

Grain Markets Weaker On Dull Demand, Report

WASHINGTON, Apr. 25 (AP)—Wheat markets lost most of their recent gains during the week ending April 22 influenced by a continued improvement in winter wheat prospects as a result of local showers, increased receipts following the previous week's price advances, relatively large remaining stocks and a continued dull demand, according to the weekly grain market review of the U. S. bureau of agricultural economics.

Remaining supplies and crop developments are now the leading factors in the general wheat market situation. The world visible supply of wheat and flour April 1, was estimated by trade agencies at 633,000,000 bushels, but continued to show a decrease from the peak of 660,000,000 bushels reached at the first of February. U. S. wheat stocks at the end of April, including a trade estimate of merchant mill stocks, were around 40,000,000 bushels more than at the same date last year.

With supplies of old wheat diminishing, more attention is being given to new crop prospects. In the main, the producer of winter wheat outside the U. S. has harvested a crop slightly above that of a year ago, with the output placed at 347,648,000 bushels and against 347,000,000 bushels in 1931. In the main, the producer of winter wheat outside the U. S. has harvested a crop slightly above that of a year ago, with the output placed at 347,648,000 bushels and against 347,000,000 bushels in 1931.

Seeding of spring wheat is expanding rapidly. Moisture and soil condition in the U. S. spring wheat sections are generally satisfactory, with the exception of the sections in Northwestern North Dakota and Northwestern Montana, where droughty conditions still prevail.

Progress in seeding was reported to be unsatisfactory in the Ukraine and Northern Caucasian. Seeding had been completed in Crimea at the middle of April, had become general in the southern part of Ukraine and has begun in parts of the lower Volga.

Decide Against Moratorium On State Aid Loans

SALEM, April 25 (AP)—The executive committee of the Oregon Legion unanimously voted against requesting a moratorium for an indefinite period on principal and interest on World War veterans state aid loans. It was announced today by Jerrald Owen, secretary of the state bonus commission.

Owen announced the executive committee took this action at a meeting in Portland yesterday following consideration of resolutions from five posts in Oregon demanding a moratorium. The commission secretary was informed of the action by state legion officials today. Owen announced there was about $30,000,000 out in veterans' loans in Oregon. The reasons given for the rejection of the demand by the state department were: The apparent unconstitutionality of the move that would deprive all veterans not yet taking advantage of such loans from obtaining any loans; prevent payment of cash bonuses would benefit less than 15 per cent of the borrowers; and would make it impossible for the state to retire the $2,000,000 bond issue falling due this year, thus paving the way for bondholders to take over the matter and force payments from veterans.

In commenting upon the action, Owen said it would be absurd to declare a moratorium, as the act would defeat the purpose for which some posts had suggested the move. He declared that 85 per cent of the borrowers of the $300,000,000 were paid up to date, that if such action were taken it would cut off further loans, which now are being made at the rate of about $100,000 a month, and cash bonuses falling due this year, thus paving the way for bondholders to take over the matter and force payments from veterans.

GRAPE GROWERS TAKE STAND FOR BEVERAGE SALE

WASHINGTON, Apr. 25 (AP)—Organized anti-prohibitionists in congress today looked with considerable indignation on the proposal by Donald D. Conn, director of the California Vineyardists association, that the eighteenth amendment be modified to permit the sale of naturally fermented beverages.

Meanwhile, Secretary Hyde and the office of Attorney General Mitchell denied a statement by Conn that fruit industries had had the general assent of conferences between the department of justice, the treasury and the department of agriculture in Washington. In view of the Volstead act Conn urges advocacy of a "national liquor

Butter Steady; No Changes In The Egg Market

PORTLAND, Apr. 25 (AP)—General butter market situation for the day appeared steady and in line with last week's general showing for cubes as well as prints. Butterfat appears fully steady. Market for eggs continues more or less of stationary character with no change reflected in general prices. Storage rejects are being utilized by some interests to undersell the general market.

Seemingly the immediate low point on cheese has been reached at leading American primary trade centers. The late cut of ic by Tillamook, which was caused by the previous slashing in the eastern trade, and later followed by the entire coast appears to have created a somewhat better undertone through the trade generally with the consequent increase in demand.

REJECT TAX ON PRODUCTS OF FORESTS

WASHINGTON, Apr. 25 (AP)—(U. S. D. A.)—Hogs 33,000; slow about steady, 5 to 10c lower; 140-160 lbs. $3.75 to $3.90. Cattle 14,000; better grade steers and long yearlings steady to weak; light heifer and mixed yearlings tending lower; vealers closing 25 to 50 cents higher at $4.00 to $5.00; select $5.50 to $6.00. Sheep 20,000; about steady, spots lower; woolled lambs $6.00 to $6.25 to packers, throwouts $4.00 to $5.00; ewes $2.00 to $2.50.

Human Hair

It is estimated that the number of hairs on the average human head is about 110,000, there being about 1,000 to each square inch of scalp. Women have a greater number of hairs on their heads than men, and the heads of blonds contain a greater number of hairs because blond hair is usually finer in texture. Headdress heads contain the fewest hairs.

PUBLIC'S INTEREST IN PROTECTING ITS HIGHWAYS

TAXPAYERS BEWARE!

The commercial trucking interests, now hogging our state highway system, unwilling to contribute even a small amount towards the upkeep of the roads they so ruthlessly destroy, have, through the Consolidated Freight Lines, Inc., a Washington corporation, and in a suit recently filed in the federal court, attacked the constitutionality of our State Motor Transportation Act. Should the truck interests prevail in this suit they will enjoy practically free and unrestricted use of our highways.
