

Circumstances Of Animal's Death Are Mysterious

By Mrs. Wm. Wiggins (Observer Correspondent)
LORSTINE (Special) — James Leonard has been having a streak of bad luck this week.

The Ladies aid of the Christian church met for work at the home of Grandma McCubbin with 18 present to work on wool for Mrs. Henry Kuhn.

Announcements have been received of the birth of a son to Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Harriman who recently moved to California.

The Lostine river is very high at this time as the warm rains the past few days have melted the snow in the mountains.

Mrs. F. M. Pearce's Sunday school class of young mothers gave Mrs. Wm. Bicket a kitchen stove.

The Neighborhood club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Wiggins with 10 members and two visitors present.

Mrs. and Mrs. C. R. Nolan, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Caudle and Miss Edith Nolan drove to La Grande Wednesday where Edith took the train for Monmouth.

Mrs. Ella McKinzie is recovering from a severe illness. Claire Childers has moved his family to Wallowa Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Houser have moved their household goods to his mother's place and they will work on a farm near Imbler.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Victor are now living in tents on their place on Smith Mt. Their home was burned during the winter and they have been living elsewhere.

Mrs. Roy Hale and children, who have been visiting here, have returned to their home at Pilot Rock.

Paul Crow, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Crow, arrived from Livermore, Cal., where he has been attending school the past year and will spend his vacation here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dodge and Calvin Plants have returned from a two weeks stay in Salem. They plan to stay here as they did not find a suitable location.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ferrell, of Portland, former residents here, came last week to visit her mother, Mrs. Winifred.

Miss Lullbell Reed has returned to Walla Walla following a weekend visit with her parents. She was accompanied by Mrs. Chick Whitman, of Enterprise, who attends the same school.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bickle have moved into the house recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heaing.

Mrs. George Tilton entertained the Bridge club Monday with three tables at play. Arrangements were made for next year's activities.

In honor of birthdays of Edgar Dale and daughter Vivian, Robert Cook and June Cook, 18 guests enjoyed a delicious chicken dinner Sunday.

The birthdays came within the week. Guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Strum and son, of Prairie Creek, who were in La Grande on the occasion.

Mrs. Wiggins boasts of having the best garden in Lostine and if this does not convince you she invites you to look for yourself with spinach, lettuce, radishes, onions for the table, peas in bloom and other things accordingly.

The Lostine Union Sunday school and the Christian Sunday school celebrated Children's day by holding a picnic up on the old McCubbin home, with 60 people present to enjoy the dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sailing and Mrs. P. Y. Young attended the Old Timer's picnic at Emergent Spring Sunday.

J. Johnson, of Hood River, is visiting his friend, Robt. McNamee at Clover.
HELP HIM TO BE GOOD
By Alice Judson Ivale
The whole secret of giving a child a good bringing up is to make it easy for him to be good.

Plan your routine carefully and stick to it so that your child knows what to expect and never looks for anything else.

Say "no" as seldom as possible, but when you say it, mean it. Give him adequate play materials, intelligently chosen and see that he has time and freedom to use them.

Encourage him to play with other children. Welcome them into your back yard and into your home. Let them play naturally and noisily.

Don't make him jealous. Never compare him with a brother or sister.

Be fair about rewards, treats and presents, partly because they don't love to be teased or humiliated.

Don't expect him to tell on himself. Never accuse him of anything until you are absolutely certain of your facts.

Don't expect him to be perfect. Don't expect him to learn too quickly or to remember too long all the things you do expect of him.

Don't punish either through disapproval or penalty more severely than is necessary. Let punishment follow quickly upon the misdeed.

Have it over with and forgotten as soon as possible so that the child feels fully restored in your love and approval.

Recognize his efforts to do as he is told, with liberal praise and approval, ignore his mistakes and shortcomings as far as possible.

Don't judge his behavior by adult standards. Remember that nearly all children lie partly out of genuine confusion, partly because they don't dare to tell the truth.

A child's lie and a child's theft are not an indication of moral depravity, but of immaturity and improper guidance.

