Mrs. W. S. Harer Hostess to Members Of Thursday Club Yesterday; Bridge Is Played Following 1:00 Luncheon

Mrs. W. S. Harer was hostess to 12 members and guests of the Thursday club yesterday at one o'clock, at her home, following a one o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. M. B. Donohue. A centerpiece of tulips and gladioli formed an attractive decoration for the luncheon table.

Prizes at bridge were awarded to Mrs. Donohue for the club members and Mrs. William Peare, guest. Mrs. Turner Oliver was also a guest.

Mrs. E. Jacobson will be the next hostess, in two weeks.

Mrs. Berry Guest At Surprise Event

Mrs. Elizabeth Berry, who was Miss Elizabeth Hesse before her recent marriage, was complimented by the members of the Okepe Camp Fire circle yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at her home. They planned a surprise shower in honor of their leader and presented her with a number of tea towels and handkerchiefs.

Their honor bands were discussed by those present: Icel Collins, Ida Sherman, Verda Sherman, Ethel Sherman, Ella Berry, Norbert Berry, Mae Baum, Emma Baum, Marjorie Williamson, Adeline Ayers.

Ah Delth Picnic Held at Pine Cone

After a one o'clock picnic at Pine Cone yesterday, Mrs. J. E. Cunliffe and Mrs. C. C. Bull entertained the Ah Delth club for bridge at the home of the former. Miss Mildred Hoyt was a guest for the afternoon and was awarded the guest prize, while the members are keeping accumulative scores, the grand prize to be awarded later in the summer.

June 22 is the date of the next meeting, the hostess for which will be announced later.

Parkdale Club Is Entertained

The home of Mrs. Frank Owsley was the scene of an interesting event yesterday afternoon when she entertained the Parkdale club, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Victor Eckley. The rooms were decorated with a profusion of garden flowers.

Guests for the afternoon were Miss Blanche Cunningham and Mrs. John Bennett, both of whom appeared in a program arranged by Mrs. Charles Hoak, program chairman.

Numbers on the program were "The Hypochondriac," a reading, by Mrs. Oda Shafer; "The Humming Bird," and "The Fairy Wedding," two piano stopped in front of the house. In what seemed but a few seconds, she said, came the blast. Paul G. Roebly, who lives next door to the Johnsons, told police he also had heard the automobile stop. W. A. Pratt, who lives not far from the Johnsons home, told police he was awakened by the blast and saw an automobile moving down the street.

MINISTER'S HOME DAMAGED BY BOMB

The minister's two children, who were in the house at the time, are Arnold, 14, and Merle Roselle, 12.

PROHIBITION EN ROUTE TO CONVENTIONS

day the reaction to his suggestion that a national referendum, authorized by congress, be conducted next year at which all the people could vote "yes" or "no" on the question "Shall the eighteenth amendment be repealed?"

The referendum, under the McAdoo suggestion, would be advisory. He believes it is the quickest possible solution of the problem.

John D. Rockefeller Jr.'s pronouncement that in his opinion prohibition has failed and that both major parties should include re-education planks in their platforms, continues to draw prominent comment, commendatory and condemnatory. Dr. John Grier Hibben, retiring president of Princeton university and formerly dry, said that in his judgment the Rockefeller statement "both crystallizes and marshals opinion on this subject."

Dr. Clarence True Wilson, long a leader among prohibitionists as executive secretary of the Methodist board of temperance, prohibition and public morals, said last night in Chicago that the statement of Rockefeller was "unlike and unworthy of him."

"Prohibition," said Dr. Wilson, "gave us ten years of unbroken prosperity and it will bring it back."

Bishop James Cannon Jr., speaking at Fairfield, Ia., criticized "the influences that surround Mr. Rockefeller." "Living as he does where literally saton's seat is, in the home city of Alfred E. Smith, of Jimmy Walker and of the Tammany tiger," was the way the bishop described it.

John R. Mott, president of the international missionary council and of the world's alliance of the Y. M. C. A., was quoted today in a special cable to New York Times from London as saying he had come to favor re-submission of the prohibition question to the people of the United States, if some way could be found to keep the matter clear of partisan politics.

