Annual Ladies' Night Will Be Held By Rotary Club At The La Grande; Unusual Program Will Be Featured

Rotarians and their ladies will be feted tonight at the La Grande hotel, when the members of the Rotary club entertain at the annual Ladies' Night. Dinner will be served at 6:30 and a program will be presented, arranged by Andrew Loney Jr. A feature of the program will be an interpretative dance by Miss Kathryn Sartain, who will present a modernistic version of an Apache dance. Miss Sartain is a member of the La Grande High school faculty and studied dancing while a student at the University of Oregon. Tumbler from the Eastern Oregon Normal school, also will be a feature of an unusual program. Musical numbers will be furnished by Dick Lindsey, playing Raff's "Cavillina," and other selections; Paul Knautz, who will sing a group of solo numbers; and Winifred Scott and Eugene Schultz, the Ackerman Training school singers who are in great demand, will be presented by Miss Jennifer Peterson, musical director. An interpretative dance is being reserved until this evening as a speaker, whom it is said, is widely known in the city for his sprightly wit. The subject of his talk has not been announced either.

Picnic Luncheon Held at Pine Cone

At a delightful picnic luncheon at Pine Cone, Mrs. William Barclay and Mrs. H. M. Bradshaw entertained members of the Ah Deith club at one o'clock yesterday. Following a picnic luncheon, the group went to the home of Mrs. Barclay for bridge. Accumulative scores are being kept, and the grand prizes will be awarded at the close of the season. Mrs. J. E. Cunniff and Mrs. C. C. Bull will entertain the club in two weeks.

Teachers Guests At Dinner Party

Anticipating their departure from the city soon for the summer vacation, the La Grande High school teachers who live in the Rosch apartments were dinner guests last evening of the Misses Amanda Zabel and Mabel Morton in their apartment. A three-course buffet dinner was served at six o'clock, and the group later attended the commencement exercises.

Progressive Lunch Enjoyed By Club

A unique event, a progressive luncheon, was enjoyed yesterday by the members of the So-Ne-He club, when they started at the home of engagement was made recently. The wedding will be an event of June 8, at Corvallis, and following her graduation from Oregon State college they plan to leave for the Olympic games in Los Angeles on their honeymoon. Before sailing for Hawaii in the late summer to make their home, they will spend several months in California. Mr. Greenwell also is a student at Oregon State college, and a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

No Hostess Club In Bridge Party

Mrs. Edward Fitzgerald arranged an evening of bridge for members of her no-hostess club last night. Bridge was played at her home with Mrs. Francis Greulich completing two tables. Mrs. Leni Russell received the prize for high score, and Mrs. Fitzgerald received fourth. Refreshments were enjoyed at the Nook following the meeting. Miss Fonda Hanks will arrange the next party which will be held in two weeks.

Mrs. James Oneal Receives Award

Mrs. James Oneal was awarded the grand prize for the highest accumulative score among the members of the Heloma club during the past season, when they held their final party yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clyde Chariton. Mrs. Walter Lane was second high scorer for the year. At one o'clock a luncheon was served at the home of Mrs. M. E. Donohue, at one large table decorated with a centerpiece of red and white tulips. Three tables were arranged for bridge, and the prize for high score for the day was presented to Mrs. Jack Brandt.

Mrs. Ed Halley Hostess to Club

Mrs. Ed Halley, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Edna Stonebreaker, entertained at an informal afternoon party yesterday at her home, having as her guests the members of the Parkdale club. The afternoon was spent in conversation and a two-course luncheon was served at the close. Mrs. Clyde Davis, Mrs. H. H. Cleaver, Mrs. Phoebe Grant and the Misses Vivian Burnett and Anna Mae Shafer were guests. Mrs. Charles Hoak was appointed as program chairman for the next meeting of the club which will be held in two weeks. The hostess will be announced later.

La Grande Women Guests at Baker

Five La Grande women, wives of Safeway Store employees, were entertained in Baker yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Grace Head. Those making the trip were Mrs. Edna Howard, Mrs. Marie Fleetwood, Mrs. Mercedes Bales, Mrs. Callie Spencer and Mrs. Audrey Coleman. Pinochle was played during the afternoon and Mrs. Coleman received the prize for high score. Mrs. Fleetwood received consolation. Mrs. Callie Spencer will entertain here in two weeks.

