Mrs. E. M. Todd Wins Sweepstakes

Mrs. E. M. Todd won the sweepstakes tournament at the La Grande country club yesterday, turning in a score of 103-24-79. The sweepstakes was played in the afternoon, following a luncheon served at the club house at noon.

Mrs. C. E. Reynolds scored second with 99-18-81; while Mrs. John Theison and Mrs. J. G. Ormand tied for third place with net scores of 82.

A tournament with Baker, at the Baker club, has been scheduled by the men at the La Grande club for Sunday, and during their absence the women will have a breakfast at 8:30, followed by matches. All women members of the club are invited, and are requested to notify Mrs. L. K. Kinzel, chairman of the tournament committee, if they plan to attend so that arrangements may be made for them.

Mrs. MacPherson Is Complimented

Mrs. J. G. MacPherson, who will leave La Grande soon to make her home in Portland, was complimented yesterday afternoon at a pleasant party at which the Ladies Aid and the Missionary society of the Presbyterian church entertained at the church. Mrs. MacPherson has been an active and efficient worker in all the departments of the church, and members of the two organizations expressed their regrets at her departure.

The rooms of the church were decorated with tulips and lilacs.

Miss Edris McQuire presented two organ numbers, "Woodland Echoes," by Priml, and "A Japanese Sunset," by Beppen.

During the social hour refreshments were served with Mrs. J. F. Morelock and Mrs. L. Denham, presidents of the two societies, presiding at the tea table.

Mrs. Paul Meyers Hostess to Club

Mrs. Paul Meyers was hostess at a charming luncheon yesterday afternoon when she entertained her club at 1:15 o'clock at her home. Lilacs were used on the table and about the rooms for decoration.

Bridge was played during the afternoon and the prize for high score was awarded to Mrs. M. M. Christensen. Mrs. Doyle Zimmerman scored fourth.

Mrs. A. M. Moore will entertain in two weeks.

Bridge Party At The Thompson Home

Two tables were arranged for bridge yesterday afternoon when Mrs. C. L. Thompson entertained the Poppy club at her home. Mrs. H. G. Avery and

Mrs. Harold Finlay were invited as guests.

Prizes at bridge were awarded to Mrs. Walter Palmer, first; Mrs. F. S. Lyons, consolation; and Mrs. Avery, guest.

Mrs. Thompson served refreshments at the close of the afternoon. Meetings of the Poppy club will be continued next fall.

Jolly Bridge Club Is Entertained

At a one o'clock luncheon at the Sacajawea Inn, Mrs. W. C. Williams entertained the Jolly Bridge club yesterday afternoon. Mrs. M. Stephenson and Mrs. H. T. Smith were invited to complete three tables for bridge and the prizes were awarded to Mrs. Charles H. Devine and Mrs. L. H. Bramwell.

Flowers were used on the luncheon table.

Mrs. G. R. Williams will entertain at a bridge-luncheon in two weeks.

Farewell Party For Swalbergs

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swalberg, who plan to leave La Grande in the near future, were the inspiration for a party at which Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLean entertained a group of their friends last night at their home. Swalberg is Mrs. McLean's brother.

Two tables were arranged for bridge, and the guests of honor received the prize for high score. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Anderson received consolation. A luncheon was served after bridge.

Pinochle Party At Zweifel Home

Pinochle was played during the evening when Mr. and Mrs. Nate Zweifel entertained at their home last night for members of the Three D club. Twelve were invited and the prize for high score was awarded to Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Mackey.

Spring flowers formed attractive decorations about the rooms.

Meetings of the Three D club will be discontinued for the summer, to resume next fall.

Mrs. Leslie Duncan Entertains Club

With a profusion of flowers decorating the rooms, Mrs. Leslie Duncan entertained at her home for the Divinity club yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Donald Cole, Mrs. Ira Irwin and Mrs. Otis Huff were invited to complete four tables for bridge.

Prizes at cards were awarded to Mrs. Phillip Lockwood, first; Mrs. Lucille Price, consolation; and Mrs. Irwin, guest.

A luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon, and it was announced that a picnic will be held in Riverside park on June 2, the next meeting.

Past Matrons Of O. E. S. At Party

Mrs. C. R. Eberhard and Mrs. J. P. Morelock entertained the Past Matrons of the Order of the Eastern Star.

"No! No!" Slogan To Mark Belgian Role at Lausanne

BRUSSELS (AP) — The "No! No!" role of Phillip Snowden, then British chancellor of the exchequer, at the Hague reparations meeting in 1930, may be emulated by Emile Francqui for Belgium at Lausanne in June.

Snowden's explosive "No!" stopped proposals that England yield part of her reparations to ease Central European burdens. Francqui's echoes will be heard on any suggestions for cuts of Belgian receipts from Germany.

Francqui will be accompanied by Jules Renkin, premier, and Paul Hymanus, foreign minister. But it is Francqui, former financial dictator of Belgium, who probably will speak the nation's mind.

Needs German Cash

He is certain to tell the conference that Belgium can not balance her budget without reparations payments.

Official quarters make no bones of their feeling that the limit of "one-sided concessions" has been reached. Yet feeling grows among the public. It would appear from press comment, that Germany has no intention of continuing payments under the Young plan.

Financier Is Caustic

Senator Despret, former head of the Banque de Bruxelles, drawing a contrast between "France's will to pay the war indemnity of 1871 and Germany's will not to pay," said:

"Rather than slash the German debt, Belgium ought to maintain her claims through half a century. To wipe out the reparations debt would be equivalent to submitting supinely to a moral failure."

