

Price of Cube Butter Goes Up Cent in Oregon

PORTLAND, May 26 (AP)—Advance of 1c in the price of all cube butter except firsts on the produce exchange during the late season was somewhat of a surprise but is believed to be a temporary affair.

A sudden change in the demand cleaned up the bulk of local manufacture and gave the trade a somewhat better appearance during the day for both firsts and cubes, but word passes in the trade that the big stores have purchased their weekend needs on the basis of the former low level. Naturally this will make it difficult for other stores to secure the higher price.

Butterfat advanced in along with butter; the new delivered price being 14c with country stations 12 to 14c in general.

Market for eggs is generally without change for the day. There has been no change in the prices set by the co-ops or private firms for some weeks. These are being underbid by independent producers.

Market for colored hens is inclined to show considerable weakness with at least steadiness in the light stuff. This applies both to broilers and to hens with quotations getting closer between the two groups.

With orders getting filled, the recent spurt of demand for turkeys for shipment appears to have subsided. Tops are generally at 16c for best available dressed hens.

Generally steady to firm tone was reflected for strawberries during the day with California practically off the market. Sales of Oregon stock were chiefly $2.00 to $2.25 crate for 24. Quality was generally more favorable.

After several days' delay on the track here, Texas tomatoes have entered the local market. Quality was mostly favorable and generally superior to Mexican. Local hothouse are showing a steady tone at late prices. There is a surplus of country killed veal and lambs now on the market here. Weaker tone is shown in both lines. Hogs appear generally steady. Beef demand is fairly good.

Slightly easier price list is shown for fresh fish. Both halibut and salmon have slightly receded in price in the north recently. Crabs continue scarce.

Notes of wholesale trading: Asparagus market appears fully steady.

Markets will be closed Monday, Memorial day.

Mayflower peaches have arrived from California and priced nominally $1.25 to $1.50 box. Mostly green.

Head lettuce market appears steady. Increasing movement of home grown and The Dalles peas. Trade steady.

Honey market is very slow.

22 Eighth Graders Receive Diplomas

Twenty-two pupils completed their grade school work yesterday when they graduated from the 8th grade of the J. H. Ackerman Training school at a general assembly at 10 o'clock Tuesday. E. E. Inlow, of the Eastern Oregon Normal school, traced the development of progress by three pictures, the first, "The Man With the Hoe," the figure with downcast head; the second, a figure looking out on the world; and the third, looking up.

Progress was outlined by the small degree of education and enlightenment necessary to the age when men looked toward the soil, tracing the step when more was needed to enable the man to look out on the world, and the high degree attained through progress when man now looks up for higher things.

Opening the program the entire school sang "Pippa's Song"; Eugene Shultz and Winnifred Scott sang two duets, "The Secret of Happiness" and "Home-ward"; Members of the sextet were Samurison, Winnifred Scott, Eugene Shultz and Howard Beck. The eighth grade also sang (to rally song).

Prices of Berries Move Higher But Quality Is Good

Few changes appeared today in the market prices quoted by La Grande grocers. Strawberries, which have been coming from out of the state since the 10th of May, have taken a jump in price with the advent of Oregon berries of good quality, quoted today at two boxes for 35c.

New wax onions have dropped from 25c for two pounds, to 25c for three pounds, while carrots are now selling at 15c for two bunches instead of the former price of 10c per bunch.

In Washington

By Herbert Plummer

WASHINGTON — Some 16 years ago Champ Clark of Missouri, then speaker of the house, made a little speech at a reception given by Washington newspapermen on the subject of "The Making of a Representative."

In the succeeding years when congressmen have come up for reelection some of them never fail to "dust off" that speech and broadcast it to their constituents. It is probably the prize campaign document.

"They're doing it again this year. A great many of them faced with the stiffest opposition they have had in a long, long while, are finding some degree of comfort and hope in the Clark document," said Clark. "are made largely by experience and practice. . . . It is an unwise performance for any district to change representatives at short intervals."

Long-Timers Rule

It is the long-timers who rule the house today.

There's Speaker Garner. He has been elected to fifteen consecutive terms in the house by his Texas district. Henry T. Rainey, the Democratic floor leader, has served 14 consecutive terms. Edward P. Cowan, man of the powerful rules committee, is serving his sixteenth straight term.

