ment. Nine out of ten stocks listed on the New York exchange were railroad shares. Jay Gould was the "terror of Wall Street."

The smooth-face candidates of today would have seemed lacking in "be-man" qualities to the bearded voters in 1888. The "big bristled boys" were considered men of strength and substance.

The 1888 campaign was principally a tariff fight. Cleveland was re-nominated as a tariff reform advocate, while the G. O. P. nominated Benjamin Harrison of Indiana on a strong protection platform.

Harrison was elected with the electoral vote 233 to 188, although Cleveland received a popular plurality of 95,000 votes. Both houses were Republican, and the McKinley tariff bill, raising duties about 50 per cent, was enacted.

The prohibition party, gaining steadily in adherents, held its national convention at Indianapolis with Frances Willard, the founder of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, the heroine of the meeting. A news story of the convention carried the caption: "Drinkers of Water Convention Begins with Lemonade and Speeches."

Ladies' summer shoes then were of extra high cut, either buttoned or laced, and sold for $3.45. Women's hats were so high carriage tops in New York had to be raised to accommodate them.

JOSEPH PERSONALS
By Mrs. Maida Stevenson (Observer Correspondent)

JOSEPH (Special) — Elmer Atkins, of Imnaha, was in town Tuesday. Mr. Atkins says everything is growing and range is most excellent this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Huffman, of Big Sheep, came out Tuesday to attend to business and visit their relatives, Noel Scott and family and Miss Lena Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wittman left Monday for Caldwell, Ida. Mr. Wittman is principal of the Joseph school.

Mrs. Sarah LeGore has been quite sick but is now much better. Mrs. Ed Rockey and son, Leo, of Walla Walla, and Clifford Lathan, of Nysa, came in Wednesday and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gillaspie.

Mr. and Mrs. Rockey formerly lived at Joseph and moved away about three years ago. Leo and his brother, Emerson, operate a service station near the state line and have it leased from Mrs. Hart Atkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hamilton are moving to the head of the lake for the summer. Mr. Hamilton has a string of saddle horses at the lake during the summer.

Jack Wagner, a salesman of Seattle, was here Wednesday. Mr. Wagner spent the day with Mrs. Wealthy Yeager and other relatives. He is Mrs. Yeager's son-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell and daughter, of Pendleton, came in Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Searcy. Mr. Mitchell is superintendent of the experimental farm at Pendleton.

The Joseph Women's club had a covered dish luncheon at the club house Thursday. Election of officers was held and Mrs. Wealthy Mitchell was elected president, Mrs. Ed Purdin, vice president, Mrs. Walr. Beth, secretary and Mrs. Edith Holst, treasurer.

Glenn Marr came in Sunday from Denver to spend a few days with his mother, Mrs. Carl Phapp.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Claycombe and Mrs. Anna Leslie, of La Grande, and Joanna Leslie, of Summerville came in Monday to spend the day.

George Cole, living two miles south of Joseph, suffered a broken leg Monday caused by a horse kicking him. Mr. Cole was taken to Wallowa by ambulance to have the broken bone set. He is doing very well.

The dinner given by the Cemetery association Monday was not very largely attended as a great many people are busy and did not come to town.

Max Wilson has been slightly under the weather but is now much better.

Ten days ago Mr. and Mrs. B. Foster took Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Burroughs to Portland to consult a physician about Mr. Burroughs' health. Mr. Burroughs is in a hospital receiving treatment and Mrs. Foster was operated for appendicitis and is getting along very well.

Mrs. Burroughs came home Saturday. Mrs. L. Knapper, who spent the winter in Portland, and her son, B. H. Knapper, came in Saturday and are at Mrs. Knapper's home on upper Main street.

of La Grande, spent Monday at Joseph.
