

Junior-Senior Banquet Friday Eve

Annual Event Held Last Night At Sacajawea Inn — Dancing Enjoyed Following Toasts and Speeches

With a profusion of lavender lilacs and tulips and yellow candles, the class colors forming a background for the pastel tints of the banquet dresses, the junior class of the La Grande High school entertained the senior class, the school board, the Hi-Dads and the faculty at the annual junior-senior semi-formal banquet held last night at the Sacajawea Inn.

Burke Inlow, president of the junior class, was toastmaster and gave the address of welcome to the seniors. Toasts were presented to the faculty, the school board and the Hi-Dads by Bill Corey, Sylvia Johnson, Frank Tyler and Wayne Foster, after which Nick Hughes, president of the senior class; A. L. Gralapp, principal of the high school; J. T. Longfellow, superintendent of city schools; A. W. Nelson, Hi-Dad; and Dr. J. L. Ingie, chairman of the school board, responded.

According to the tradition the vice president of the senior class, Miss Anna Mae Schafer, turned over the cane to Bill Corey, vice president of the junior class. Rev. Clarence A. Kopp, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church, gave the invocation.

Dancing was enjoyed during the evening, following the banquet, with music furnished by the Posters-Jendrickson orchestra. An intermission feature was a tap dance by Misses Dorothy and Virginia Campbell.

Punch was served. Over 200 juniors, seniors, Hi-Dads, members of the faculty of the High school and members of the school board attended the banquet.

Junior advisors, in charge of arrangements for the banquet, were Miss Agnes Palmer, Miss Agnes Hattberg, Miss Florence Williams and Edridge Huffman.

Burke Inlow acted as general chairman of the committee, assisted by Virginia Shepherd and Dale Standley; decorations: Barbara Coolidge and Burke Inlow; program: Jewel Weasel; programs: Wayne Foster, finances: Clara Norris. Invitations.

Mrs. Lynn Larson Entertains Club

Mrs. Lynn Larson entertained at a pretty one o'clock luncheon yesterday afternoon at her home for members of her club. Orchid and yellow tulips were used as decorations about the rooms and on the luncheon tables.

Bridge was played during the afternoon and the prizes were awarded to Mrs. E. C. Stephenson, first, and Mrs. Alma Walker, second.

Mrs. Walker will be the next hostess, entertaining in two weeks.

Bridge Club In Delightful Party

At a delightful evening party, Mrs. Robert Carey entertained Friday for her bridge club at her home. Twelve were invited and the prizes at cards were awarded to Mrs. Leo Miller, first, Mrs. Stanley Lyons, fourth, and Mrs. Dwight Jesse, high score among the guests.

Flowers were arranged about the rooms.

Refreshments were served at a late hour by the hostess.

Mrs. Charles Graham will entertain in two weeks.

Lucky Dozen Club In Party Friday

The afternoon was spent informally in conversation and sewing when Mrs. Ernest Bray entertained the Lucky Dozen club yesterday at her home. Spring flowers decorated the rooms, forming a delightful setting for the event.

Mrs. Minnie Dawson, of Monmouth, Ill., who is the house guest of Mrs. B. G. Prite; Mrs. J. C. Camp, and Mrs. J. W. Sayre were guests for the afternoon.

Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon, and it was announced that Mrs. E. C. Shellworth will be the next hostess in two weeks.

"Hobo Party" Held At Normal School

A "hobo party" was enjoyed by a large group of men and women students of the Eastern Oregon Normal school last night beginning at 8 o'clock. The event was held on the lower campus where a bonfire was built. Games were played and stories and songs enjoyed around the fire.

Apples were served for refreshments. Mrs. Helen Moor and Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Stevenson were patron and patronesses for the evening.

Capt. Waggoner Speaks at Meeting

Capt. David Waggoner, of Alaska, captain of the steam yacht "Princeton" of Alaskan waters, presented a glowing and interesting description of his missionary work among the Indians of Alaska yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the Presbyterian Missionary society at the church. Sketching the history of the Indians and of his work among them, he furnished an intimate and personal picture of the people.

In discussing the home life, he described the manner of living in a community house with sometimes as many as 40 persons, of related families, cooking and living in one room.

