

Four Branches Of A. A. U. W. Meet Here

La Grande Branch of Association Hostess Saturday At Luncheon Held At The La Grande Hotel

Thirty-seven members of the Pendleton, Baker and Wallawa county branches of the American Association of University Women were entertained Saturday by the La Grande branch at a luncheon at 12:30 at the La Grande hotel. Mrs. W. L. Patterson, president of the Baker branch; Mrs. A. C. McIntyre, president of the Pendleton group; and Mrs. J. H. Williams, of Lostine, president of the Wallawa county branch, were introduced by the La Grande president, Miss Helen Moor, and outlined the activities of their organizations during the past year.

The highlight of the event was the take-off of the Round-Up, which the Pendleton branch presented. Each was dressed to represent some character in the big show, the announcer, the La Grande band, the trick rider, the bulldozer, the clown, the queen, the movie actress, ten-gallon hats and the gay shirts and vests worn by Pendletonians during the Round-Up were borrowed for the day and added to the effect of the excellent program.

Mrs. A. J. Butterfield, state chairman of the International relations committee in the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, represented the Wallawa county branch on the program speaking on international relations. Her talk was brief, but an interesting sketch of some of the underlying causes for the present international unrest.

Mrs. Otto Koenig, of Baker, presented a one-act monologue, a clever account of the activities of the society matron.

Miss Jennie Peterson presented a girls' sextet from the Eastern Oregon Normal school, which sang "Allah's Holiday," by Friml; and "Little Lady of the Moon," by Coates. They were accompanied by Miss Iola Gooding.

From the Baker branch were Mrs. Patterson, president; Mrs. Fred B. Pinger, Mrs. Phil Fortner, Mrs. Harry Bowen, Mrs. Otto Koenig, and Mrs. A. F. Kerr. Members of the Wallawa branch were Mrs. A. Eggleston, Mrs. David Reavis, of Enterprise; Mrs. John Searcy, of Joseph; and Mrs. J. H. Williams, of Lostine. Mrs. Butterfield was a special guest.

The Pendleton women who attended were Miss Abbie Adams, Miss Gwendolyn Rogers, Miss Jane Olson, Miss Norma Jacobs, Mrs. Roy Bailey, Mrs. Harold Barnard, Miss Marie Holt, Miss Katherine Galbraith, Mrs. Brook Dixon, Mrs. A. C. McIntyre, Mrs. G. I. Inman, Miss Margaret Burke, Mrs. Harold Brock, Mrs. Russell Akey, Miss Isabel Goodhough, Mrs. Worth, Miss Gertrude Harris, Mrs. Fred Monroe, Mrs. Roland Oliver, Mrs. Charles March, Miss Florence Sweet, Miss Alberta Young, Miss Edith Roberts, Miss Anna Brown, Miss Ruth McLeary and Mrs. Tom Murphy.

Camp Fire Groups Participate In Saturday Event

Ten Camp Fire circles of La Grande entertained a large group of townspeople who are interested in the movement Saturday afternoon, between 2 and 5 o'clock at the Eastern Oregon Normal school. Miss Madeline Larson is director of the entire movement in the city, and the success of the entertainment was largely due to her, guardians of the ten circles believe.

During the past winter each circle has furnished a room of a model house, in keeping with the 1932 theme, home-making, and a feature of Saturday afternoon was an exhibit of the house and other articles which Camp Fire girls have made. The Doran circle furnished the dining room; Netoppe, the sun room; Hewoketa, the kitchen; Keeloqua, the library; Okpe, the bed room; Gatusi, the living room; Natwidola, the attic bedroom; Wica Weicna, the girls' bedroom; Nissaki, the parents' bedroom; Wile Flower Blue Bird, court, the nursery. A quilt made by Lorraine Burnett, of the Hewoketa group; a layette by the Gatusi circle, and other hand craft articles were also exhibited.