District Council To Meet Tomorrow

Mrs. George Bean, of Union, president of the Union District Council of Parent Teacher Associations, has called a meeting of the board of managers for tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 at the La Grande hotel.

Mrs. Frank McKennon, of Imbler, is first vice president; E. A. Seyre, second vice president; and Mrs. Laura E. Bates, Willowdale, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Sayre is county school superintendent.

Mrs. Allie Patten Elected by Group

Mrs. Allie Patten was elected president of the Eagles auxiliary last night at the Eagles' hall, filling the vacancy left by the resignation of the former president, Mrs. Esther Hildebrand. Mrs. Hildebrand plans to make her home in Bellingham, Wash. Mrs. Mabel Miller was elected vice president; and Mrs. Agnes Andrews inside guard.

Mr. and Mrs. Hildebrand will be honored tonight at 8 o'clock at a party at the Eagles' hall to which Eagles, members of the auxiliary and their families are invited.

Mrs. Steven Hatt will entertain the Sewing club on June 1, at 2 o'clock, assisted by Mrs. Jessie Hoak.

Mrs. H. C. Chambers Will Visit G. I. A.

Mrs. H. C. Chambers, grand inspector of the G. I. A., will be a La Grande visitor on June 2, when she will conduct instruction classes during the day at the Sacajawea Inn. A banquet and card party were planned in her honor yesterday when the G. I. A. members met at the Sacajawea Inn.

Bridge and games were played during the remainder of the afternoon, and the prizes were awarded to Mrs. C. H. Griffin in the former and Mrs. W. D. Root in the games.

Luncheon was served. Mrs. Lloyd Bickford, Mrs. C. M. Humphreys, Mrs. Frank Pike and Mrs. William Beery were hostesses.

Miss Green And Mr. Palmer Wed

Word has been received in La Grande of the marriage of Miss Marjorie Green and Melvin Palmer, Sunday, May 8, in Walla Walla. They are making their home in La Grande.

Mr. Palmer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Palmer.

Dorian Camp Fire Circle in Meeting

The Dorian Camp Fire circle met Wednesday afternoon at the home of the guardian, Miss Margaret Milne, and the girls spent the afternoon making patterns for their leather headbands.

Those present were Mary Loney, Mina Newman, Maxine Noah, Annette Turm, Nancy Lindsey, Nancy Behlin, Fern Hungerford, Verna Ward, Juanita Clark, Frances Millering, Virginia Smith, Violet Cogburn, Marie Worrell and Betty Wagner.

Missionary Group In Lively Session

"What Prohibition Has Done For Disadvantaged Communities" was the topic on which the Ladies Missionary society of the Methodist Church South held a lively discussion yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert Helvey, 1200 U' avenue. The coming primary elections also were discussed.

Mrs. Minnie Starmer led the devotion.

Pacific Synod To Meet Monday At Salem, Ore.

The thirty-second annual convention of the Pacific Synod of the United Lutheran church in America will open Monday evening in the American Lutheran church in Salem, Ore. Rev. F. W. Erickson, pastor, fifty delegates from Oregon, Washington, British Columbia and Alaska are expected to attend, representing the churches of the synod.

Zion English Lutheran church, La Grande, will be represented by its pastor, Rev. Edwin W. Bracher, and Miss Genevieve Nelson, lay delegate. The delegates will leave for Salem by auto on Monday morning, accompanied by Mrs. N. Nelson, who will visit in Eugene, Ore., during the convention.

Rev. Nathan R. Melhorn, D. D., of Philadelphia, Pa., will be one of the principal speakers at the convention this year. He is a representative of the board of publication of the United Lutheran church, and also is editor of The Lutheran, official church paper. This is his first visit to the far west, where he is attending the conventions of the Rocky Mountain Synod, the California Synod and the Pacific Synod.

Dr. Melhorn is accompanied by Rev. Alvin E. Bell, of Toledo, Ohio, and pastor of the Glendale Lutheran church of that city. Dr. Bell is officiating.

Exchange About Steady at Close

NEW YORK, May 20 (AP) — After rising $1 to $2 a share at the opening, the stock market became sluggish today, apparently preferring to postpone its decision on the prospective drive to release billions of credit dollars as a stimulant to business.

Gains of the early trading were frittered away later and the market closed about steady with net changes narrow. Volume was small, approximating only 800,000 shares.

Pajamas Figure In London Trial Of Rev. Davidson

LONDON, May 20 (AP) — Whether Rev. H. F. Davidson wears pajamas or the old-fashioned nightgown became a matter of importance today in the consistory court at Church House, Westminster, where he is being tried on charges of immorality.

R. F. Yevy, counsel for the 62-year-old rector, brought up the night-gown issue in an effort to impeach the evidence of Barbara Harris, a pretty blonde and a member of the considerable group of young women who have testified against the clergyman.

Miss Harris, the counsel said, painted a lurid picture, in the course of her evidence, of what had occurred when she was in Mr. Davidson's room. Levy pointed out that the young woman mentioned a pair of pajamas in this testimony.

The rector never wore pajamas and the defense will so prove, Levy informed the court. He asserted that Miss Harris was lying out of malice and that she was "biting the hand that fed her."

The defense counsel's attack on Miss Harris came in a continuation of the speech he started yesterday in which he characterized Mr. Davidson as a "troublesome busybody" who "kisses all sorts of people."