Joe Byrns of Tennessee, who holds the purse strings of the nation by virtue of the chairmanship of the house appropriations committee, is a 12-termer. Rayburn of Texas, chairman of the committee on interstate and foreign commerce, Summers of Texas, chairman of judiciary, and Carl Vinson of Georgia, chairman of naval affairs are serving their tenth term at the present time.

Collier of Mississippi, chairman of ways and means, is on his 12th term and Crisp of Georgia, acting chairman of ways and means, has been in for 11 terms.

Obituary

CHARLES P. RUTHERFORD

Charles Perry Rutherford, father of Mrs. Oliver Faus, of La Grande, died in Spokane, May 22. He was born on the Mississippi river near Peoria, Ill. The family was in the steamboat business. He became an orphan at 3, and crossed the plains at 6 with relatives. They settled at Eola, Ore., in 1853.

Mr. Rutherford went to the Boise basin in the gold rush of 1863, and ran a pack train from Walla Walla to the Idaho mines. He was married in 1873 to Miss Malinda Frances Moffet. They settled in Grant county, Oregon, and engaged in stockraising. Mr. Rutherford acted as scout for the settlers in the Indian war of 1878. He served four years as county judge of Harney county. Later years were spent in Portland and Spokane.

He is survived by his widow and seven children: Mrs. Mary Robertson, Doresey, Ore.; Mrs. Oliver Faus, La Grande, Ore.; Mrs. Rose Shields, Spokane, Wash.; Mrs. Frances Trengaskin, Raymond, Wash.; W. R. Washington, D. C.; A. P. Rutherford of California; Arland at home; 16 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Salem Girl Kills Herself in Kansas

LAWRENCE, Kan., May 26 (AP)—Overwork and despondency was blamed today for the death Tuesday night of Miss Mary Gilbert, 30, of Salem, Ore., who hanged herself at the home of her sister here.

The girl, a graduate student of University of Kansas, was to have received a master's degree in English last year, but later accepted a position in the Medford high school. She taught there until last year when she went to the University of Kansas to take work for the master's degree in English. She lived at Lawrence, Kan., with her sister, Marjorie, who with her husband had received the doctor's degree from the Kansas university.

WILLAMETTE GRADUATE

SALEM, May 26 (AP)—Miss Mary Gilbert, 30, who last night committed suicide by hanging herself at Lawrence, Kan., was the daughter of L. M. Gilbert, ex-superintendent of the state training school for boys.

Miss Gilbert graduated from Willamette university in 1923, and a year later accepted a position in the Medford high school. She taught there until last year when she went to the University of Kansas to take work for the master's degree in English. She lived at Lawrence, Kan., with her sister, Marjorie, who with her husband had received the doctor's degree from the Kansas university.

To Elect Officers At E. O. N. Friday

Election of student body officers at the Eastern Oregon Normal school on Friday is causing a future of electing among the students the coming week. The election will be held at noon, when the officers for the school year of 1932-33 will be selected.

Candidates for the positions are Bob Ragadeal and Howard Hoyt, for president; Gordon Paines and Jerry Metcalf, for vice president; Mary Lou Piper and Elizabeth Ashbaugh, for secretary; Ralph Koster, for treasurer; Benith Flynn, Aiyce Milne and Beulah Sooter, for council members, two of whom will be elected.

Bullish Movement Hits Wall Street

NEW YORK, May 26 (AP)—The stock market suddenly came up for air late today, after burrowing further into new low ground early in the week. A sharp recovery was widely recovered, and several leaders advanced $1 to $2 or more above the final prices of the previous session. Turnover of close to two billion shares was the largest in more than a month.

Brokerage quarters were inclined to attribute the turn to financial news ticks reports quoting Representative Croy as indicating the general sales tax, if revived in the senate, might pass the house.

New Champ Clark Eyes Capitol

Approved by the Senate Friday of Champ Clark, though he's only 5 years old, and the help of such-headed men boys like those pictured above, it's little wonder that Bennett Clark, Sr. Law attorney, has no trepidation about handling the job of a United States Senator. Clark is a candidate for the Democratic nomination in the Missouri primaries. Pictured here with Mr. and Mrs. Clark are their three sons, March, 3, beside his mother, his twin brother, Kimball, between his father's knees, and behind them, Champ Clark, 1, namesake of the late predecessor Champ Clark, long speaker of the House of Representatives.
