WALTERS SAVES DAY FOR INDIANS IN NINTH INNING

Hollywood Stars Win Night Game — Sacramento and Angels Both Chalk up Victories.

By the Associated Press

The relief pitching of Junk Walters, Seattle rightfielder saved the day for the Indians yesterday and enabled them to defeat Portland 11-8. Walters moved into the box from right field in the ninth inning when Portland had the bases full. He retired the Beavers on five pitched balls.

Held to three scattered hits by Frank Shellenback, the San Francisco Seals were turned back for the second straight time last night as Hollywood won 3-1. The series was evened off at two games each.

After the first inning when he was nicked for one run, Shellenback held the Seals in check completely.

Sacs Win Again

Sacramento took its third victory in four starts over Oakland last night, winning 4-2. A throw from Dean, Oakland shortstop, to Anton, first base, was dropped by the latter in the glare of the park lights, and two Sacramento runs came home. The incident happened in the sixth inning.

Unable to overtake the Angels in two rallies, the Missions dropped another game to the Los Angeles team last night. The score was 8-7. The Angels scored three times in the first inning and thereafter held the lead, despite Mission rallies in the fourth and fifth innings when they threatened to overtake the leaders.

EAGLES' NINE TO CLASH WITH SAFEWAY TEAM

With the baseball field leveled and rolled, the infield in perfect condition, and the weather promising, everything is set for the clash tomorrow afternoon between the La Grande Eagle's baseball nine and the La Grande Safeway Store team, at 2 o'clock.

The Eagle's nine practised last night, and the entire Eagle's first string is in good shape and ready for the game.

The starting line-up for the Eagles will be as follows, according to Manager Hall: Courtney, p; C. Cochran, c; Hall, 1st base; Posey, 2nd base; Evans, ss; Boone, 3rd base; Moore, lf; H. Cochran, cf; Lyons, rf.

The Safeway Store's line-up has not yet been announced by Manager Geddes, but he promises that he will have a team on the field which will give the confident Eagle's the test of their lives, and perhaps a surprise.

A change was necessitated in the Eagle's future schedule due to an error in a recent arrangement for games with the Baker Eagles. The schedule now reads, Baker Eagle's at La Grande, May 15; La Grande Eagle's at Baker, May 22; La Grande Eagle's vs. Baker town team at Baker, May 29; Pendleton town team vs. La Grande Eagles at La Grande, June 5; La Grande Eagle's at Pendleton, June 12; Baker town team at La Grande, June 19.

2 Californians Among Winners Of Ring Titles

NEW YORK, May 7 (AP)—Out of a bewildering barrage of leather fired by 150 aspirants for national amateur boxing championships emerged today three outstanding contenders for Olympic honors.

All eight champions crowned in Madison Square Garden last night had to be good to survive three days of gruelling fisticuffing but standouts were Lou Salica, of New York, Eddie Flynn, of New Orleans, and Fred Feary, of Stockton, Cal.

Flynn, a dental student at Loyola university at New Orleans, won the welterweight title a year ago, and outclassed the 147-pounders so badly this time that he got scarcely more than a workout in any of his matches.

Salica has been regarded for some time as one of the finest amateur flyweights in the country. If any proof were needed it was forthcoming in the impressive manner in which the little New Yorker waded through the 112-pounders.

Feary's Win a Surprise

Feary's victory in the heavyweight class, however, came as a distinct surprise at least to eastern experts who had installed Joe Kilcullen of Yale as the favorite. The big California high school boy knocked out Russell Davidson, of Stillwater, Okla., in one round in his first start; koed Kilcullen in three in the next, stopped Jack Holland, of Tulane, in three rounds in the semi-finals, and then outpointed George Schultz, of Cleveland, in the title round.

