

PROMISE PERSONALS

By Mrs. Bertha Carper
(Observer Correspondent)

PROMISE (Special)—A big majority of the voters seemed to be interested in the primary election as 62 of the 69 registered voters went to the polls last Friday and two of the others were kept away by illness.

Sunday the Sunday school attendance was 43, and a good interest was manifested.

Jack Rivers, who lives on the old Lewis place at the mouth of Wild Cat Canyon, was at Promise Tuesday looking for seed potatoes.

Russell Willis spent several days last week with Harold Carper at Russell's place on Sunny Side.

Jack and Ethel Bethel and Margaret Page, who spent the winter at the Henry Snuffer home, returned to Baker Sunday.

The Promise boys were practicing baseball Sunday afternoon and expect to play the Troy boys some time in the near future.

I. S. McDonald, who is suffering from blood poison in his thumb, is not improving very fast and it is feared he will lose his thumb. He and Mrs. McDonald are at W. B. Hecock's in Wallawa. Their son Harvey went to Wallawa Tuesday to see them.

Lee Smith took the ballot boxes to Enterprise Saturday. Mrs. Smith accompanied him and visited her daughter, Mrs. Stella Poulson, near Enterprise. John Dodd made the trip with them stopping over in Wallawa to transact some business there.

John Carper, Edgar Denton and Reuben Barton are putting in some bridges on the road near Maxville this week.

Henry Carper has put in some garden on Lee Smith's place and they intend to move there the first of June.

Saturday is the regular grange day and it is announced that there will be a community dinner at the Grange hall and in the afternoon a short memorial program, after which they will go to the cemetery to decorate the graves.

Several young people met at C. P. Carper's Sunday evening for song practice.

Mrs. Julia Sennar, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Leatha Carper, left Saturday and is now visiting another daughter, Mrs. Lulu Trump.

Monday a few of her many friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Beale Gorbett and gave Mrs. Emily Phillips a very pleasant surprise, as it was her 78th birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Phillips is the oldest settler in this community and can relate some experiences with long, cold winters when they were cut off entirely from outside, and could only have communication with the outside by making the trip to Wallawa, 27 miles, on skis. Mrs. Phillips is quite active in Sunday school work and is always encouraging others to attend.

Mrs. Nellie Peshman and Mrs. Beale Gorbett, daughters of Mrs. Phillips, served a bounteous dinner to the guests. Those present were Mrs. Gorbett and son, Duane, daughters, Myra, Vera and Vera; Mrs. Nellie Peshman and children, Raymond, Ronald, Edith and Herbert; Mrs. Bertha Carper and daughters, Lillian and Luella; Mrs. Lona Carper, son Richard, daughter May; Mrs. Alice Smith.

Mrs. Lona Barton and sons, Norman and Orlan; Mrs. Almada Carper and sons, Fred and Frank; Mrs. Elma Gorbett and sons, Wayne and Homer, and Mrs. Ethel Carper. A very enjoyable day was spent and Mrs. Phillips was greatly surprised and pleased that her friends thought of her in such a pleasant manner.

This part of the country has been receiving some fine rains which will help along the crops, already starting off in fine shape. Most of the farmers are through seeding grain but are now planting late gardens and corn.

ELGIN PERSONALS

By Mrs. Lynn Hill
(Observer Correspondent)

ELGIN (Special)—Members of the Cemetery association are soliciting the town for donations for the annual Decoration day dinner. This is to be served at the K. of P. hall and is always a very interesting event for all who attend.

The next meeting of the Women's club will be held at the apartment of Mrs. Henry Sommer at the Sommer hotel. This is to be a social meeting and a goodly number are expected to attend.

Dorise Barnes is now in Walla Walla at the Veterans' hospital. While playing with several boys Sunday he wrenched his foot so severely as to break his leg. He was taken to La Grande for treatment and was taken to the hospital at Walla Walla.

Rev. L. B. Williams left this week for Denver to attend the national meeting of Presbyterian churches. When he returns the entire family will drive to Eugene to attend commencement exercises. The older daughter, Elaine, graduates this year with a number of the highest honors which the university can bestow.

After commencement the family will go to Seattle for a short visit with their older son, Allyn.

Mrs. William Eckstein, her father and her young daughter, Beale, left this week for Western Washington points where they plan to spend several months visiting relatives.

Harry J. Gilliam was at Elgin recently from his home in Wallawa county. For several years the Gilliam family made their home in the Hindman district moving this year into the Wallawa country.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Parker have gone to La Grande to spend a part of their vacation with relatives.

School here was out Friday. The teachers have already returned to their homes for the vacation period. The superintendent, P. C. Smith, and his son, who has been spending a few weeks with his father, left this week for their home in Portland. Mrs. Smith has been in Portland during the winter. The family had previously made their home at Priest River, Idaho.

Miss Doris Sturgill has gone to Portland where she will spend the school vacation with her mother. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hale moved to their home near Walla Walla this week. Harold McCully left with them and will make his home with them. He was one of the graduates of the high school this year.

Lester Quisenberry returned this week from Seneca where he went expecting to find work with the lumber industry. He found conditions such that he thought it useless to stay there.

The teachers of the public school took their pupils on picnics last Thursday. Miss Helen Reed took the fifth and sixth grades to the Callovey spring on Gordon creek. Miss Mildred Schmore and the third and fourth grades went to Phillips Creek. Bernice Schmore took the first and second grades to the city park. Each group took a picnic lunch and had a wonderful trip with many exciting experiences.
