

Churches To Unite For Baccalaureate Services Sunday Evening, May 22

FOUR MINISTERS TO PARTICIPATE IN L. H. S. EVENT

Many Fine Church Programs Arranged For Sunday—Revival Meetings Continue.

NOTICE TO MINISTERS

Beginning immediately, all church notices to appear in this column on Friday should be in the church editor's hands not later than 3:30 p. m. Thursday afternoon. The time formerly was 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

In addition to the many fine services scheduled for Sunday morning in churches in Pa Grande, much interest this weekend is centering in the baccalaureate services which will be held Sunday evening at 8 o'clock in the L. D. S. tabernacle. Most of the churches of the city will be in attendance, and several of the ministers have a part in the program.

Rev. W. H. Hertzog, pastor of the First Methodist church, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon. Rev. J. George Valt, pastor of the Presbyterian church, will be chairman and will give the invocation. He is president of the La Grande Ministerial association.

Rev. A. J. Starmer, pastor of the Methodist Church South, will give the scripture reading, and Rev. Edwin W. Bracher, pastor of the Zion English Lutheran church, will give the benediction.

Church services for Sunday include: Presbyterian Church (Washington and Sixth). "In worship there is produced a feeling of security, in a world of insecurity and a feeling of reality of an eternal destiny. Why not accept the invitation and come to church next Sunday, that in worship we may develop the Christian spirit and ideals bearing upon economic, political, racial and all other social relations," says Rev. J. George Valt, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Sunday morning Mr. Valt will bring a message that will help all to rightly use Sunday, which will return spiritual blessings that secular experiences of the week have taken. Mrs. Lynn Wright, pianist, will play the service. Miss Ruth Geibel will sing "My Task" by Ashford. Members of the Ladies Triad choir, Mrs. Alfred L. Richardson, director, will assist in the songs of worship.

No evening service will be held. This congregation will attend the baccalaureate service to be held in the L. D. S. tabernacle at 8 o'clock, with the graduating class of the La Grande High school.

Bible School Sunday is at 9:45 a. m., and Christian Endeavor at 6:15 p. m.

Gospel Mission (2201 North Fir) Revival meetings are continuing each night except Saturday at the Gospel Mission. The crowds are encouraging and an excellent spirit has been manifest at the meetings. The old-time gospel is being preached, and messages in song as well as by word are received. All are invited.

Services Sunday at the Gospel Mission open with Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. with classes for all. The morning service is at 11 a. m. and Evangelist Fred Snyder's subject will be "The Shield of Faith." Tressa Ditty will be at the organ and Mr. and Mrs. Snyder will furnish special music.

The young people of the church meet at 6:45 p. m. with Elmer Carpenter as leader. The evening service is scheduled for 7:30 with the subject to be "The Signs of the Time." Special musical numbers are planned.

St. Peter's Episcopal Church (Fourth Street and O Avenue) Rev. Clarence A. Kopp, rector of St. Peter's church, announces the following services for Sunday: Holy communion at 8 o'clock; church school at 9:45; morning prayer and sermon at 11 o'clock; Young People's Fellowship at 6:30 o'clock in the evening.

Baptist Church (Spring and Sixth) "The First Fruits" will be the subject of the morning sermon at the Baptist church, with Rev. B. Marcus Godwin, pastor, in the pulpit. The morning worship hour opens at 11 o'clock. Mrs. C. E. Happerst will be the organist and Jane Williams and Josephine Cochran will sing a duet. Sunday school opens at 9:45 a. m. The young people of the church will meet at 7 p. m. and their lesson subject will be "How to Use Music in Worship." The evening service will begin at 8 o'clock. The song service will be led by the pastor. The sermon subject is announced as "Is the Gospel Out of Date?"

Central Church of Christ (Pennsylvania Avenue) "That Which is Called Out" is the topic which Rev. Paul De F. Mortimore will use for his sermon at the 11 o'clock service Sunday morning. Mr. Mortimore says, "The Bible is its own best commentary. While men argue over scriptural terms and meanings, God has clearly revealed His will and purposes and we have but to stop a moment and think to understand them. Prejudice, tradition, and human error in judgment are the most bitter enemies of truth in many things which relate to the Church of Christ."

The sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered at the morning service, preceding the sermon. All Christians are urged to participate in this service which was commanded of Christ. The choir will present the anthem, "Holy Spirit, Joy Divine," by Wilson.

At 9:45 a. m. the Bible school begins its weekly session. The average attendance this year is exceeding any previous year's record in the history of the church. A hearty welcome is extended to all who would study the Bible to avail themselves of the facilities of the school.

Christian Endeavor services meet at 8:30. Young people of all ages will find inspiration and interest in these services. The regular evening service will be held at 7:30 p. m. The hour remains the same as for the winter months. Special music has been rehearsed by the orchestra for Sunday evening, and a group of well known hymns will be used in the song service. The pastor has chosen for the evening sermon topic, "The Hidden Face." Sunday evening audiences have been large recently. Last Sunday the evening audience exceeded that of the morning service in numbers. A hearty invitation is extended to all who will attend.

Zion English Lutheran Church (M Avenue near Fourth) Services at the Zion English Lutheran church begin Sunday with church school at 9:45, with the story: "A Church Bell Chimes the Story of Jesus."

The morning service is at 11 o'clock and the pastor, Rev. Edwin W. Bracher, will use as his sermon subject "A Song of Praise." Helen Jensen is organist and the choir will sing "Come, Ye Disconsolate" by Alfred Judson. Harvey Carter will sing an offering solo.

The Luther League meets at 8 p. m. with Helen Jensen as leader. Special music will be furnished by the choir. The subject will be "How to Use Music in Worship."

MY THOUGHTS ON THE BIBLE By Captain Robert Dollar (Founder of the Dollar Steamship Lines and a vice president of the American Bible Society)

For the past sixty years, every morning before breakfast, I have read part of a chapter in the Old and New Testaments. Also, at that time I write in my diary. By commencing the day with reading of my Bible, I find it gives me much valuable information, and inspiration which is past my power to express on paper. The older I become—and I am now past my eighty-seventh year—the more benefit do I derive from this habit of reading from chapters of the Bible each morning, not alone from a spiritual standpoint, but from a commercial one as well, as I find it of great help in my business. It has meant guidance and help in my efforts to make success in this world.

My appreciation of the value of the Bible to mankind is such that, for some years past, I have been continually giving away great numbers of them. On our big fleet of passenger steamers a Bible has been placed in every room. In addition to this, Bibles in the Chinese language have been placed in all our Chinese passenger's quarters. This makes a total of some four thousand copies in all. Through the American Sunday-school Union, I have given away many thousands of New Testaments.

My business necessitates traveling around the world, and doing business with many nationalities. In coming in contact with people this way, I could not help but be impressed with the first chapter of Joshua, eighth verse: "This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate there in day and night; also, the part of the ninth verse: 'Be strong and of a good courage; . . . neither be thou dismayed, for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.' In all my travels I have always kept the foregoing in my mind. From Bible Society Record, Aug. 1931.

CLATSkanie MAN DROWNED ASTORIA, Ore., May 20 (AP)—With only his head and shoulders under water, and with no marks of violence on his body, William Lang, of Clatskanie, was found dead in Conyer's creek about half a mile from Clatskanie Thursday.

The "Seven Arts" The term, "Seven Arts," had its origin in the list of what in the Middle ages were considered the principal branches of learning, but of course, today our ideas of art are considerably different. The "Seven Arts" as set forth originally were grammar, logic, rhetoric, arithmetic, geometry, music and astronomy.—Kansas City Times.

BRIBES By Alice Judson Peale Jane's father was in the habit of making to her such offers as "If you'll take piano lessons this winter I'll give you five dollars" or "If you'll make your bed every day for a month I'll buy you a pair of skates." Or again, "I've got something good in my pocket. What do I get for it?" To all these offers Jane responded only by refusal. Small child that she was, she resented the effort to bribe her, and respected her father the less for his effort to do so. It made her also unacceptably close-mouthed and defiantly determined to maintain her integrity.

It added a peculiar strength of character at an early age, but it did not make her relation to her father any happier.