The champions:

112 pounds—Lou Salica, New York.
118 pounds—Jimmy Martin, New York.
126 pounds—Richard Carter, New York.
135 pounds—Nat Bor, Fall River, Mass.
147 pounds—Eddie Flynn, New Orleans.
160 pounds—Fred Caserio, Chicago.
175 pounds—Homer Brandies, San Francisco.
Heavyweight—Fred Feary, Stockton, Cal.

CROWDS GATHER FOR THE DERBY

Tick On Remains Favorite —Earl Sande Will Ride a Whitney Entry.

By Alan Gould
(Associated Press Sports Editor)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 7 (AP) — Even though the times were somewhat more subdued, the flights of wagering on a less extravagant scale, the crowds neither so tumultuous nor numerous, this was Kentucky derby day, combining more color, interest and enthusiasm than any other horse race in America.

Even the favorite, Mrs. Louis G. Kaufmann's black colt, Tick On, claimed nothing like the support attracted by Gallant Fox or Twenty Grand in the last two classics of the bluegrass, but not even the times counter-balanced the traditional flavor attached to this exciting struggle for three-year-old turf honors.

Weather conditions were dubious, crowd estimates varied from 25,000 to 40,000, and betting lagged before a prospective final rush to the mutuel windows at Churchill Downs, but the derby promised to be a real horse-race, perhaps the most thrilling in years.

20 Names To Start

Twenty thoroughbreds — fourteen colts, five geldings and one filly—were nominated to start. Depending on conditions, five or six were likely to be scratched, but there was a sufficient assortment of high class talent to make the outcome conspicuously speculative and an entry big enough to assure the victor more than $50,000, besides the roses and acclaim that go with it.

Tick On gathered backing overnight, as the result of impressive workout form, and the 2-to-1 odds on the favorite appeared likely to shorten.

It has been six years since Col. E. R. Bradley's colors flashed home in front and the master of Idle Hour's farm has an excellent chance to lift the big prize with Burgoo King or, if the track is slowed up by rain, Brother Joe.

Sande to Ride

The Bradley entry and the pair representing a new seeker of Derby honors, Mrs. John Hay Whitney, of New York, are conceded to be Tick On's outstanding threats. Two of the strongest factors in the running of a race where strategy plays so vital a part, Jockeys Buddy Ensor and Earl Sande, will have the mounts on the Whitney entry. Ensor will be astride Stepenfetchit, a very well-regarded colt, and Sande up on Over Time in his quest for a fourth victory.

Liberty Limited has been pointed with excessive care for the derby. This son of Sir Galahad III, which also sired Gallant Fox, is owned by the Three D's stable, which has spent perhaps hundreds of thousands in its quest for the three-year-old crown.

Post time for the derby was 4:45 p. m. (central standard) but it was not expected they would be "off" before 5 o'clock.

Cubs And Yanks Move Higher In League Winnings

By Gayle Talbot
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Heinie Meine's failure to sign a Pittsburgh contract and his subsequent suspension from organized ball is proving costly to the Pirates.

Defeated in eight of their last nine games, chiefly because of poor pitching, the Pirates could find lots of use for the righthand ace who won 19 games while losing 13 for a fifth place club last year.

As matters stand, Manager George Gibson has only one curver who has shown any signs of dependability. Steve Swetonic has turned in two straight three-hit performances.

In their last nine games, the Pirate hurlers have granted an average of more than six runs per game, and to make things worse, the team's offense has been weak. Paul Waner and Gus Suhr alone were hitting over .300 through yesterday's game, in which the Corsairs absorbed a 4 to 2 beating from the Phillies.

Cubs Back at the Top

The Chicago Cubs climbed back to the league lead when they squared their series with Brooklyn, 3 to 1, while the Boston Braves were dropping a second straight to Cincinnati, 14 to 1. Guy Bush kept seven Dodger hits scattered while his mates grouped their eight off Van Mungo, Shaute and Quinn. Woody English returned to the Cubs lineup to hit a triple and score the winning run in the eighth.

"Red" Lucas pitched a four-hit game for the Reds. Heath and Gilbert led a 16-hit assault on three of McKechnie's flingers.

