

Russia Enters Market As Wheat Buyer

NORTH AMERICAN STOCKS SOUGHT REPORTS STATE

May Be Using Cheaper Wheat to Feed Army in Siberia—No Authentic Information Yet.

WASHINGTON, May 5 (AP)—While having no authentic reports, agriculture department officials said today it is quite likely that Russia has entered the world wheat market as a buyer and may take quantities of North American stocks. They point out that the soviet had a short crop last year and rationing has been resorted to provide seed for new planting and some wheat for export.

From press dispatches, officials have been wondering if the Russian purchases are not for its army in Siberia. It might be cheaper to buy wheat in Canada and ship it across the Pacific than to bring it up from Russian ports.

It was held probable that Russia is buying Western Canadian wheat because it is cheaper, and that may be the means of removing a large part of the North American wheat surplus. There is some wheat available for export in the American Northwest, but it seems Canada would benefit more than the United States from any wholesale Russian buying, inasmuch as it would prove too costly for midwestern growers to compete with Vancouver shipments. The exchange rates favor Canada.

Leslie A. Wheeler, in charge of foreign agricultural information, said "there is no question but the 1931 Russian crop was a poor one. We know that the soviet government has been rationing for a long time to provide seed for planting and also for export. It probably is true that when Russia exported 50,000,000 bushels at the start of the season it over-estimated its needs and has had to make up its needs in other ways."

Latest figures, while not covering the 1931 crop, show that revised estimates of Russia's huge 1930 production are 989,000,000 bushels compared with the 1,034,000,000 estimate made a year ago.

The commerce department has no information on Russian wheat buying, but since some trade reports say Russia has a surplus of 10,000,000 bushels which it presumably is willing to sell, officials there said they were surprised that country would now be buying wheat.

Strange Malady Killing Lambs In Wallowa Co.

By G. C. Meek (Observer Correspondent)

WALLOWA, Ore. (Special)—Reports from some of the farms in Lower valley recently are to the effect that some malady appears to be causing a considerable loss of lambs at some of the farms there. It seems that no one has been able to find out what is causing the trouble. Some of those who have lost lambs say that the first symptoms resemble rheumatism with the lambs becoming quite stiff and lame and gradually worse until they quit eating and die. It does not appear to affect lambs until they have reached a month or more in age.

John Bales and wife, of Paraspick creek were visiting relatives in the Imnaha district last week.

Lee W. Boll reports the placing of orders for many chicks during the past two weeks. He states that 200 is the largest order placed by anyone to date, but that many have placed their orders for from 25 to 100 chicks, with many ordering assorted chicks.

Everyone in this community is much pleased to hear the reports that the sawmill here will start sometime during the early summer and that work in the timber will be available for a limited number of local men. It was reported the last of the week that work of cleaning out the pond would start soon.

Mrs. Eva Parker, of La Grande, is visiting this week at the Meek Bros. home at Leap.

L. W. Minor has been moving his band of sheep to range on the forest reserve in the Dry creek section. Mr. Minor had his sheep on range in the Wallowa creek section recently and has finished his lambing operations. He reports the grass getting very good on summer range in the Dry creek district and that the abundance of moisture which keeps the soil well soaked many are expecting the coming summer to be one of the best for grass of a number of years.

H. N. Ashby, manager of the Bowman-Hicks Lumber Co. of La Grande, was a business visitor in this section the latter part of the week.

Guy Parker, a brother-in-law of local men. It was reported the last of the week that work of cleaning out the pond would start soon.

Reports from several parts of the county indicate that there is a rather large fall for seed this spring. A number of farmers in the dry sections of the county intend to seed this grain for summer pasture and for hay in some instances if they are able to secure the seed. During the past number of years there has not been a great deal of rye threshed and the

Don't Cook To Please Hubby, Instructor Says

WASHINGTON, May 5 (AP)—Compensation received by instructors in state universities is exempt from federal income tax.

It was so held yesterday by the board of tax appeals which overturned its previous decision and ruled against the internal revenue bureau.

The decision was in the case of G. Riddly Sappington, an instructor in the University of Alabama and was concurred in by 33 other states and Hawaii.

Officials of the internal revenue bureau declined to estimate how much income the decision would prevent the government collecting but said it would be "a large amount."

Miss Coates, who will conduct the Safeway three-day cooking school at the Socajawee ballroom beginning next Wednesday, and continuing Thursday and Friday, believes that if the young bride starts out letting her husband eat steaks, French fried potatoes and other rich, heavy foods all the time, he is simply storing up material of which grievances are made.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning 'Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Your skin often breaks out in blotches. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, among when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Request a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. C.
