Hollywood Wins Two Games And Regains Position

Portlanders Win Three Games to Go Into Place Held For Short Time By San Francisco.

By the Associated Press
The Hollywood baseball team was back home today, still at the top of the Coast league standings by two and one-half games after beating the San Francisco Seals twice yesterday. Portland won three games from Seattle over the weekend to go into second place, pushing the Seals back to last.

Decisive Wins
The Stars beat off the challenge of the Seals by winning the Sunday contest 9 to 1 and 8 to 4, after dropping five straight games in San Francisco. The Seals got only six hits off Vance Page, who turned the morning game. Frank Stevenson's lucky hit, however, stopped the Seals cold until the sixth inning of the afternoon game, when they closed over three runs.

Cleo Carlyle, Hollywood center fielder, led the Stars' attack with a homer, a three runner and a double, betting in three runs and scoring twice. Tomorrow's game will be the second and last of the series. The third time a ball has been driven over the right field fence of the Seals' stadium in a game.

Seattle Game Hard
After beating Seattle hard 7 to 4 in the opening game, Portland had to stage a big tenth inning rally to take the second, 6 to 2. Kallio, Seattle pitcher, held the Beavers in check, and they started the ninth inning trailing 3 to 1. After two runs in the tenth, Kallio, left fielder, stole home to tie the count, 2-1. The Beavers' tenth inning splurge betted four runs, including a homer by Bengt.

Los Angeles won both games of a double header from the Missions by ninth-inning rallies, 7 to 6 and 3 to 2. The visitors' first game to the Angels' first game to two. In the first game, Fred Haney doubled in the sixth to send Mike Kowchik across with the winning run. In the seventh and final inning of the nightcap, Homer Sumal tripled to send in two runs for the victory.

Oakland Game Tied

Sacramento won a tight 2 to 1 game from Oakland in ten innings, only to lose the seven-inning tiegame 2 to 1. The visitors' first game to the four games to three. In the first game, De Shazo gave the Oaks only three hits, while the Senators got four off Thomas.

Finland Breaks Record Made By Nurmi

NEW YORK, June 20 (AP)—American Olympic officials here completed another weekend of record-breaking track and field activity here from Washington, Finland comes a smashing victor.

The world from there was that Paavo Nurmi's world records for 1000 meters and three miles had been broken by the new Finnish sensation, 23-year-old Lauri Lehtinen, in the Finnish Olympic trials. Lehtinen ran the 1000 meters in 14 minutes, 14 seconds and the three miles in 13:50.8, smashing Nurmi's records of 14:28.2 and 14:11.2 respectively. For the shorter mile-and-a-half distance, Lehtinen's time also bettered Nurmi's indoor mark of 11:54.1 which had stood as the fastest three miles ever run.

To gauge accurately the speed of the Finnish flash, it can be pointed out that Paul Baker's winning time in capturing the 1000 meters in the Eastern Olympic trials at Cambridge Friday was nearly a minute slower than Lehtinen's. Baker was clocked in 15:12.8.

But if the youthful Finn's performance was a little discouraging to American hopes of winning the longer distance titles at the Olympics, weekend performances in other events were doubtfully cheering.

National League Clubs Now Run Close Together

By Herbert W. Barker
The Boston Braves, just off the National League field, are the only club that might be left out in the cold would be the first-place Chicago Cubs and the last-place Cincinnati Reds.

Cold figures would put it this way: The Boston Braves, in second place, led Philadelphia's Phillies by one game, with the Phillies, Brooklyn Dodgers, St. Louis Cardinals and New York Giants in a virtual tie for fourth place, two games behind the Braves.

The Cubs, still yesterday, nevertheless gained ground, their lead going to two and a half games when the Braves succumbed to St. Louis Johnson and the Reds. Ed Connor, Miles, pitcher of catcher Bob Adly presented him with a check for $5000 and Bob responded with a home run in the fourth inning. Two more Red Talles came across on George Grandfield's drive into the bleachers in the sixth. Johnson gave the Braves five hits.

Similar to Paul Wagner and Pe Traynor in the eighth drove in two runs and gave the Braves a 2-1 decision over Brooklyn with Benjie Melusie chalking up a pitching victory over Williams Watson Clark. The Cardinals, who Jim Bottomley back at first base, outscored the Oaks, 7-3, behind the Cardinals' two-run winning strike. Bottomley drove in four runs with two home runs and a single.

