Mrs. C. S. Paddock Compliments Mrs. High, of Seattle, and Mrs. Montgomery, Denver, at Party

Mrs. C. S. Paddock was hostess to a group of 12 yesterday complimenting Mr. Paddock's sisters, Mrs. Charles High and Mrs. Jack Montgomery, who recently came to La Grande with their families. Bridge was played during the afternoon and the prizes were awarded to Mrs. Eugene Millering, first; Mrs. Grover Grimmett, second; and Mrs. Lyle Kiddle, third. Mrs. Floyd Sherwood received consolation. The guests of honor were also presented with gifts.

Punch was served during the afternoon by the hostess, and after bridge refreshments were served, with Mrs. Walter Blokland assisting Mrs. Paddock.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Millering, Mrs. Grimmett, Mrs. Kiddle, Mrs. Sherwood, Mrs. S. B. Morgan, Miss Edris McQuire, Mrs. Haskell Andrews, Miss Bess Duke, Mrs. Clyde Bloom and Mrs. Walter Blokland.

Mrs. High formerly made her home in Seattle and Mrs. Montgomery lived in Denver, Colo.

Bridge-Luncheon Club Ends Season

A charming event of Thursday afternoon was the bridge luncheon at which Mrs. Elmer McManus entertained her club at her home at 1:15 o'clock. Mrs. E. F. McFadden, Mrs. J. O. Ormond, Mrs. Robert Scott and Mrs. E. L. Knight were invited and completed three tables for bridge.

Mrs. Paul Meyers received the prize for high score, Mrs. Doyle Zimmerman won the fourth high score, and Mrs. Scott was awarded the guest prize.

Luncheon was served at one large table which had a centerpiece of yellow and purple flowers with yellow tapers.

Mrs. F. E. Lanzer Wins Sweepstakes

Mrs. Fred E. Lanzer, in a field of 13 golfers, won the sweepstakes yesterday when women's day at the La Grande Country club was held. Mrs. Lanzer carded a score of 91-16-75, winning over Mrs. D. R. Tanner, runner-up, by two points, the latter shooting 95-18-77. Miss Ann Stange was third with an 86-8-78.

Women's day will be observed again next Thursday, at which time the second round of the handicap tournament will be played.

Mrs. McDonald Is Bridge Hostess

Mrs. W. D. McDonald entertained for a small group of friends yesterday afternoon at her home, at 2 o'clock. Bridge was the diversion and the prizes were awarded to Mrs. Jack McGhean, first, and Mrs. Russell Davies, second.

Refreshments were served at one large table which was attractive with a centerpiece of roses.

Guests for the event were Mrs. McGhean, Mrs. Davies, Mrs. J. E. Reynolds, Mrs. E. I. Shepherd, Miss Cora Bliss, Mrs. Charles Griffin and Mrs. C. C. Bull.

East Oregon Past Matrons to Picnic

The Eastern Oregon Past Matrons' association of the Eastern Star will be entertained at the annual picnic at Riverside park, at which the Union group will act as hostesses on July 20. A no-hostess luncheon will be a feature of the afternoon and a program is being arranged.

Plans for the event were discussed last night when the Past Matrons of the La Grande lodge met at 8 o'clock at the Masonic hall.

Bridge Party Held At Riverside Park

An afternoon of bridge at the Riverside Park was enjoyed yesterday at 2 o'clock when Mrs. Ezra Holman, Mrs. Otto Ott and Mrs. Philip Lockwood entertained the Diversity club. Four tables were arranged and the prizes for high score awarded to Mrs. John Price, among the members and Mrs. Lou Luper, among the guests. Mrs. Ed. Prouty received consolation.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. David Meldrum, Mrs. Marvin Blake and Mrs. Luper.

Refreshments were served at a late hour in the afternoon and meetings were discontinued until September.

Contest Winners Picnic At Cove

The fifth grade girls class of the Methodist church, the group responsible for the largest increase in the attendance of the Sunday school during a three months' period, were entertained at a picnic at which Mrs. Ruth Jackson entertained last night at Cove. It was necessary that the new members attend at least one-half of the Sunday school sessions during the three months, and the group was responsible for recruiting 26 new members.

Swimming and a picnic supper formed the evening's program. Mrs. Jackson was assisted by Rev. W. H. Hertzog, Boyd Jackson and Helen Hughes.