Be fair about rewards, treats and presents, partly because they don't love to be teased or humiliated.

Don't expect him to tell on himself. Never accuse him of anything until you are absolutely certain of your facts.

Don't expect him to be perfect. Don't expect him to learn too quickly or to remember too long all the things you do expect of him.

Don't punish either through disapproval or penalty more severely than is necessary. Let punishment follow quickly upon the misdeed.

Have it over with and forgotten as soon as possible so that the child feels fully restored in your love and approval.

Recognize his efforts to do as he is told, with liberal praise and approval, ignore his mistakes and shortcomings as far as possible.

Don't judge his behavior by adult standards. Remember that nearly all children lie partly out of genuine confusion, partly because they don't dare to tell the truth.

A child's lie and a child's theft are not an indication of moral depravity, but of immaturity and improper guidance.

Be fair about rewards, treats and presents, partly because they don't love to be teased or humiliated.

Don't expect him to tell on himself. Never accuse him of anything until you are absolutely certain of your facts.

Don't expect him to be perfect. Don't expect him to learn too quickly or to remember too long all the things you do expect of him.

Don't punish either through disapproval or penalty more severely than is necessary. Let punishment follow quickly upon the misdeed.

Have it over with and forgotten as soon as possible so that the child feels fully restored in your love and approval.

Recognize his efforts to do as he is told, with liberal praise and approval, ignore his mistakes and shortcomings as far as possible.

Don't judge his behavior by adult standards. Remember that nearly all children lie partly out of genuine confusion, partly because they don't dare to tell the truth.

A child's lie and a child's theft are not an indication of moral depravity, but of immaturity and improper guidance.

Be fair about rewards, treats and presents, partly because they don't love to be teased or humiliated.

Don't expect him to tell on himself. Never accuse him of anything until you are absolutely certain of your facts.

Don't expect him to be perfect. Don't expect him to learn too quickly or to remember too long all the things you do expect of him.

Don't punish either through disapproval or penalty more severely than is necessary. Let punishment follow quickly upon the misdeed.

Have it over with and forgotten as soon as possible so that the child feels fully restored in your love and approval.

Recognize his efforts to do as he is told, with liberal praise and approval, ignore his mistakes and shortcomings as far as possible.

Don't judge his behavior by adult standards. Remember that nearly all children lie partly out of genuine confusion, partly because they don't dare to tell the truth.

A child's lie and a child's theft are not an indication of moral depravity, but of immaturity and improper guidance.

Be fair about rewards, treats and presents, partly because they don't love to be teased or humiliated.

Don't expect him to tell on himself. Never accuse him of anything until you are absolutely certain of your facts.

Don't expect him to be perfect. Don't expect him to learn too quickly or to remember too long all the things you do expect of him.

Don't punish either through disapproval or penalty more severely than is necessary. Let punishment follow quickly upon the misdeed.

Have it over with and forgotten as soon as possible so that the child feels fully restored in your love and approval.

all children lie partly out of genuine confusion, partly because they don't dare to tell the truth.

A child's lie and a child's theft are not an indication of moral depravity, but of immaturity and improper guidance.

Be fair about rewards, treats and presents, partly because they don't love to be teased or humiliated.

Don't expect him to tell on himself. Never accuse him of anything until you are absolutely certain of your facts.

Don't expect him to be perfect. Don't expect him to learn too quickly or to remember too long all the things you do expect of him.

Don't punish either through disapproval or penalty more severely than is necessary. Let punishment follow quickly upon the misdeed.

Have it over with and forgotten as soon as possible so that the child feels fully restored in your love and approval.

Recognize his efforts to do as he is told, with liberal praise and approval, ignore his mistakes and shortcomings as far as possible.

Don't judge his behavior by adult standards. Remember that nearly all children lie partly out of genuine confusion, partly because they don't dare to tell the truth.

A child's lie and a child's theft are not an indication of moral depravity, but of immaturity and improper guidance.