Such an effect perhaps is not altogether bad. The average child, however, does not refuse the bribe and as a result learns a number of attitudes which are far from desirable. He learns to bargain with an eye to his own pleasure and gain about duties and responsibilities. He behaves as though everything has its price. One works not because one enjoys accomplishment or the self-esteem that comes of doing what one knows is right, but only because one will be paid.

One learns even to bargain with the evidences of affection and to sell them as dearly as possible. Rewards are one thing, bribes quite another. They cheapen the quality of almost everything in the child's world and rob his efforts, his accomplishments of their real value to him. For he will not always be bribed to be good, to work, to learn, or to show affection. And when the incentive of the bribe is removed he is left without a good set of standards of his own.

ABDOMINAL INJURIES—If Anyone who has been subjected to a crushing injury, particularly affecting the region of the abdomen, should not be misled into believing that the accident is of no importance because he does not immediately suffer any marked pain or discomfort.

It is not uncommon to find persons who have been very severely injured capable of walking away from the scene of the accident, complaining at the time only that they are tired or drowsy.

While the primary shock is mild, the secondary shock appearing in from one to several hours after the accident, is frequently very severe. The patient feels faint, nauseated and wants to lie down. Not infrequently he faints. He may be pale, restless, with a cold skin and may suffer from marked thirst.

It is usually at this stage that the patient is brought to the hospital or that the doctor is called on to make a diagnosis. In every accident attention should be paid to the details of the occurrence. It is not enough to say that the sufferer was struck or run over by an automobile.

It is desirable to know whether the patient was standing, walking or running, where and by what part of the vehicle he was first struck, whether he was dragged, and all such other details as may assist the physician in determining what portion of the internal anatomy was physically affected. Shock, injury to the abdominal wall, hemorrhage and injury to the spleen, liver, gall bladder, kidney, pancreas, stomach and intestines are the frequent results of non-penetrating, crushing accidents involving the abdomen.

SUMMER READING (Mabel E. Doty, Librarian)

"Practically the whole material of human knowledge lies before you somewhere in that free library of yours," says Arnold Bennett. "You can take any bricks you choose out of it and begin to build them into the edifice of your own being. Start where you like—only start." Why not then start this summer? The American Library association has prepared many worth-while reading courses which may be borrowed from your library. Or the librarian will gladly aid you in planning a course of reading on any subject you may be interested in.

The summer season is an excellent time for reading the books you have always intended to read but have never found the time for. If you are vacationing in the woods or at the shore, the library's custom of loaning books on vacation time makes it possible for you to take a supply of reading with you. Choose for your supply of reading, books which have passed their first flush of popularity but which you have not found time to read. Here are a few suggestions:

Cather, "Death Comes for the Archbishop." Duffus, "Mexico." Duffus, "The Santa Fe Trail." Hauwirth, "Marriage to India." Hindus, "Red Bread." James, "The Raven; a Biography of Sam Houston." Lewis, "Arrowmith." Marie, "Education of a Princess." Priestley, "Good Companions." Smith, "Craft of the Critic." Strachey, "Eminent Victorians." Sugimoto, "Daughter of the Samurai."

HILLS BROS COFFEE NEVER VARIES IN FLAVOR

... THAT'S WHY YOU'LL NEVER SWITCH

You'll like Hills Bros. Coffee from the very first sip! It has a rich, exquisite flavor no other coffee has. And as time goes on, you'll still like Hills Bros. Coffee. For the flavor never varies!

Variable flavor results from bulk-roasting. There is no positive way to roast big batches alike. One may be underdone — another overdone. Different flavors naturally result.

Hills Bros.' patented process—Controlled Roasting—overcomes that! Hills Bros. roast a little at a time . . . evenly, continuously, under automatic and exact heat control. Every pound is roasted the same! Hills Bros. Coffee can't go stale! The

Roasting "a little at a time," instead of in bulk, is the reason for unchanging flavor in Hills Bros Coffee vacuum process of packing coffee is the only method that fully preserves coffee freshness — the air is removed from the can and kept out. It was originated by Hills Bros. over thirty years ago. There is no magic about a vacuum can — it will not make poor coffee good, but it will keep good coffee fresh.

It is a flavor no coffee can duplicate, because Controlled Roasting belongs to Hills Bros

Ask for Hills Bros. Coffee by name, and look for the Arab trade-mark on the can.
