

Price Of Refined Sugar Is Cut On The Coast

LOWER PRICE IS EFFECTIVE NOW IN WEST STATES

Buying Price of Butterfat at Country Stations Advances Another Cent Today.

PORTLAND, May 5 (AP)—Further cut of 6c per hundred pounds in the price of refined sugar at Pacific coast plants, following the similar trend in the east, caused Portland to receive a like price. The lower prices are effective at once. The new price to retailers here is $3.05 for best cane granulated and $3.80 for beet.

Further advance of 1c in the buying price of butterfat at country stations to 17c is announced by a local plant while reports in the trade indicate that as high as 18c is being paid in some places. This is higher than the delivered price generally quoted.

In the butter market generally, there was no price change for the day. Production continues to gain both in the city and in the country but surpluses are taken care of by the demand to go into coolers.

There continues a generally steady tone in the market for eggs here. Local co-ops and private firms are generally selling at late values. The one drawback for price betterment is the direct selling of retailers by unattached producers.

Extreme slowness of the demand for live chickens along the wholesale way does not reflect the slightest diminishment of demand, in fact the latter shows a very liberal increase according to a late survey by the Journal.

Survey indicates that consumption of fowl is practically a third greater in Portland than ever before known. In contrast to this the call through wholesalers is somewhat lessened. The chief reason for this appears the flooding of the retail outlet by producers who market direct.

With a carryover from day to day, the market for country killed calves reflects considerably weakness with more or less price shading. Hogs are weaker but no lower. Lambs are steady to weak.

FORMER CROWN PRINCE APPEALS

that Europe's recovery can be brought about only if in the heart of this continent there is a German people at peace and at work? That only such a Germany will be able, through practical co-operative effort attacking the problems upon which depends the restitution of a sane order in this world, also to assist in lifting your American burden?"

The crown prince had talked himself into a pitch of excitement. He paused a moment to let his feelings subside.

"If I were to be successful," he went on, "in catching the ear of the people across the Atlantic with what I have told you, and if thereby I should be able, at least in a certain measure, to help my suffering people, I should regard this as my most beautiful birthday present."

POSEY, MOORE JOIN EAGLES' BASEBALL NINE

The La Grande Eagle's baseball team greeted the change from rainy to fair weather by turning in a snappy workout at the High school field last night. Further practices will be held this evening, Friday evening, and perhaps Saturday, depending on the condition of the team.

D. W. Hall, team manager, states that the Eagle's team materially is strengthened both on offensive and defensive by the addition of Cecil Posey, and Clive Moore, who turned out with the team last night for the first time this season.

"Posey in the infield gives me sufficient actual baseball ability in this department, and the only thing that remains to make the infield a satisfactory unit is lots of practice and the proper combinations," states Hall.

"Moore, with his long experience in the outfield, and his ability on the offensive, adds the finishing touch to what I hope will prove to be a sparkling outfield combination. The pitching department, with Courtney Gatz, Lyons, is good, although not as experienced and effective as desired, however, it is hoped that G. O. Walker and Walter Newman will soon join this staff."

Next Sunday the Eagle's team will re-engage with the local Safeway Stores team, coached by Mr. Geddes. After next Sunday the following games have been definitely scheduled, Baker Memorial at La Grande, Sunday, May 15 and a return game at Baker May 22.

Tick On Latest Favorite to Win Kentucky Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 5 (AP)—Disastrous pre-derby training campaigns of three leading eligibles have resulted in Mrs. L. G. Kaufman's Tick On becoming almost a stand-out favorite to capture the fifty-eighth Kentucky derby at Churchill Downs Saturday.

The latest derby nominee overtaken by misfortune is T. M. Cassidy's Universe, which was slightly lame today after wrenching a joint in his left foreleg in a workout yesterday. Universe, winner of the Wood Memorial at Jamaica, is secondary favorite to Tick On in the future book odds.

Dr. N. E. Southard, veterinarian, said there was a "good possibility" Universe could start in the derby but the railbirds were shaking their heads gloomily over the chances of the Long stable's nominee recovering sufficiently to run his best race Saturday.

Tick On, though beaten in his only start of the year, is favorite on the basis of his two-year-old winnings of $37,350 and as a result of his demonstrating top form in workouts at the downs. Tick On was given his final intensive prep yesterday, working the full derby distance of a mile and a quarter in 3:07. Only a short morning gallop the day before the race remains to top off his training.

Market Somewhat Heavy at Closing

NEW YORK, May 5 (AP)—The stock market tried to rally for a time today but wearied of the effort in the last hour. It closed with a somewhat heavy tone, and numerous losses of from fractions to 2 points. The turnover was roughly a million shares.

The market was helped for a time by a buzz of rumors over impending constructive developments in Washington, but when substantiation failed to appear, the list began to sag again.

Among issues closing 1 to 2 points lower were American Telephone, New York Central, Eastman, Western Union, Santa Fe, Union Pacific and Auburn.

the lumber industry as in many others the difference between profit and losses lies in the export business. . . their export markets are gone or fast disappearing and through lack of protection and a depreciating currency in Canada this industry is losing a large part of its domestic market. I know that industry cannot survive without the protection which our lumbermen ask; but where will the vicious circle stop?"

"Without any way abandoning our traditional policy of protection," Wilcox concluded, "it is not too much to say that in some instances at least the Smoot-Hawley tariff passed beyond the recognized boundary of equalized standards of living into the realm of prohibition and embargo."