Be fair about rewards, treats and presents, partly because they don't love to be teased or humiliated.

Don't expect him to tell on himself. Never accuse him of anything until you are absolutely certain of your facts.

Don't expect him to be perfect. Don't expect him to learn too quickly or to remember too long all the things you do expect of him.

Don't punish either through disapproval or penalty more severely than is necessary. Let punishment follow quickly upon the misdeed.

Have it over with and forgotten as soon as possible so that the child feels fully restored in your love and approval.

Recognize his efforts to do as he is told, with liberal praise and approval, ignore his mistakes and shortcomings as far as possible.

Don't judge his behavior by adult standards. Remember that nearly all children lie partly out of genuine confusion, partly because they don't dare to tell the truth.

A child's lie and a child's theft are not an indication of moral depravity, but of immaturity and improper guidance.

Be fair about rewards, treats and presents, partly because they don't love to be teased or humiliated.

Don't expect him to tell on himself. Never accuse him of anything until you are absolutely certain of your facts.

Don't expect him to be perfect. Don't expect him to learn too quickly or to remember too long all the things you do expect of him.

SUGAR AND FLOUR
PORTLAND, June 18 (AP) — Sugar — Cane, granulated $4.20 100 lbs. net $3.95.

Domestic flour — Selling price, delivered: patent 40s $5.50; 50s $5.30; bakers' bluestem $4.10; soft wheat pastry patent $3.40; Montana hard wheat patent $5.20; rye $4.50; $4.60.

PORTLAND PRODUCE
PORTLAND, June 18 (AP) — Butter, butterfat, eggs, live poultry and country meats unchanged.

MOHAIK, nuts, cascara bark, hops, onions, potatoes, new and seed potatoes, strawberries, wool and hay, quotations unchanged.

ENTRIES CLOSE JUNE 20
LONG BEACH, Cal., June 18 (AP) — All entries for the semi-final Olympic team track and field tryouts here July 1 and 2 will close June 20.

George Craig II, general chairman of the meet, announced today. Many entries already have been received including some of the best athletes of the Northwest.

which are Paul Jessup, applicant for the world's discus record, and Eddie Genuing, half miler at Washington University.

Eddie Moore, outfielder recently released by Fort Worth, held the Texas league record for consecutive game played with 374.

Be fair about rewards, treats and presents, partly because they don't love to be teased or humiliated.

Don't expect him to tell on himself. Never accuse him of anything until you are absolutely certain of your facts.

Don't expect him to be perfect. Don't expect him to learn too quickly or to remember too long all the things you do expect of him.

Don't punish either through disapproval or penalty more severely than is necessary. Let punishment follow quickly upon the misdeed.

Have it over with and forgotten as soon as possible so that the child feels fully restored in your love and approval.

Recognize his efforts to do as he is told, with liberal praise and approval, ignore his mistakes and shortcomings as far as possible.

Don't judge his behavior by adult standards. Remember that nearly all children lie partly out of genuine confusion, partly because they don't dare to tell the truth.

A child's lie and a child's theft are not an indication of moral depravity, but of immaturity and improper guidance.

Be fair about rewards, treats and presents, partly because they don't love to be teased or humiliated.

Don't expect him to tell on himself. Never accuse him of anything until you are absolutely certain of your facts.

Don't expect him to be perfect. Don't expect him to learn too quickly or to remember too long all the things you do expect of him.

Don't punish either through disapproval or penalty more severely than is necessary. Let punishment follow quickly upon the misdeed.

Have it over with and forgotten as soon as possible so that the child feels fully restored in your love and approval.

CLASSIFIED ADS
THE MARKET PLACE OF UNION & WALLOWA COUNTIES
(Rates per month, per line, etc.)

WANTED
MIGHT PURCHASE — First mtg. on valley farm bearing 7% int. Aug. 1. Submit details. Bert Oakman, 2111 David Stott Bldg., Detroit, Mich. 6-13-1 m.

FOR SALE
1927 Oakland coupe, $95. Terms or trade. Fruitstand, 2124 Adams. 6-18-1 t.