Tight relief pitching by Clarence Mitchell, who held the Cardinals scoreless after relieving young Harold Schumacher in the sixth, featured the Giants' second victory over the world champions, 4 to 3.

Yankees in Second Place

Joe McCarthy's New York Yankees vaulted from fourth place to second in the American league when George Pipgras set the Detroit Tigers down, 1 to 0. Pipgras allowed only five hits and struck out seven.

Al Simmons and Roger Cramer provided the punch as the Athletics tripped Cleveland again, 3 to 2.

Chicago's White Sox broke a seven-game losing streak auspiciously by trimming the league leading Washington Senators, 5 to 2. It was the first loss in five starts for Monte Weaver, big Washington rookie.

Fred Schulte's homerun in the seventh with Jim Levey on base gave the St. Louis Browns their second victory over the Boston Red Sox, 6 to 5.

Mothers' Day Is Observed May 5 By Union Women

By Mrs. L. Z. Terrall
(Observer Correspondent)

UNION (Special) — Mothers' day was the theme of the program which was in charge of Mrs. N. L. Ward at the regular meeting of the Woman's club Thursday afternoon. The first number was a group of selections played by the Junior orchestra, under the direction of Miss Eris Clark. It was followed by a review of Sheba Hargreave's book, "The Cabin at the Trail's End," by Mrs. L. Z. Terrall and an interesting reading on the origin of Mothers' day by Mrs. Ward. Playing her own accompaniment, Mrs. Edith Pay sang "Little Mother of Mine" and "Little Gray Home in the West." A quartette of girls — Ethel Conklin, Virginia Ward, Alice Gamble and Wythel Arkley — sang "Melody of Love," and Beethoven's "Spring Song" after which they dance the minuet in costume. Out-of-town visitors at the club were Mrs. Grace Powers, Mrs. W. H. BeDell, Mrs. A. H. Davis, Mrs. James McDonald and Mrs. Carol McDonald of Medical Springs and Mrs. E. A. Woodard of New York. A canty lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Dom Gale, Mrs. Lew Bideler, Mrs. Will Campbell and Mrs. Ernest Paustian.

The commercial club dinner dance at the Union hotel Wednesday evening was a very successful affair with about 40 couples in attendance. Yellow spring flowers were used to decorate the dining tables and lobby and the high school furnished music during the dinner. Quite a number of outsiders were in attendance, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Winters, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Walden, Raymond Gray and Miss Kennedy, of La Grande; J. D. Caverhill, of Eugene; T. B. Johnson, Clarence Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth La Violette, Jimmie Mills, Gearhart Stackland and Tom Harris, of Cove.

Coach Will Campbell, Lew Bideler, Max Tallman, Perrin Woll and Roy Conklin left Friday morning for Corvallis where the last three will enter the state field and track meet.

The final meeting of the contemporary reading group for this year was held at the home of Mrs. Will Campbell Tuesday evening. The books that were reviewed during the evening were Jane Addams' "Twenty Years at Hull House," by Margaret Callihan; Berta Ruck's "Life of Luxury," and Ann Parrish's "Loads of Love," by Eris Clark, and "The Foolish Virgins," by Mrs. Lew Bideler.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Crouter enjoyed a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Haynes and tiny son, Don, of Pittsburg, Wednesday and Thursday. They are friends of Mary Crouter Ellis of Pittsburg and were driving through to Corvallis to spend Mothers' day with his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Worden, of La Grande, spent last Sunday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Vaden.

Mrs. E. A. Woodward, of Painted Post, New York, has been a visitor at the home of her cousin, A. I. Bideler, the past week. She visited relatives in Nampa for a few months and will leave for her home the last of this week.

Financial matters are the greatest problem of our American government, and conditions in Union county are no exception. We must elect men to office who are qualified to take care of changing conditions. Our revenue is derived through the Sheriff's office and as his outside duties have now been modified, it is necessary that he devote more time to this department.