The main event of the afternoon was the impressive circular fire at which the girls were dressed in their full ceremonial regalia. They entered singing "Whole For Aye," gave the hand sign, and the fire lighting ceremony was conducted by the Okpe circle.

Miss Elizabeth Hesse read the roll call and each girl responded with a poem about home. Since the theme of the work for this year has been homecraft, Miss Madeline Larson presented practically every girl in each of the circles with the national home honor which they had earned.

After the council fire was lighted

Night Hawk Club Is Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hoppel were hosts to the Night Hawk club Saturday evening entertaining at bridge. Two tables were arranged, and the prizes were awarded to Mrs. Walter Lane and B. E. Webb. Mr. and Mrs. Webb were invited as guests of the club.

Tulips and narcissus were arranged about the rooms in baskets, furnishing a pretty setting for the event. Mrs. Hoppel served a two-course luncheon after bridge. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lane will entertain on May 21.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Saturday

Members of the Order of Rainbow for girls honored their mothers Saturday evening at the annual Mother's day dinner at the Masonic hall. A pokkiuk dinner was served at 6 o'clock after which an appropriate program of music was furnished by Mrs. W. W. Nussbaum and Miss Katharine Wisler, vocalist, and Miss Sylvia Turn, pianist.

Baskets of tulips were attractively arranged about the rooms. Guests of honor were Mrs. G. N. Turkington, the first mother adviser; Miss Stella Bloch, worthy matron of the Eastern Star; Mrs. Hannah Bloch, her mother; Mrs. W. W. Nussbaum, last year's mother adviser; and Mrs. Arch Bacon, now mother adviser.

D. A. R. To Meet With Mrs. Baker

Mrs. George H. Baker will be hostess for the Daughters of the American Revolution at her home at 908 D avenue Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. William Miller will assist.

A resume of the year's program will be furnished by Mrs. Robert Dixon during the afternoon.

Senior Girls Of L. H. S. Honored

The senior girls of the La Grande High school were honored at a party at which the Associated Girl Students entertained Friday afternoon at the high school. An interesting program was given which included a musical reading by Miss Marian Boyles, accompanied by her sister, Miss Aileen Boyles; vocal solo, Miss Wytche Hoke; tap dance, Dorothy and Virginia Campbell; reading by Lela Gynn; piano solo, H. W. King.

A skit, written by Miss Ada Singleton was presented by Marian Boyles, Lucille Thompson, Wytche Hoke, Sylvia Turn, Jean Devine, Genevieve Flexer, Ellen Torrence, Eileen Waldroff and Helen Falow.

After the program the girls enjoyed dancing in the gymnasium, where the music was furnished by the High school dance orchestra. A walk contest was held under the direction of Miss Maclizabeth Cooper; and the prize was won by Miss Sally Siegrist and Miss Mae Waldroff.

Refreshments were served throughout the afternoon. The event closes the social season of the A. G. S.

Honor Guests At Saturday Party

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Paddock entertained Saturday evening in honor of their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Montgomery, of Denver, Colo. Twelve were invited for bridge, and the prizes were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Webb, for high score; and Mr.

Comedy Staged Friday Evening At Union High

By Mrs. L. Z. Terral (Observer Correspondent) UNION, Ore. (Special) — A light comedy, "Leave it to Dad," was staged by Dorothy Baker, Edna Halasy, Donald Ward, Wayne Gooderham, Iola Atkins, Tom Calvin, Elaine Hess and Phillip Roberts, members of the sophomore class, Friday night under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Pugh.

The play was short but brought some very good acting which was well received by the audience. Between acts, the rhythm band, consisting of 26 first grade children under the direction of Mrs. Hal Rees, gave two numbers, "Silent Night" and "Rock-a-Bye Baby." Dorothy Baker sang a solo and the glee club in kiddie costume sang "Poor Papa."

The meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society will be held at the home of Mrs. Walter Cook Wednesday afternoon. A special treat is promised the members as Mrs. John Bartholoma has promised to tell the group some of her experiences as a Russian refugee, and conditions in general in Russia.