FOR SALE — 12 fine dairy cows, 2 heifer calves, 1 bull, 1 horse and saddle, milk truck, trailer, wagon, retail dairy equipment, place for rent. Call 418 R or Observer. 6-18-1 t.

FOR SALE — 39 Whippet sedan in good condition, run only 14,000 miles. Trunk in rear. Cheap. Would consider trading for late model light coupe. Call 2212 Cedar St. 6-18-6 t.

I WILL SELL my Fisher piano cheap. Terms if desired. Mrs. D. B. Mosby, Ph. 285 W. 6-18-3 t.

ALPALFA — $6 ton. Ph. 505 M. 6-18-3 t.

FOR SALE OR TRADE — 5 A. with improvements. Farmers 3X2. 6-17-1 f.

COCKER SPANIEL PUPPY — Beautiful black female. Fine hunting strain. Best for children's or watch dog. 1705 Washington Ave. 6-17-2 tp.

FOR SALE — Good used furniture cheap. 1403 V Ave. 6-17-1 f.

PIANO FOR $45.00. $3.00 per month, others at half price. This week only, shipping outside. Call away Monday. Call T. K. Bellamy, Farmers 295. 6-17-2 tp.

FOR SALE — Model A truck, 1 1/2 ton, will trade for late model sedan. August Zaugg, R. F. D. No. 1. 6-16-3 tp.

FOR SALE — Light duty wagon. J. N. Klein, 1303-10th St. 6-16-3 tp.

FOR SALE — Jersey cow, feeder and weaner pig, 490 M. 6-16-3 t.

FOR SALE OR RENT — 5-rm. mod. house at 1106 H Ave. $15 mo. Ph. 407 J or 322 W. 6-14-1 f.

COLD ROY! BEER, ice cream and sandwiches at Joe's Joint down by the auto camp. 6-13-1 m.

OUR HOME FOR SALE. Cheap, 318-J or 1601 6th St. 6-10-1 f.

FOR SALE — Fordson tractor, A-1 condition; 2 pianos, or will trade, what have you? Frank Cleavinger, 211 Depot St. 6-3-1 f.

GOOD WOOD, CHEAP. Will trade for some furniture. Ph. 892 U or Call at 2906 N. Spruce St. 6-1-4 t.

JUST RECEIVED lovely "Fashion Froek" models. Lowest prices. Ph. 892 U or call at 2906 N Spruce St. 6-1-4 t.

GOOD WOOD, any kind, any length. Price reasonable. Ph. 900 W, Lee Stark. 6-25-1 f.

MISCELLANEOUS
PORTLAND CAFE — Meals at All Hours. 235 1/2 35c. Coffee and dessert included. 219 Depot St. 6-16-1 m.

DOWELL BROS. CLEAN-UP — We will clean up your ashes, papers, etc. Phone 323-J. 6-8-1 f.

EASTERN OREGON School of Music, violin, piano, voice. Credits. I. O. O. F. temple. 447-J. 6-6-1 m.

LA GRANDE MATTRESS and Upholstering and Rug Cleaning Works. Ph. 424-W. Chas. Edwards Prop. 12-1-1 m.

AUTOMOBILES
CHEVROLET 4-DOOR SEDAN — New tires, local condition. $100. PERKINS MOTOR CO. 4th & Adams 6-17-5 t.

Cleveland has two fighters, Johnny Furr and Phil Zwick, whose hobby is the collection of ancient firearms.

Professional Directory
Hospitals
DR. LEE H. BOUVY
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, 4th Floor Foley Bldg. — Ph. Main 16.

You Can't Marry

By Julia Cleft-Adams

SYNOPSIS: Gratton Matching suggests that Jennie Revell is not married to Edie Townsend, but that he really is George's brother. Jennie's sister, Edie, is Edie's supposed wife. Never compare him with a brother or sister.

Chapter 34 THE STORY OF A BRIDE

"Oh, are they for me?" said Jenny. Gratton Matching nodded.