F. H. B. Officers Are Installed

At an impressive candle ceremony yesterday morning in the La Grande High school auditorium at 10 o'clock, the officers of the F. H. B. club, for the year 1932-1933, were installed. Miss Dorothy Walker, as the spirit of home economics, which the club represents, acted as installing officer. Miss Virginia Wigglesworth was installed as president; Miss Melva Bull, vice president; Miss Ruth Nelson, secretary; Miss Elizabeth Milne, treasurer; Miss Ola Mae Hough, pianist; Miss Fay Walker, reporter; Miss MacLirabeth Cooper, song leader. Miss Ann Arnoldus, advisor of the group, explained the point system by which the girls are eligible for the F. H. B. awards. A girl must have studied home economics for two years, have a B-grade average in home economics; must be an active worker and have at least 12 points for a pin. Only the most outstanding girls may receive pins. Miss Arnoldus stated that the club presented pins to Misses Edna Brown, Beulah Freels, Berneta Pierson, Dorothy Walker, Mildred Wardell, Genevieve Flexer, Delda Gray and Alma Ingram. Fifty-one were present and enjoyed the clever presentation which followed the business meeting. Mrs. Faye Yeske played the role of the bride yesterday and Miss Edna Turner was the bridegroom; Mrs. Paul De P. Mortimore acted as the minister; Mrs. Nolan Skiff, bridesmaid; Mrs. Fred Roberts, best man; Miss Ina Fleming, flower girl; Mrs. Lillian Wallace and Mrs. Ruth Helvey, train bearers; Mrs. Art Allen, father of the bride; and Miss Dorothy Smith, mother. During the business meeting, Divisions A and B announced that on June 15, at the church, a birthday party will be held. Division C has postponed the home-made ice cream social planned for the near future until June 20. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Voelz. Mrs. Eugene Millering, Mrs. Earl Hough and Mrs. J. P. Caldwell, June 22 is the date of the next meeting.

Mock Wedding At Loyal Sisters Aid

Division C presented a mock wedding yesterday afternoon when the Loyal Sisters Aid of the Christian church met at the home of Mrs. A. L. Voelz in Fruitdale. Fifty-one were present and enjoyed the clever presentation which followed the business meeting. Mrs. Faye Yeske played the role of the bride yesterday and Miss Edna Turner was the bridegroom; Mrs. Paul De P. Mortimore acted as the minister; Mrs. Nolan Skiff, bridesmaid; Mrs. Fred Roberts, best man; Miss Ina Fleming, flower girl; Mrs. Lillian Wallace and Mrs. Ruth Helvey, train bearers; Mrs. Art Allen, father of the bride; and Miss Dorothy Smith, mother. During the business meeting, Divisions A and B announced that on June 15, at the church, a birthday party will be held. Division C has postponed the home-made ice cream social planned for the near future until June 20. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Voelz. Mrs. Eugene Millering, Mrs. Earl Hough and Mrs. J. P. Caldwell, June 22 is the date of the next meeting.

K. D. Club Meets With Mrs. Webb

Ten members of the K. D. club spent the afternoon with Mrs. Eula

Webb yesterday when she entertained them at her home. The afternoon was spent informally in sewing, and contests were enjoyed in which Mrs. Hazel Starmer and Mrs. Webb received the prizes. Mrs. Lucy Winburn received the gift which is presented to a member of the club at each meeting. Refreshments were served, and plans were made for the next affair which will be held at the home of Mrs. Oliver Crawford in two weeks.

Mrs. Faye Yeske Elected by Lodge

Mrs. Faye Yeske was elected nole grand of the Crystal Rebekah lodge when the members held an election last night at the Odd Fellows hall. Mrs. Edna Bodine was chosen as vice grand; Mrs. Adah McCrary was re-elected secretary; and Mrs. Flossie Engel was re-elected treasurer. It was reported that Mrs. Lillie Kimmel has returned from Portland, recovered from a critical operation there. Mrs. Sarah Beddes and Mrs. Minnie Bragg are attending the grand lodge this week in Eugene, two of three delegates elected.

Dorian Camp Fire Girls In Meeting

The Dorian Camp Fire girls met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of the guardian, Miss Margaret Milne, and spent the afternoon working on beaded and leather head bands. Plans were made for a council fire to be held on Friday, June 3, at 3:30 at Miss Milne's home. Those present were Misses Betty Wagner, Virginia Smith, Mary Loney, Violet Cogburn, Miss Newman, Maxine Noah, Nancy McChlin, Yerna Ward, Nancy Lindsay, Marie Worrell, Fern Hungerford and Annette Turn.

Mrs. Reynolds To Entertain Club

At a meeting of the Women's Benefit association, at which Mrs. Mae Riley presided on Tuesday evening at the Sacajawea Inn, it was announced that Mrs. Nellie Reynolds will entertain the Westway club, Friday evening at 7:30 at her home at 1908 Fourth street. The meeting was devoted to business and plans were made for the next event on June 14, at 7:30 at the Sacajawea Inn when refreshments will be served and a social hour enjoyed.

Do you inhale? Almost an "untouchable" subject in cigarette advertising

...yet 7 out of 10 smokers inhale knowingly—and the other 3 inhale unknowingly!

REALLY now—how often have you wondered why the subject of inhaling has been generally avoided in cigarette advertising? Why the mystery? Why the silence? We all inhale—knowingly or unknowingly! Each and every one of us breathes in some part of the smoke from our cigarette. Do you inhale? Lucky Strike has dared to bring up this vital question— for Luckies have the answer! Luckies assure you the clean, pure cigarette you want... because certain impurities concealed in even the finest, mildest tobacco leaves are removed by Luckies' famous purifying process. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it! "Fifty million smokers can't be wrong!" "It's toasted" Your throat protection—against irritation—against cough
