DIETRICH UNABLE TO STOP SOLONS IN NIGHT CONTEST

Missions, Hollywood and Oakland All Chalk Up Victories—Frisco Game in Afternoon.

By the Associated Press

Five thousand customers and the Mission Reds enjoyed the return of afternoon baseball to San Francisco yesterday. The Reds didn't have so much fun, being on the wrong end of an 8 to 5 score. Under a warm sun, the Mission sluggers collected 17 hits and the Reds 10, which might be considered a testimonial for daylight playing.

The Missions put on a three-run drive in the seventh inning at the expense of Jimmy Zinn. Seal right-hander, to clinch the game.

Down in Los Angeles night baseball continued to be popular, 10,000 fans turning out to see Hollywood blank the Angels 4 to 0. The pitching of Tom Sheehan proved too much for Los Angeles. Win Ballou, the losing pitcher, got off to a bad start with two runs against him in the first inning, and two more were rung up in the sixth.

It was a cold, raw night in Portland and Portland seemed to have difficulty in getting warmed up. The Senators won 4 to 1. Vincel for Sacramento and Dietrich for Portland walked a total of 13 men, but Vincel held the Ducks to four hits.

The Oaks put on some sparkling fielding in Seattle to beat the home town team 10 to 4 in opening a night series. Brubaker pulled off a double play in the seventh when Seattle had the bases filled by taking a hot liner off Burns' bat and shooting it to first for the second out.

Yesterday's results: B. H. E. Missions 8 17 1. San Francisco 5 10 3. Leiber, T. Fillette and Ricci; Zinn, Douglas, Rooney and Ward.

R. H. E. Hollywood 4 7 0. Los Angeles 8 6 2. Sheehan and Bassler; Mayer, Ballou, Sweetland and Campbell.

R. H. E. Sacramento 4 10 4. Portland 1 4 1. Vigel and Wirtz; Dietrich and Fitzpatrick.

R. H. E. Oakland 10 16 2. Seattle 4 7 4. Thomas and Gaston; Page, Wetzel, D. Freitag and Cox.

A reward of $100 was offered for identification of the pop bottle thrower.

Another casualty was the referee knocked out by an unpermitted swing by Doc Reynolds, of Texas, who was angered by the loss of a fall to Jean Callet, of France.

Oregon Baseball Team Turns Back League Leaders

PULLMAN, Wash., May 25 (AP)—University of Oregon's baseball team turned back the conference leading Washington State nine, 3 to 1, here yesterday. Osborne Edwards pitched a nice game for the visitors, allowing but three hits. The Cougars' score came in the second inning on two singles and a fielder's choice. Oregon made all her runs in the sixth when they began bunting and put two men on base. Lefty Irvine was relieved by Myron Estill, who walked, Minnaugh. Shaneman then drove in Edwards and Londahl walked, scoring Stevens. Minnaugh walked on an outfield fly.

Oregon State plays here tomorrow and Thursday. The score: R. H. E. Oregon 3 4 3. Washington 1 3 2. Edwards and Shaneman; Irvine, Estill and McKay.

Moody-Wood Net Combination In Quarter-Finals

AUTEUIL, France, May 25 (AP)—Mrs. Helen Willis Moody and Sidney B. Wood Jr., today advanced to the quarter-finals of mixed doubles in the French tennis championships in a straight set victory over Cecil Durand Merle and Francois Terrier. The scores were 6-3, 9-1.

Both members of the ranking American combination were in fine form in contrast to their shaky start yesterday when they dropped the first set to Frau Dros Ganters and Franz Matejka and had to work hard to win the match. They played easily and confidently today.

They will meet the French combination of Ida Adamoff and Christian Boussus in the quarter-finals, the latter today defeating the English team of Mrs. Kitty McKane Godfree and G. P. Hughes, 3-6, 6-4, 6-3. Singles play will not start until Friday with Rene Lacoste, making a return to championship competition, playing the first featured match.