Surprise Party Honors Birthday

Ray McCarroll celebrated his birthday anniversary Saturday evening as the guest of honor at a surprise party at which Mrs. McCarroll entertained at their home. Pinciole was played during the evening and high scores were made by Mrs. Ada Thompson and T. B. Palmann, while Mrs. Winifred Cass and Harry Carnes received the consolation.

After cards Mrs. McCarroll served a luncheon assisted by her daughter, Miss Evelyn McCarroll. Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fatten, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seward, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hildebrand, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Palmann and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Breshears, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gilmer, Mrs. Mabel Thompson, Mrs. D. Avenue Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. William Miller will assist.

A resume of the year's program will be furnished by Mrs. Robert Dixon during the afternoon.

Make Plans For Memorial Day

Memorial day, May 31, will be observed by the Women's Relief Corps, and arrangements for the event were made Saturday afternoon at a business meeting at the Knights of Pythias hall. The session was held after a dinner which was served at 12 o'clock at tables decorated with bouquets of snapdragons.

A conference committee has been appointed to work out the details of the Memorial day observance, and includes Mrs. Jessie Nelson, Mrs. Laura Braden, Mrs. Margaret Blystone, Mrs. Effie Helvey, Mrs. Una Deuhann. Mrs. Ruth Spencer was chairman of the dinner committee and was assisted by Mrs. Denham, Mrs. Helvey and Mrs. Winnie Kimmel.

WALLOWA PERSONALS

By Mrs. C. A. Hunter (Observer Correspondent)

WALLOWA (Special) — Among the out-of-town people who were here last Wednesday to attend the funeral of E. A. Searle were Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp Sr. and Mrs. J. P. Morelock, La Grande, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ravenscroft, Elgin, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Curtis, Kannonwick, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Woods, Spokane. Mr. Searle's funeral was very largely attended. Stanley Lodge A. F. & A. M. conducted the services at the graveside with C. H. Thorp, master, reading the impressive ritualistic ceremony. The members of Jessica chapter O. E. S. attended in a body, both groups being joined by a large number of members from Enterprise and some from Joseph. Pall bearers were C. T. McDaniel, Bruce Cox, E. J. Rinker, E. J. Tulley, Harry Waddell and J. C. Baird, close friends and business associates of Mr. Searle.

Buster Bell left by car Wednesday with his three-year-old daughter, Evy Mae, to place her in the Shriners' hospital in Portland. The little girl had scarlet fever early in the winter and the after-effects led to a serious leg infection which left her unable to walk.

Miss Carrie Weinhard, of Dayton, Wash., arrived at Wallowa Wednesday and will spend the summer at the farm home of her brother, F. H. Weinhard, of Lower Valley.

Mrs. Hollis Bull is visiting this week with her parents in Spokane. She is expected home Monday or Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. F. F. Jones returned the first of the week from a ten days' vacation trip spent in Eugene and Portland.

Word has been received from Jack McLean, who spent the winter in Southern California, that he is playing in a band at the American Legion hall in San Diego. Harry Snodgrass, of La Grande, also is a member of the same band.

Thorsten Shell arrived home Wednesday from Seattle, where he has been for several weeks. He will be employed here in the Shell Mercantile Co's store for the summer.

Rev. Thomas J. Warfield, who has been pastor of the Nazareth church here for several years, has been called to Newbridge, Oregon, to take charge of the church of that denomination. He will move his family to the new home as soon as school is out.

Announcements were received in Wallowa last week of the birth of a son to Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Geyer, of San Francisco. The baby was born April 14 and has been named Edmund Peter. Mrs. Geyer is a former Wallowa girl and will be remembered as Margaret McClaran.

assortment in the fifth grade. The sixth grade was very unusual with a unique display of tapestries, clay modeling, countries modeled in clay pulp, a model school and playground and a rock garden full of blooming plants. The seventh grade room had a wide variety of paintings in water-colors and each pupil made a very attractive scrap book. All the rooms were gay with plants and spring flowers.
