Go Window-Shopping in your easy chair

Relax for a moment and turn the pages of your newspaper. Let the advertisements help you to make your shopping plans. Do you need a dress, or a coat, or a hat? Perhaps a new blanket for a guest-room, some curtain material, or even a few new pots and pans for the kitchen? Of course, there are many things you want and need . . . but you may be letting many of them wait until you see in a store or a window exactly what you have in mind, at an especially alluring price.

Those are the very things you will find in advertisements. Attractive articles, new and improved ones, prices that make quick action an economy. Think how many steps it can save you to hunt out these things, and find them, in comfort at home! If a special opportunity is offered, you'll know about it in time. When new articles are announced, you can have them before they are the least bit out of date. And you can save hours of waiting and asking, miles of steps — and money too!

These are but a few of the ways the advertisements in your newspapers can serve you. If you read them every day, you are sure to grow wise in the ways of purchasing . . . and saving.

Should Be Wisely Used The tongue is, at the same time, the best part of man, and his worst. With wisdom, none is more useful; and without it, none more mischievous.

Selling Wind to Sailors At one time there was a profitable business done in the sale of winds to sailors. Three knots would be sold with instructions to the effect that with the untying of the first knot, the buyer would have a good gale, with the untying of the second knot would come a very strong wind, and the third knot's untying would be a very severe tempest.

Not Really Steel Jackets There are no steel-jacketed bullets made in the United States. In Europe there are some cartridges made which have steel (really soft iron) jackets, with a thin wash of cupro nickel. Most bullets called steel jacketed in the United States are made with a cupro nickel alloy jacket.

Whence Came Doubts Dubious questioning is much better evidence than that senseless fondness which most take for believing. Men that know nothing in sciences have no doubts. He never truly believed who was not made first sensible and convinced of unbelief. Never be afraid of doubt, if only you have the disposition to believe. —Leighton.

Herbs for Flavoring The kinds of herbs in most general use for flavoring food in this country are parsley, sage, thyme, savory, marjoram, spearmint, dill, fennel, tarragon, balm and basil. In the order named. Parsley leads, because it is used both as a garnish and flavoring. Sage may surpass it as a flavoring only.

Red Cross Seals The first Red Cross seals were issued in 1908 and continued to be issued by the Red Cross in connection with health work, such as the anti-tuberculosis campaign, until 1910, when the tuberculosis campaign took it over entirely.