Class Play Held Last Night Completed Commencement Activities

By Mrs. L. Z. Terrill (Observer Correspondent)

UNION, Ore. (Special) — Another graduating class will soon pass into the history of the U-HI. Many social events have claimed their attention during the past two weeks and the class play last night completed their activities as members of the High school. The commencement exercises Thursday evening were impressive and a large crowd packed the gymnasium for the program which consisted of the following numbers:

Invocation, Clephem Wilde; vocal solo, "Oh Pair, Oh Sweet, Oh Holy." Mrs. Edith Pugh; Salutatory address, Dale Baxter; address to the class, Blair Halllock; Baker attorney; vocal solo with cornet accompaniment, "The Rosary," Fawn Geertzen and Dale Baxter; valedictory, Ethel Conklin; presentation of class, Roy Conklin; superintendent; presentation of diplomas, C. L. Cadwell, pres. school board; farewell song, senior class.

The junior-senior banquet held at the Union hotel Monday evening was a delightful affair with covers laid for 43 including faculty and school board members, seniors, juniors and a few others. The dining room was gaily decorated with streamers of purple and gold and banks of flowers and trees. Unique place cards, consisting of tiny booklets on a background of lacquered bark, contained the menu and the program. The latter was printed so that each number represented some part of the tree as follows:

Notes, orchestra; roots, welcome, Jean Baum; Trunk, response, Chet Baum; wood, flowers, vocal, Fawn Geertzen and Thelma Van Houten; pith, Miss Helen Schaper; bark, Roy Conklin Sr., annual rings, senior quartet; veins, Wilford Ackley; cell, Frieda Brown; chlorophyll, Dale Baxter; twig, Alice Gamble; graft, C. L. Cadwell; leaves, Fawn Geertzen; bud, Cecil Griggs; blossom, Gaylord Prather; branches, junior trio; cambium, Ferrin Wolf; epidermis, Miss Elizabeth Pugh; sap, Roy Baxter; and pruning, Sylvia. The numbers consisted of musical selections and appropriate talks which were interspersed with wit.

A baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Murray Jensen at Burley, Idaho, Friday morning. The news was phoned to the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Jensen here.

Lola Mayette, of the graduating class, surprised her friends and was married to Alpha Watts at six o'clock Thursday evening, W. A. Maxwell, justice of the peace, performing the ceremony. They attended the commencement exercises and on leaving the gymnasium were met by a group of friends who escorted them in separate cars about town for while to the tune of horns and other discordant instruments. Afterwards they were taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gipson where refreshments were served. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mayette and the bridegroom a son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Watts, all residents of Union.

Young Musicians In Piano Recital

A group of young musicians was presented in recital last night by Miss Margaret Michaelson, teacher of piano, at the home of Mrs. Zack Lilly, 2508 North Fourth street.

Those appearing on the program were Miss Bernadine Hungerford, who played three numbers: Kenneth Lilly, Carlyle Wilson, both of whom played two numbers; and Brewster Wilson and Wallace MacCaffrey, playing three numbers.

"Kid Party" Held At Church Friday

Dressed as small school children, the members of the Ever Ready class of the Central Church of Christ enjoyed a "kid party" last night at the church. Clever costumes afforded additional amusement, accompanying the games which were selected for their appropriateness to the motif.

Thirty attended the party which was in charge of the social committee of the class. Refreshments were served late in the evening.

Royal Neighbors Hold Convention

Mrs. Mabel Thompson, of La Grande, who presided at the 10th annual Eastern Oregon district convention of the Royal Neighbors of America, Thursday in La Grande turned over the reins of office to Mrs. McFarland, of Baker, following the election of officers which was held in the afternoon at the Odd Fellows hall. The convention opened at 11 o'clock with registration and reception of officers, and closed in the evening with a program and initiation of new members.

Baker was chosen as the convention city for the next annual session which will be held May 10, 1933. Mrs. McFarland will be the presiding officer and will be assisted by Mrs. Velma Vedder, of La Grande, vice president; Mrs. Prier, of Baker, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Elder, of Pendleton, chancellor. The newly elected officers were installed by the Pendleton group at a fancy drill in full costumes, and Mrs. Marietta Jones, of Freewater, district deputy for Eastern Oregon, acted as installing officer.

Outgoing officers are Mrs. Mabel Thompson, La Grande, president; Mrs. Mabel Ragsdale, Baker, first vice president; Mrs. Savage, of Milton, second vice president; Mrs. Bessie McManus, La Grande, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Ida Hamblen, state supervisor, of Portland, was a guest at the convention.

Luncheon was served at 12 o'clock at the Odd Fellows hall, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Mayme Johnson, of La Grande, and the afternoon session opened at 1:30 with the regular opening service by the La Grande camp, which also sang the welcome song. Mrs. Vedder, orator of the La Grande camp, gave a short address to which Mrs. Long, of Pendleton, responded. The convention officers were entertained by the Baker group, who, dressed in a special regalia, gave a fancy drill.

