Circus Inspiration For Decorations At "Feed the Animals" Event Held Sunday Morning at Miss Doty's Home

Using the circus as the inspiration for their decorations, Miss Mabel Doty, Miss Mae Searns and Miss Alta Lillie entertained yesterday morning at breakfast for a group of friends at the home of Miss Searns. The invitations announced that they would "feed the animals" at 9 o'clock, and at the breakfast a sawdust ring was the centerpiece. A large popcorn ball, topped by a clown, sat in the centerpiece of the ring.

Radiating out from the sawdust ring was the circus parade in which miniature animals, bands, clowns were marching.

Guests invited for breakfast were Miss Alice Kippel, Mrs. R. F. Tyler, Miss Carolyn Baumann, Mrs. C. L. Baumann, Miss Eleanor Vernon, Mrs. Vernon, Miss Bessie Pettigrew, Mrs. Pettigrew, Miss Amanda Zabel, Miss Mabel Morton, Mrs. Elia Doty.

Delphian Society Enjoys Luncheon

Miss Hilda Anthony and Miss Ida McMeekin entertained the members of the Delphian society at a luncheon Saturday at 12:30 in their home at 1606 Sixth street. The table and the rooms were decorated with garden flowers. At each place, on tiny easels were small reproductions of famous paintings studied during the year's work. By means of questions and the pictures, the members found their places at the table. There was much merriment and some confusion when two or three women claimed the same picture. Those present were Mrs. E. E. Hurley, Mrs. L. L. Douglass, Mrs. Lowell Williamson, Mrs. L. B. Pierce, Miss Sarah Williamson, Miss Beatrice Young, Mrs. A. H. Rebe, Miss Hilda Anderson, Mrs. Hugh E. Brady, Mrs. C. E. Anderson, Mrs. Haskell L. Andrews, Mrs. Miriam Rettig, and the hostesses.

Miss Haun Weds William Beckel

At the Presbyterian manse, 909 Pennsylvania avenue, Saturday afternoon, Rev. J. George Walz read the services which united in holy matrimony, Kathelen Haun and William Beckel. The bride and groom were accompanied by Marie Haun, sister of the bride, and Richard Strand. Mrs. Beckel's home has been at Evans, Ore., and Mr. Beckel resides in La Grande. They will have their future home at Evans.

Piano Pupils In Recital Sunday

In a setting of white lilacs and yellow poppies and tulips, Miss Ida McMeekin presented her piano pupils in a recital yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the La Grande hotel. The piano was draped with a paisley shawl.

Miss McMeekin was assisted by Misses Eleanor Hicks, Barbara Coolidge and Ola Mae Hough, advanced pupils of piano. Musicians were Misses Dorothy Bergin, Mary Loney, Luan Brady, Doris Raymond, Darlene Miller, Charles Snyder, Avery Millering, Dickie Rettig and Robert Hogenson. Misses Coolidge, Hough and Hicks also played numbers.

- "Dance of Spring" Franz

128 SENIORS HEAR SERMON BY HERTZOG

Music, fitting to the solemnity of the occasion, was furnished last night by the High school music department, under the direction of W. W. Nusbbaum. Rev. J. George Walz, pastor of the Presbyterian church and president of the La Grande Ministerial association, acted as chairman of the services and presented the opening remarks, after which the graduating class marched down the aisle to the strains of "Aux Flambeaux," a march by Clark, played by the band and orchestra.

Rev. Walz furnished the invocation. "A Cabin on the Bayou," by Brown, was beautifully sung by the girls' glee club, demonstrating excellent training received from Mr. Nusbbaum. The boys' glee club sang "Sons of Men," by Cadman.

Rev. A. J. Starmer, pastor of the Methodist Church South, read the scripture, after which the band and orchestra played the overture, "Haymond," by Thomas.

Following the address by Mr. Hertzog, the glee clubs, orchestra, and the organ, presented "The Heavens Are Telling" from "Creation," by Haydn.
