ing for the cooking school at a nearby Safeway store.

In addition to suggestions for food buying and planning, Miss Coates will offer many suggestions for recipes of food which may be included in the diet for proper nourishment of the family and at the same time remain within the budget limit. All of these recipes, she declares, have been prepared in the Safeway home-makers' bureau's testing kitchen under the direction of Mrs. Julia Lee Wright, national director.

32 YOUNGSTERS IN SEMI-FINALS OF TOURNEY

NEW YORK, May 6 (AP)—Thirty-two youngsters had punched their way into the semi-finals of the national amateur boxing championships today and won the right to compete in the final Olympic tryouts at San Francisco the second week in July.

The east, with the largest entry list, led all the rest with a dozen representatives in the semi-finals. The midwest had ten; the south five; the far west four; and Honolulu one.

These 32 survivors of an original starting field of 165 thus had won one of their two major objectives—a place in the Olympic trials. There remained, however, another goal, the eight national titles.

These will be won, or lost, tonight starting at 7:45 o'clock (E. D. T.) when the semi-finals will begin. Before the night's battling is over all eight championships will have been decided, flyweight to heavyweight.

HOUSEWIFE'S MORTGAGE DIES
OMAHA, Neb., May 6 (AP)—Mrs. Anna Shouse, 90, mother of Jonett Shouse, chairman of the Democratic national committee, died at 1 o'clock this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sidney Smith. Mr. Shouse was at her side.

TO NAME JUDGE LATER
PORTLAND, May 6 (AP)—Governor Meier said last night he does not expect to appoint a successor to the late Ole S. Hill, circuit judge of Lane and Marion counties, for at least another week. Funeral services for the judge will be held at Albany tomorrow.

Forty-two applications from 16 states were received for the football coaching position at Ouchita college, Arkadelphia, Ark.

To Explain How To Spend Wisely In Buying Food

How to spend wisely, save wisely, budget a varying income, live comfortably and feed the family well are only a few of many important problems which will be taken up for La Grande home-makers at the Safeway three-day cooking school which begins Wednesday and continues Thursday and Friday.

Miss Coates, of the Safeway stores home-makers' bureau staff and a noted home economist, who is completing final preparations for the school, is of the opinion that in these times women are becoming more and more interested in the budgeting of food, clothing and other household expenses than ever before, and therefore she has included budget problems in her daily cooking school program.

Because food is the largest single item of expense in most households, Miss Coates will place special emphasis on the food budget. She believes that this particular budget is a great deal more elastic than the majority of home-makers realize and that in many instances, food costs are kept considerably higher than necessary because the person in charge of handling the food supplies orders fancy groceries over the phone at the last minute.

One way of cutting down food costs, she suggests, is to keep a well-stocked, well-equipped kitchen. "There is really nothing that gives the home-tracker a greater sense of confidence than plenty of supplies and a knowledge of how to use them intelligently." Another suggestion which she makes to local home-makers is that they take their market baskets and go their food shopping personally.

Miss Coates practices what she preaches when it comes to careful buying of supplies for she has carried her own market basket in buy-