The Times cable said that Dr. Mott still believed the net results of the dry experiment have been good for the nation as a whole, but admitted they have been "deplorable" in some sections.

Of more concern to politicians of both parties than the spoken opinions of individuals, however, were developments in states where prohibition has been an issue at the polls. Of particular pertinence was the emphasis prohibition is receiving in parts of the south long listed as dry.

Louisiana For Referendum

At Baton Rouge the Louisiana legislature gave final approval yesterday to a referendum on repeal or modification of the eighteenth amendment. The state senate also approved a resolution for submitting repeal of the state enforcement law to the voters in a little opposition to either measure.

In the fourth Florida congressional district Mark Wilcox, who bid for nomination in Tuesday's Democratic primary on a platform advocating repeal, maintained a 9000 vote lead over Representative Ruth Bryan Owen. Mrs. Owen, whose father, William Jennings Bryan, was one of democracy's outstanding advocates of prohibition, favored a referendum plank.

The prohibition issue was a factor in three other Florida congressional districts, and in but one of these, the third, was an avowed dry in the lead. The advantage there of Representative Tom Yon was 380 votes over the second man of a field of three. Both of Yon's opponents favor referendum. Approximately 80 precincts were unreported.

At Richmond, thousands of Virginia Democrats gathered today in convention with prohibition the dominant subject, second only to endorsement of Harry Flood Byrd as their choice for presidential candidate. Byrd has announced a plan favoring a new constitutional amendment which would permit congress to refer repeal or modification to direct vote of the people.

Reed Joins Scrap

Adding his voice to those of other Democratic leaders on the prohibition question, former Senator James A. Reed of Missouri gave expression yesterday to a proposal that beer and wine "of limited alcoholic content" be legalized by congress as a tax raising measure.

Reed, a favorite son candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, said congress should legalize manufacture of such beer and wine "acting fairly within the limits of the constitution." He urged that the Democratic platform avoid any prohibition plank which might involve postponing definite action "for three, four or five years."

Militant resistance to any movement to stampede the parties into anti-prohibition sentiment was evidenced by Mrs. Margaret Cam Munin, national treasurer of the W. C. T. U. She said that if necessary the drys would "walk from the poor house to the polls to vote against a party or candidate who offers aid to the repealists."

Mrs. Munin said there evidently was "a last minute drive of eastern millionaires under way to threaten the Republicans with campaign poverty unless the party pledges repeal."

She then asked if the Republicans would rather have eastern millionaires dollars or widespread devoted voting support of the twenty million drys.

Save 2 1/2¢ PER GLASS on your Strawberry Jam

... The cheapest, most delicious strawberries of the year are crowding the local markets. Read how you can make jam quicker than ever.

BY Mrs. F. N. Bateman ILLINOIS STATE JELLY CHAMPION

"I just hate to think of women still making jam and jelly the old-fashioned long-boil method. It's so costly. And so terribly tedious!"

"I make all my prize-winning jellies and jams with Certo. And I would never think of doing it any other way."

"In the first place, Certo reduces boiling time for crushed strawberry jam, for instance, to one minute. And, of course, that is how it saves me so much money. For, with so little boiling needed, not one bit of the fruit juice has time to boil away. And as a result I get almost double the number of glasses from the same amount of fruit . . . and save as much as 2 1/2¢ on every glass."

"Of course, this 1 minute's hard boiling saves lots of time, too. Indeed I can make a complete batch in only 12 minutes."

"And with Certo you get much better tasting jam or jelly. Certainly the 37 prizes the State Fair Judges awarded my jams and jellies in the last two years testify to that!"

Why not do as Mrs. Bateman suggests and order a supply of Certo today? You will be delighted at the money and time it will save you!

And the extra flavor it will give your jams and jellies, too . . . if you will simply follow exactly the Certo recipes that come in the booklet attached to every Certo bottle.

Don't delay. In a week this marvelous berry crop may be on the wane. Get your bottle of Certo from your grocer's today. Certo, a pure fruit pectin, is a product of General Foods Corporation.
