UNION (Special) — The meeting of the Commercial club held at the Union hotel Wednesday afternoon concluded the sessions until September. Most of the time was devoted to a discussion of the stock show next week and of the results of the various advertising schemes. Several who attended the meeting of the Cattle and Horse Growers' association in Burns Friday and Saturday talked up the show and distributed advertising matter. Dale Richards, of the experiment station, gave a report of the meeting and state that interest in the Union show seemed keen.

The John Day country, Canyon City and Prairie City were visited Tuesday by a delegation of stock show boosters from Union composed of T. D. Smith, Lew Biddle, G. T. Barnard, Pete Davis and Colonel Palmer. And on Wednesday Ab Clipson visited the Pine and Eagle Valley sections.

Visitors at the meeting were E. B. Conklin, of Ontario, and George Winship, of Pendleton, who gave short talks. Rev. R. C. Lee was present at the club and when he stated that the annual conference of the Methodist church was to be held in August the club passed a resolution to be presented to the conference asking that Mr. Lee might be returned to Union.

Miss Fawn Geertsen underwent a major operation at Hot Lake on Friday.

Virginia Ward and Frieda Brown took the former's Sunday school class for a hike Wednesday. Attired in hiking clothes and broad brimmed hats they took a long trip up Little creek, had a picnic lunch at noon and returned in the evening.

Several friends of Mrs. Alex Slater surprised her Tuesday when they arrived about noon with well filled baskets, lunch cloths and napkins and spread a bountiful birthday dinner for her. She had already planned a dinner with her daughters, Miss Velma King and Mrs. John Weisman, and the Slater's family has guests, so they made a real party of it. The other guests were Mesdames Louisa Burwell, Viola Parker, Ernest Paulson and N. L. Ward.

J. P. Hutchinson, Roy Clipson, Bernard Shanks and Floyd Gauthier made the rounds of the valley Thursday distributing stock show material at Cove, Elgin and La Grande.

Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Bach, who were married at Nysa last Sunday, stopped on Monday to visit Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Lee at the Methodist parsonage. They were going to Pendleton on a honeymoon trip.

Orr Cline, who has been quite ill for a week, is still confined to his bed most of the time.

Wilbur Davis and Charles Record made a business trip to the Burnt river section Tuesday returning on Wednesday.

Mrs. Rachel Bidwell underwent an operation at the Grande Ronde hospital on Wednesday.

Mrs. Jeannette Moran and John Hug, of Elgin, were business visitors in Union Thursday.

The cool damp weather this spring has been especially favorable for the growth of mushrooms and people have gathered them by the tubs full. Many cars from Baker and La Grande have driven up the creek the past week for these delicacies.

Dinner guests of the Terralls Thursday evening were the Mesdames Mabel Morton and Amanda Zabel, of La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Butzlen and sons, Chester and Paul, arrived from Nampa Wednesday evening for a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Williams, before going to Corvallis where Mr. Butzlen will take summer school work at O. S. C.

Mrs. Brent Sturgill and Stanley, of Meacham, have been visiting this week with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Carrie Potter. Lucile is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Bert Tucker in Walla Walla.

Eldridge Huffman, who has taught in the grade schools of La Grande for several years, will spend his summer vacation at Union with his father, Marshal Huffman, and grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Slater enjoyed a visit with old-time friends, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Nelson, who drove in Monday from Kennewick, Wash., for an overnight visit. He is dairy inspector for Eastern Washington.

There was a very good attendance at the meeting of the Missionary society held at the W. C. T. U. hall on Wednesday afternoon. An interesting program under the direction of Mrs. Walter Cook preceded the business session. The subject, "Health is Wealth" was discussed in connection with the various hospitals that are serving humanity and being financed by missionary gifts. Mrs. W. T. Wright led the devotionals. The mite box opening produced $1232 with several boxes still to be turned in. The same officers were selected for another year as follows: Mrs. Worth Halsey, president; Mrs. William Kiehlbeck, vice president; Mrs. Walter Cook, secretary; Mrs. D. H. Crocker, treasurer; and Mrs. Bell Wright, corresponding secretary. The hostess served a lunch assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Tex Knight, and Miss Alice Cadwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Stedman and baby son, of Baker, were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Worth Halsey, Sunday. Esther Halsey, who had spent two weeks with them, returned home and Elma went up to spend this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wilde and family, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wilde, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Gunn who are visiting from Coalville, Utah, and Miss Elma Orton drove to Walla Walla Wednesday and spent the day picnicking. On the return trip Mr. and Mrs. Grant Wilde stopped in Elgin to spend the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stringham.

Mrs. Cuff Estis, of Baker, visited from Sunday until Thursday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Lantius and other relatives.

Alta Phillips drove to Pendleton Wednesday to take Mrs. Sylvia Crowland and her son on their return trip to Portland. She had been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Phillips for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brace, of La Grande, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rinker, of Walla Walla, former residents of Union, were visitors on Monday. Mrs. Hannah Bloch and daughter, Miss Stella, Mr. and Mrs. Turn and two daughters, of La Grande, were callers at the M. S. Levy home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eakin and family came to Union Monday to decorate graves of relatives.

Mrs. Herbert Rohrig came in from Tacoma Tuesday and spent a few days visiting friends and relatives. She returned home Friday. She reported Mrs. Alma Rohrig's condition about the same, spending most of her time in bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Jackson and three daughters, of Hamilton, Mont., have been visiting since Sunday with his brother, R. H. Jackson and family. Mr. Jackson plans to take summer school work at the state university at Missoula.

Vernie Baer and Milton Levy visited one day this week at the Levy home.

After visiting her sister Mrs. Alma Rohrig in Tacoma for a couple of weeks, Miss Agnes Briones returned the last of last week and is making her home with Mrs. Anne Schoonover for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Keramell and old VanSoy's place in North Union, moved to Portland the first of this week and the place has been leased to another person.

Ethel Conklin was hostess to the members of the F. H. H. gang Thursday afternoon and lessons in crocheting occupied a part of the time. Those present were Frieda Brown, Virginia Ward, Kathryn Green, Verma Powsy, and Mrs. Terrall. Ethel's mother treated them to some luscious strawberry shortcake and cocoa after the arduous duties of the afternoon. They will meet at Kathryn's home in two weeks.
