Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.—Psalm 37: 7.

BUY A POPPY
Tomorrow and Saturday everyone in La Grande will be asked to buy a poppy — one of the red paper poppies that have been made by disabled veterans of the World War. They will be sold for ten cents, though many will wish to give a quarter or a dollar, for they know the money goes to a worthy cause.

The proceeds will be used to aid local ex-service men and their families, who are in need of the essentials of life. We can best keep faith with those who gave their lives by helping those who escaped death — the living victims of the war.

In Flanders Fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly,
Scarce heard amid the guns below.
We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders Fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch: be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with those who die
We shall not sleep though poppies grow
In Flanders Fields.

The quarrel is over, but we are still at war — at war with diseases, with wounds, with poverty and all the other results of that cruel struggle across the seas. When you buy a poppy you will be honoring the hundreds who lie beneath the bright red poppies of Flanders Fields, and helping to make life brighter for those who came back shattered and shocked in body and mind.

TWO OTHERS ARE HURT SERIOUSLY

Police said the man talked insanely. The attack was committed in view of scores of pedestrians and motorists on their way to work.

The man pounced on the girl without warning and plunged a knife into her, then attacked the others.

Many school children were among the witnesses. None of them who were questioned said they had seen the man in the neighborhood before.

COUNCILMAN TO RESIGN
SALEM, May 26 (AP)—Watson Townsend, for many years a member of the city council, will resign at the next meeting. This is in line with a recent order of the state highway commission, which forbids its employees from holding any political office.

him nothing to enter, "because the stock had gone up" since the pool was opened. Later he was informed the pool had been closed and he was given $26,000 in bonds.

Plenty of Fireworks
The whole morning session was filled with fireworks. Democratic members of the committee shouting that if Walker should be removed he would be reelected by the greatest popular vote ever known.

The mayor himself seemed ever ready to start any argument of join one and at one point halted his testimony to stare at the counsel table at which he said someone was sneering at him. "You're very sensitive today," remarked Seabury.