"All of them? All these heavenly flowers?" "Every one. Here, pick 'em up. The fools sent me red roses at first, but I sent 'em back. White roses for little Miss Jenny, eh? Pity there aren't blue roses, to match your gown. Blue and white, you're all blue and white today. And last night you were all silver."

Jennie sat again beside the huge bed, but now it was afternoon and she could see her strange old friend more clearly.

"I told you I'd have something you like waiting for you next time you came," he rasped, with an almost childish satisfaction in the armful of flowers he had given her.

"And I was right, wasn't I? No chocolates and laces and fans for you, little Miss Jenny? Flowers every time. And I knew you'd come too, I knew you'd come too."

Claire Childers has moved his family to Wallowa Lake where he will work during the summer for Hammack and Queensberry.

Robert Hulce, of Port Angeles, Wash., is here visiting his uncle Ober Ward.

Marvin Wiggins is visiting his brother, L. E. Wiggins at Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Houser have moved their household goods to his mother's place and they will work on a farm near Imbler.

Mrs. Mottet and Kyle Hovis have gone to Idaho to look for work.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Victor are now living in tents on their place on Smith Mt. Their home was burned during the winter and they have been living elsewhere.

Mrs. Roy Hale and children, who have been visiting here, have returned to their home at Pilot Rock.

Paul Crow, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Crow, arrived from Livermore, Cal., where he has been attending school the past year and will spend his vacation here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dodge and Calvin Plants have returned from a two weeks stay in Salem. They plan to stay here as they did not find a suitable location.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ferrell, of Portland, former residents here, came last week to visit her mother, Mrs. Winifred.

Miss Lullbell Reed has returned to Walla Walla following a weekend visit with her parents. She was accompanied by Mrs. Chick Whitman, of Enterprise, who attends the same school.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bickle have moved into the house recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heaing.

Mrs. George Tilton entertained the Bridge club Monday with three tables at play. Arrangements were made for next year's activities.

Daily Cross-Word Puzzle

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle
ACROSS
1. Flower
6. Fried lightly and quickly
11. Written order directing a bank to pay money
13. Coddle
14. Eye Scotch
15. Not content
17. Article
18. Boiling violently
20. Small quarrel
21. To down
22. Holds back
23. Zeal
24. Bird fruit
25. Behold
26. Denied
27. Note of the scale
35. Kind of tree
37. Blushed
38. Article of apparel
39. Far below the surface
41. Not oil
42. A mistake
43. River island
44. Linnæus
45. Vegetarian
46. Invariant
47. Hindu hymns
48. Type squares
49. Vehicles for snow travel
50. Catch sight of
51. Down
52. High card
53. Pronoun
54. Sventon for tellurian
55. Imaginary line equidistant from the poles
56. Dwarf
57. Persian garment
58. Improved
59. Supper
60. Sea eagle
61. Takes nourishment
62. Tendon
63. Tidy
64. Poor
65. School of whales
66. Dinner course
67. Nonmetrical language
68. Grinding tooth
69. Breeds suddenly
70. Ribbed fabric
71. Juiced
72. Window
73. Mexican rubber tree
74. Stitch
75. Suit of cards
76. Tops of waves
77. Dessert
78. Vale
79. Mole cats
80. Faint
81. Exist
82. Eccentric rotating piece
83. Crony
84. Hasten
85. Conjunction
86. Strike cently
87. Artful

10x10 grid for crossword puzzle with numbers 1-87 indicating starting positions.

The TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN PICTURES BY JOE KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

THE trainer of the seals was glad to see the fun the Tinies had. He finally joined the little group and said, "I'll help you, boys." "One seal is quite a friendly pet and out of him I always get a lot of laughs from people. He can make a real strange noise."

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS Stumped!

HILGARD PERSONALS

By Wilmerth Weimer (Observer Correspondent)
HILGARD (Special) — Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Hemphill are the proud parents of a five-pound baby girl, Emma LaVelle, born Monday at the Grande Ronde hospital.