Rotarians Hosts At Annual Ladies' Night Held at the La Grande Hotel; Rev. Clarence A. Kopp Main Speaker

"Rotary Ann" were honored by their husbands last night when the Rotary club entertained at the annual Ladies' Night at 6:30 at the La Grande hotel. Andrew Loney Jr., Oscar Warnock, Frank Wyde and R. E. Murphy were members of the committee and planned the program which followed the banquet, during which the women were honored by songs, led by Rev. Paul De F. Mortimore, song leader, and by songs sung by the piano accompaniment furnished by Merlin Bailey.

Rev. Clarence A. Kopp, who came here recently from Ellensburg to take over the La Grande parish of the Episcopal church, was the surprise speaker, furnishing a clever informal picture of his impressions of La Grande as a new comer. Mr. Kopp is a former Rotary president and "poked fun" at Rotarians in a pleasing manner.

Mr. Loney announced the program which included several exceptionally artistic numbers. Winnifred Scott and Eugene Shultz, two students in the 8th grade at the J. H. Ackerman Training school, who have distinguished themselves on many programs during the past winter, sang "Southern Moon," by Strickland; "The Stars Are Brightly Shining," by Bronte; and "April Showers," by Silvers. They were accompanied by Miss Jennie Peterson, who trained their voices during the past year. Miss Peterson is musical director at the Normal school.

Paul Knauts, accompanied by Mrs. Jean Richardson, sang in his inimitable manner, "Bedouin Love Song" and "One Alone." Dick Lindsay, one of La Grande's foremost violinists, played "Cavatina," by Raff, and "Indian Love Call," accompanied by Miss Edna Clark.

Miss Kathryn Sartain, member of the La Grande high school faculty, who has studied with leading California studios, and who has appeared in several pretentious amateur productions both in California and at the University of Oregon, presented a modernistic interpretation of the old Apache dance. The dance was a study in black and white, the costume of the dancer contrasting to the whiteness of the hands, face and feet. She was accompanied by Miss Virginia Shepherd who played "The Snake," a modern composition by Cyril Scott. Miss Catherine Osburn, also of the High school faculty, explained modern dance and Miss Sartain's interpretation.

Ray Roll and Lyle Velt, tumbler from the Eastern Oregon Normal school, gave an excellent performance of intricate acts.

Mrs. J. G. Ormand Tourney Winner Mrs. J. G. Ormand won the sweepstakes yesterday at the La Grande country club when 13 women competed for the honor. Mrs. Ormand carded 101-20-81, while Mrs. F. E. Lanzer shot 101-16-85; Mrs. C. H. Reynolds, 105-18-87; and Mrs. W. C. Perkins, 105-16-89.

THE "FLAMES" which flash above the crater of a volcano are the reflections of the molten lava on the clouds of steam and smoke. The term, "Volcanic Ash," is generally used to describe the fine dusty material blown from volcanoes, but it is not a material that has been exposed to fire, and is not a true ash. It is lava that has been blown into froth, cooled, and shattered into glassy particles by the explosive forces of the eruption. Small amounts of hydrogen and sulphur sometimes ignite, but these flames are only incidental.
