the honored guest of the evening. He was here over night from Portland. He is a real musician and had arrangements made to join a troupe of musicians who are to play for all of the Fox theatres from Portland to New York. It is needless to say that there was plenty of music at the party and also singing, as he has a trained voice and is a lovely singer.

The latest meeting of the Get-Together club was at the home of Mrs. C. Y. Beale. After the business meeting, Mrs. Henry Ewin and Mrs. Roy Munsell's names were drawn to furnish some sort of amusement for the day. They each had an interesting contest. Then Mrs. Henry Coussell's name was drawn to receive the "gift box" as they call it, which is a new feature—each member contributing a hand-made article. It was very much enjoyed both by the receiver and the donors as many new ideas are exchanged. Mrs. Beale served some dainty refreshments. Mrs. Ada Clark will be the next hostess to the club on Apr. 28.

Fall Grain Looks Well In Lower Cove Territory

By Mrs. Nell Kight
LOWER COVE (Special)—Spring is here, April showers, apricot trees in blossom; also strawberries. Grass is growing. Fall grain looks fine. Farmers are busy with plowing, putting on land plaster, plowing and seeding. Gardens are coming up.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Johnson went to Payette last week to attend a meeting of the directors of the Farmers Co-operative creamery.

Miss Vera Case, teacher at Frosty, and her pupils went on a hike to the mountains Friday. All had a good time.

Nell Kight sold 12 fat hogs to a local buyer Saturday. T. B. Johnson sold two cows this week. Howard Gansel has been selling weanling pigs this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Halsey spent Sunday at the Chas. Johnson home.

Miss Donna Lindsey spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. H. A. Gasset.

Ray Hartley and sons, Alfred and Clair, spent Sunday at the Nell Kight home.

Mrs. Gilbert Miller is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller. She was called from her home by the death of her grandmother, Mrs. A. B. Daniel.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Johnson, Walter Johnson, Grandma Thompson, and Miss Anna Hacker spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Peebler, of Ladd Canyon.

COVE PERSONALS

By Mrs. A. G. Conklin (Observer Correspondent)

Perfect attendance: LaVerne Houx, Phyllis Hancock, Mildred Millard, Jack Parks, Van Robinson, Chester Williams, Kathleen Comstock, Dora Beal, Lewis Hallmark, Gale Miller, Billy Gauthier, Zina Bristol, Ellen Green, Hazel Clark, George Hagey, Betty Orton, Burnetta Musgrove, Robert Hancock, Irene Haefter, Gertrude Hagey, Delmar Richards, Howard Houx, Stella Loid, Arnold Hallmark, Letty Wilson, Clinton Alexander, Don Miller, Doris Clark, Milton Harris, Bernice Deisman, Roy Comstock, Donna Lindsey, Malvina Millard, Buddy Orton, Theodore Hagey, Monte Davis, Ora Bristol, Evelyn Houston, Norma Coons, Avelin Harris, Charles Betty, Helen Harris, William Marks, Alton Alexander.

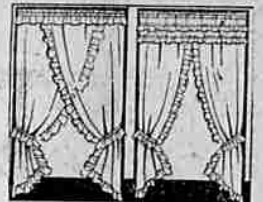

In his series of Bible lectures, M. J. Jackson had for his subject Tuesday evening "Bible Contradictions in a False Theology," every lecture being illustrated. Mrs. Jackson directs the music. Some of the singers who have been here are Mr. and Mrs. Schaumhoffel and Basil Kluse, all of College Place.

Mrs. Homer Lefel, of La Grande, was hostess at a quilting party Tuesday at the home of her brother, R. S. Comstock. The quilt was a sun-bonnet girl in colors. Guests were Mrs. Herschel, Mrs. Spaseth, Mrs. Linncoln, Mrs. Betty, Mrs. G. E. Berger, Mrs. A. V. Fisher, Mrs. Price, Mrs. A. L. Becker, Mrs. T. R. Conklin and Mrs. A. G. Conklin. A delicious dinner was served at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Lefel, as a girl, lived here. She was efficiently assisted Tuesday by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Comstock.

In a recent news item concerning the meeting of the Ladies Aid society the name of Mrs. Karl J. Stockland was inadvertently omitted as being one of the hostesses. She was a co-hostess with Mrs. McDaniel and Mrs. Borkgren.

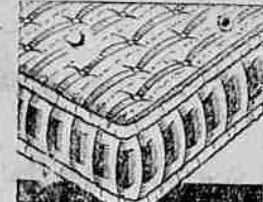

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Love, who so lately came from their honeymoon in California, were given a surprise serenade at their home Monday. All the neighbors and many of their friends gathered and went en masse to their home. An hour was spent in conversation and in becoming acquainted with the new member of our community. As the introductions were made, each person was labeled with his or her particular object in life. It produced much merriment and relieved much of the strain which is sometimes apparent.