Fifty-Fifty Club Has Evening Meet

Mrs. Donald Cole was invited to complete three tables for pinochle last night when Mrs. Louise Shepherd entertained the Fifty-Fifty club at her home at 8 o'clock. The rooms were prettily decorated with a profusion of peonies and yellow lillies.

Prizes at pinochle were won by Mrs. Ralph Worrel, first, and Mrs. Cole, second.

Refreshments were served by the hostess after cards. Mrs. John Shepherd will entertain the club in two weeks at her home.

"Little Sisters" Present Program

The "little sisters" were present at the last meeting of Crystal Rebekah lodge, No. 50, Wednesday night, at 7:30 at the Odd Fellows hall, and created a lively interest by their presence and interesting talks. They were invited by members of the lodge, and were entertained while also contributing numbers to the program, making the meeting most successful.

At the close of the regular session, the following program was presented: violin solo, Miss Jennie Nielson, accompanied by Genevieve Adler; song, Maxine Helvey; reading, Miss Lydia Hug; song, Maxine Noah and Mina Newman; tap dance, Ella Engel and Helen Evans; vocal duets, Mrs. Lou Robertson and Mrs. Ruth Richardson; harmonica solos, George Moats, accompanied by Miss Mamie Woodell.

Mrs. Emma Harding, a charter member, with the noble grand and Mrs. Alma Carroll Grider supporting her, led the grand march to the banquet hall where about 85 people were served refreshments.

Eagle Sewing Club Is Discontinued

The meetings of the Eagles Sewing club will be discontinued for awhile, according to plans made last night when the Eagles met at 7:30 o'clock at the Eagles hall.

Regular business was transacted and the next meeting will be held in two weeks.

My Platform is a full cereal bowl

IF SOME ONE could canvass the youngsters of the land for their favorite breakfast dish, he'd find a landslide vote for Kellogg's Corn Flakes. Every morning of the week, these crisp, toasted flakes start the day in millions of homes.

And what's better than a bowl of crunchy Kellogg's, served with cool milk or cream and fruit? Flavor that appetites can't resist. So easy to digest it furnishes rich energy for work, play — or just for feeling fit!

Mothers also appreciate the convenience and economy of Kellogg's. No cooking or trouble. Many servings from a package costing but a few cents.

Serve Kellogg's Corn Flakes for the children's evening meal. Kellogg's encourage restful sleep — how much better than heavy, hard-to-digest foods.

You'll prefer genuine Kellogg's. No other corn flakes have such flavor and freshness. For Kellogg's always reach you oven-fresh — because the flakes are completely sealed in an inside WAXTITE bag. It's a patented Kellogg feature. Look for the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Quality guaranteed.

Enjoy a bowl of Kellogg's

Report Business Good at Opening Of Public Market

By Mrs. Charles Spencer
(Observer Correspondent)

GRANGE HALL (Special)—Several people from this locality took an active part in the opening day of the public market and report a good business day, with practically everything sold out by evening. Some lines of products were sold out by noon. The market is a grange move which started some five years ago. It will mean a lot for rural people who have been without a market in the past for most of their products.

Mrs. William Hughes was hostess last Thursday to members and a few guests of the Birthday Dinner club. At 1:30 o'clock dinner was served at one long table which had for a centerpiece a bouquet of lovely garden flowers. Nineteen were present for the occasion. Visiting was the diversion following dinner. The next to entertain the club will be Mrs. Victor Ragain who will be hostess at her home July 14.

Children's day will be observed at the next regular meeting of Blue Mt. grange which is to be Saturday, June 18. A potluck dinner will be served at noon, with each family furnishing a dish. The children will furnish the program.

Most of the alfalfa growers here have started to put up their first cutting of hay.

The meeting of the Countrywoman's club has been postponed until June 24. Mrs. Clay Penland will be the hostess on that date at her home near Island City. Mrs. Loren Turner and Mrs. Delbert Anson are to have charge of the program.

Marion Huff, the 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Huff, of La Grande, visited a few days last week at the home of his cousin, Joe Spencer. Marion, in company with his brother, Eddie, and his grandmother, Mrs. Albert Neukirchiner, will leave Wednesday for Portland where they will visit relatives until after the Fourth of July.

R. A. Masterton, master of Blue Mountain grange and Mrs. Masterton are in Silverton attending the state grange convention.

Mrs. Annie Huff, who recently returned from a five months' visit with relatives in Medford, is a guest at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Spencer.
