Twenty-five intimate friends of the two honorees called during the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock. Ices were served in the dining room during the evening. Bougias arranged about the chandelier, and an attractive light over the serving table which was decorated with a centerpiece of white spirea and columbine in a crystal bowl on a black base. White tapers in low black candle holders completed the centerpiece. Mrs. C. H. Cleaver cut ices and Mrs. Cochran presided at the coffee urn. Miss Dorothy Kirby assisted in serving during the evening.

"Are You Training Your Children to be Happy?" was the topic for discussion which was led by Mrs. Glenn Wagner yesterday afternoon when the Child Study group of the A. A. U. W. and P. T. A. met for a picnic at 3 o'clock in the city park. An interesting discussion was enjoyed as a picnic dinner was served no-hostess fashion.

Loving Cup in History

No definite date can be set for the introduction of the loving cup as a sporting trophy. It was customary from very ancient times to award prizes for athletic prowess. In some of the ancient Greek games amphorae were given, these having a form similar to the modern loving cup. In a survey of the town of Stamford, England, first published in 1646, there is reference to a silver-gilt cup being awarded for the local races.

Last fall she was named one of the "Senior Six" to receive election to Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary, which means that she had practically perfect grades. This spring she was elected to Sigma Xi, scientific scholastic honorary, a recognition of her ability in her study of plant biology. Miss Williams is a candidate for a bachelor of arts degree. BALLOT TITLE OF PLAN UNDER FIRE

Corvallis, moving the normal schools to Eugene, moving the law school to Salem, moving the offices of the board of higher education to Corvallis and establishing new junior colleges at La Grande and Ashland. The complaint alleges further that this, instead of creating an economy will call for at least one million dollars of new expenditure on buildings and equipment for strictly school purposes, not including the housing requirements. The plaintiff offers a proposed substitute ballot title for the measure, as "a bill for moving university and normal schools and establishing additional cottages." Attorney Ross said no organization was back of the attack on the ballot title, but that Keene as a taxpayer is the actual as well as nominal plaintiff. Arthur Benson, clerk of the supreme court, said the appeal would probably be given immediate attention by the court.

Not a One-Man Idea

The Cyclopaedia of Education states that no one individual can be designated as the originator of the graded school system. As the school systems became organized, the necessity of teaching children in groups composed of those of substantially equal attainments produced the graded system or graded school. When a movement is gradual it is difficult to give the credit to any one individual.

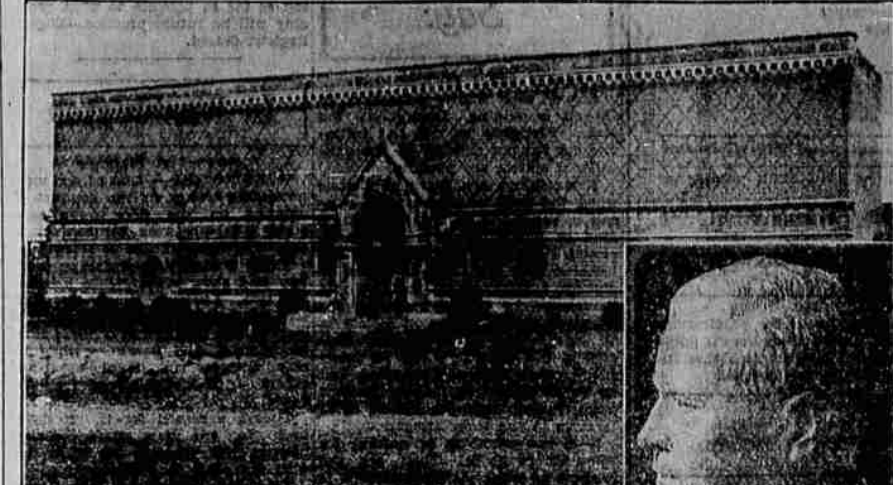

Commercial Chamois

Chamois is a soft, pliant leather prepared originally from the skin of the chamois, a small goat-like antelope of the Alpine region of Europe, but now also made from the skin of the sheep, goat, cat and other animals.

Are you hand-capped at the office? To put in a full day's work, you need a full man's strength. A man half-sick from constipation, has less chance to succeed in today's keen competition. This insidious condition often causes headaches, loss of energy, sleeplessness. It takes the edge from your working hours. Laboratory tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN supplies "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and Vitamin B to tone the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also has iron for the blood. The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is similar to that of lettuce. Within the body, it becomes a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes. How much better than using pills and drugs—so often harmful. Two tablespoons daily will correct most types of constipation. ALL-BRAN is not habit-forming. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor. At all grocers. In the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. HELPS KEEP YOU FIT