THREE FAVORED TO BETTER MARK

Record Shattering 200-Meter Race Looms From Simpson, Koernig, Tolan

By Alan Gould
(Associated Press Staff Editor)

NEW YORK, May 25 (AP)—The Canadian "jinx" apparently is the only factor America needs to have much concern about in planning to regain the Olympic 200-meter sprint championship this summer at Los Angeles.

Twice in Olympic history unheralded Canadian youths have sprung to fame and victory in this event at the expense of the Yankee favorites. Bobby Kerr turned the trick in 1908 at London. Percy Williams romped along 20 years later, at Amsterdam, to frustrate the gallant attempt of Jackson Scholz to repeat for the U. S. A.

At least the North American continent has acquired a monopoly over the 200-meter route, for the United States furnished all the other winners.

Williams has Big Job

Williams expects to defend this as well as his 100-meter honors, but if he does he will be the first sprinter to repeat.

His principal opposition probably will consist of two Americans, George Simpson and Eddie Tolan, and the German star, Helmut Koernig. Any one of the three is capable of bouncing the present Olympic record of 21.6 seconds into the discard. Simpson has equalled the world record of 20.6.

"Simpson, who pulled a tendon while going great guns in the 1928 trials, is making a comeback. Tolan, the former Michigan negro runner, has beaten 21 seconds and possesses plenty of stamina.

Koernig, according to reports, is running better than in 1928, when he handed Williams the latter's only setback, in the 200-meter semifinals and tied the Olympic record. The German wound up fourth in the final, however, trailing Williams, Rangeley of England and Scholz.

One Position Wide Open

The third position on the U. S. 200-meter team appears wide open, assuming Tolan and Simpson have no trouble qualifying.

Frank Wykoff has the speed to stay with any of the contenders, but lacks endurance, and will concentrate on the 100. So will Emmett Toppino. Bob Kessel of California and Ralph Metcalfe of Marquette have developed sensational speed this spring, but lack big-time experience. Hec Dyer, the former Stanford star, is another comeback candidate.

SPORT SLANTS

By Alan J. Gould

"I've got the best outfield I've had since taking hold of the Phillies," Burt Shotton remarked as he led his forces on their first western invasion.

He referred to the combination of Hal Lee in left, George Davis, the St. Paul recruit, in center, and Chuck Klein, almost an entire outfield in himself, roaming the right.

It had suggested his former trio of O'Doul, Southern and Klein was pretty useful but Burt explained:

"They were no where as strong defensively as my present combination, nor as fast. O'Doul is a great fellow and a sweet righter but offends his batting by poor handling of ground balls and a weak arm.

"Davis looks like a real comer. He suddenly started to get great just when it looked as though he had failed. I gave him every chance. He knew he had to produce and I think he just grabbed the confidence he needed one afternoon when he banged out a triple and a home run.

"The entire league is better balanced, with Boston, Cincinnati and our club much stronger looking, while the Cards and Giants appear no better. The Giants can't be as bad as they have looked against us. The Cards will continue to get fine pitching but I don't see how they can lick us 18 games out of 22, the way they did last year. Do you know we didn't win a single game in St. Louis last year?"

SHIRES SNORTS FLAMES

Art Shires entered Cincinnati with the Braves, still a casualty but breathing defiance to any and all inclined to count him out.

"I'll be back in there regularly soon," he declared, as the western invasion began.

"Huck" Betts, obtained in the draft from St. Paul, pitched three straight victories and brought a smile to the faces of Bill McKechnie and Judge Fuchs that refused to come off.

"I'm not surprised to have Betts come through," McKechnie said. "We couldn't afford to buy him at the price they wanted — $30,000 — but we were lucky to catch him in the draft."

Pioneer Merchant Murdered at Night

CHALLIS, Idaho, May 24 (AP)—His head almost severed by a blow from an axe, the body of G. M. Read, about 75, pioneer storekeeper, was found near the rear door of his grocery early today. Read was last seen alive about midnight, his body being discovered by Sam Hensen, whose dog caused a disturbance about 4 a. m.

Robbery is thought by officers to have been the motive. Read was said to have carried a sum of money, but was not found. An inquest will be held following arrival of E. C. Thomas, fingerprint expert of Pocatello, Idaho.