The officers and oracles were introduced by the La Grande lodge, including Mrs. Marietta Jones, of Freewater, district deputy; Mrs. Prier, Baker, orator; Mrs. Long, Pendleton, orator; and Mrs. Moon, Freewater, orator. Each group put on a different drill and a contest on the past orator's charge was staged, and was won by Mrs. Mayme Johnson, of La Grande.

A banquet was served at 6:30 at the Central Church of Christ and was followed by a program and guest hour. Elliott Finlay sang a solo; Dorothy and Virginia Campbell presented a tap dance; Miss Jennie Nelson played a violin solo; and a quartet, composed of Mrs. Bethel St. Johns, Mrs. W. H. Parkinson, Mrs. M. M. Arant and Mrs. Merrill Moore, sang a group. Miss Mildred Biokland presented a pianologue, after which Mrs. Vedder furnished a reading. A play, "All On Guard at Home," was given by a cast which included Miss Bernice Weeks, Miss Beulah Schroeder, Mrs. Muri Barwell, Mrs. Louise Shepherd, Mrs. Lois Evans, Mrs. Ruby Berry, Mrs. Pauline Puckett, Mrs. Julia Sittler.

The play was followed by reception and initiation of candidates with Baker presenting the ceremonial drill. Initiates from La Grande were Mrs. Martha Coles, Mrs. Ella Wilson, Mrs. Grace Holman, Mrs. Edna Chandler, Mrs. Eleanor Farris, Mrs. Florence Kingsley and Miss Luwanna Winburn.

Exchange Rates Are Lower

because less auto accidents occur in the country than in the city. Then why pay high insurance rates based on city traffic?

Here is a clean cut policy protecting your car, or any damage to others caused by it. The rates are based on the low accident risk of rural traffic. The rates are the lowest obtainable and the service is the best.

GREAT AL G. BARNES CIRCUS; BIGGER AND BETTER IS DUE SOON

The circus! Lions, tigers, clowns, acrobats, peanuts, popcorn, and horses, horses, horses!

The Al G. Barnes 5-ring show, one of the outstanding circuses as well as one of the world's largest, will exhibit in La Grande on Monday, May 23.

A tribe of monster-tipped Ubundi savages from the Congo district of equatorial South Africa will be seen with the show this season. It is the first time that they have been exhibited in this section of the state. They are the greatest feature ever carried with the Al G. Barnes Circus.

Transported aboard three special trains with employes numbering 1,000 people, in addition to 108 advance men, an official of the circus here today furnished some statistics. Hundreds of draft horses are carried; an immense head of ring stock; a menagerie of wild animals will be seen. Twenty-two acres covering 12 miles of ground are used to house the transient city. There are 200 performers, representing 18 foreign countries. Sixty riders headed by the Belmont family and the Grizzelle troupe will be seen along with Al G. Barnes' 40 dancing horses and 40 dancing girls. The Flying Ward troupe of aerial lets, who perform high up in the air, the "big end" will thrill and amaze in equilibristic work. Sixty acrobats and 60 clowns will also be a part of the super program.

For more than a quarter of a century the Al G. Barnes Circus has excelled with its trained wild animals. More than a score of international wild animal trainers will be seen. Foremost among them will be Miss Habel Stark, who has returned to America after fresh foreign triumphs. For this season she is presenting a group of 17 Royal Bengal tigers in a display of courage, daring and patience. Johnny Myers, Capt. Terrell Jacobs and Miss Lulline Hightest will also be seen as wild animal trainers.

"The Pageant of Gold," a gorgeous professional fiesta with the clamor and romance of old Spain, a glorious fairland spectacle of pastime entertainment, will open the circus performance as a prelude. Superb performance, indescribable, a triumph among colossal productions, it is today sweeping all before it with its all-powerful appeal and the very vastness of its character. It is the crowning spectacle in the long, eventful career of Al G. Barnes. One thousand men and women, horses and animals participate in this stupendous spectacle. Great companies of trained singers, orchestras of vast size, grand golden-tongued organs, cymbals and trumpets will be heard. Seventy thousand dollars was expended on wardrobes for this gorgeous prologue and pageant.

Performances will be given at 2 and 8 p. m. The doors will open at 1 and 7 p. m. to permit an inspection of the zoological collection or to enjoy a concert of popular and operatic music by Prof. Redrick's military band.
