CLARK GABLE TO STAR IN 2 FILMS

Robert Montgomery and Madge Evans Open Week in "Lovers Courageous."

WEEK'S PROGRAMS AT THE LIBERTY

Sunday and Monday—Robert Montgomery and Madge Evans in "Lovers Courageous."
Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday—Joan Crawford and Clark Gable in "Possessed."
Friday and Saturday—Marion Davies and Clark Gable in "Polly of the Circus."

Three feature pictures have been scheduled for showing in the Liberty this coming week, two of them featuring Clark Gable and the other Robert Montgomery.

Montgomery and Madge Evans have the leading roles in "Lovers Courageous," the opening feature, which will be shown Sunday and Monday. It is a romantic comedy and the story concerns an idealistic English chap who runs away from home because his father objects to his ambition to become a playwright. Impractical as he is, he is adventurous, drifts about as a sailor, cowboy, hotel porter and what not, until he meets an admiral's daughter in South Africa. They elope on the eve of her scheduled wedding with a titled baronet—but that's only half of the story.

The supporting cast includes Roland Young and Jackie Seale.

"Possessed"

The Crawford-Gable team in "Possessed" begins a three-day run on Tuesday. The story is of a factory girl who becomes the toast of Park avenue. Miss Crawford's role as the girl who turns down the man she loves, in order to leave him free to become the governor of his state, gives her every opportunity for a display of her dramatic prowess.

"Polly of the Circus"

"Polly of the Circus" is a dramatic story of an attractive but hard-boiled circus performer who falls in love with a modern young minister. Marion Davies, of course, is the circus girl, and Clark Gable plays opposite her.

The plot gets off to a "punch" start when the trapeze artist is injured in a sensational fall and is brought to the minister's house for aid. The injury necessitates her remaining there for several weeks and romance ripens.

Other in the cast include C. Aubrey Smith and Raymond Hatton.