The New York Yankees stretched their American League lead to seven and a half games as John Allen blanked the Chicago White Sox on three singles, 1-0. Bob Chapman's single drove in the only run of the game in the final inning.

The Philadelphia Athletics split even with the St. Louis Braves, winning with the St. Louis Braves, winning a second game 4-1, after losing the opener 3-1 in 10 innings. Leroy Maloney's smut of a batted ball gave the Braves the deciding run in the last game. Harry Fort covered his hits home in the final.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 20 (AP)—Frank M. Troeh, of Portland, was proclaimed champion of the four-day northern divisional shoot of the Pacific International trapshooting association yesterday.

The Portland veteran won the 15-day event, scoring a perfect 100, added to his 99 in the first half preliminary to a total of 199 out of a possible 200. Troeh was also high over all for the tournament.

Archie Parent, Portland, won the handicap with a score of 98.

In the special 15-day event C. W. Wood, Prospect, Ore., was first; P. O. Sanford, Portland, second; and William M. Gaudner, Portland, tied for third.

Max Schmeling And Sharkey Are Ready For Gong

NEW YORK, June 20 (AP)—The training grid is over for Max Schmeling and Jack Sharkey. They're polished up their weapons, and built up strength, stamina and speed through six weeks of intensive work. Now they're ready for their 15-round battle for the heavyweight championship in Madison Square Garden's new outdoor arena on Long Island tomorrow night.

Most experts expect the fight to go the limit. The betting remained extremely light today with Champion Max still favored at 4 to 1.

Schmeling wound up his training at Kingston, N. Y., with a five round workout against three sparring partners yesterday and left a crowd of 1000 fully convinced that he is in top form for his title defense.

At Orangeburg, N. Y., another expert crowd saw Sharkey box four easy rounds before breaking camp and heading for New York. The challenger weighed 200 pounds after the work and probably will tip the beam at that ponderous heaviest of his career at official weigh-in tomorrow afternoon.

Schmeling has been down as low as 180 pounds recently, but probably will swing 190 or more for the fight. Advance calculations point to one of the best heavyweight duels in recent years.

At the Japan amateur athletic association's farewell dinner to the Olympic athletes tonight, Ambassador Grew expressed the hope that "the contacts now will make in Los Angeles will serve as a powerful factor in helping our two nations to increasingly understand each other."

Ernie Fliegel Has Ring Aspirations Despite Blindness

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Ernie Fliegel once a tiger among the heaviestweights, once made his start off the coast he dreams to beat

Fliegel was moving steadily upward toward big prominence when his career was cut short by a punch which blinded him for six months. During those dark days, little hope was held that his sight once more would be restored. His old manager, Freddie Lonsd, found one method to rally his friend. He would begin the count.

One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen, twenty, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-three, twenty-four, twenty-five, twenty-six, twenty-seven, twenty-eight, twenty-nine, thirty, thirty-one, thirty-two, thirty-three, thirty-four, thirty-five, thirty-six, thirty-seven, thirty-eight, thirty-nine, forty, forty-one, forty-two, forty-three, forty-four, forty-five, forty-six, forty-seven, forty-eight, forty-nine, fifty, fifty-one, fifty-two, fifty-three, fifty-four, fifty-five, fifty-six, fifty-seven, fifty-eight, fifty-nine, sixty, sixty-one, sixty-two, sixty-three, sixty-four, sixty-five, sixty-six, sixty-seven, sixty-eight, sixty-nine, seventy, seventy-one, seventy-two, seventy-three, seventy-four, seventy-five, seventy-six, seventy-seven, seventy-eight, seventy-nine, eighty, eighty-one, eighty-two, eighty-three, eighty-four, eighty-five, eighty-six, eighty-seven, eighty-eight, eighty-nine, ninety, ninety-one, ninety-two, ninety-three, ninety-four, ninety-five, ninety-six, ninety-seven, ninety-eight, ninety-nine, one hundred.

Fliegel's ring spirit would respond and he would rally to repair the hope and patience which finally returned him his vision. But it was not of normal strength and Fliegel turned to managing fighters for the livelihood, bringing King Tut, among others, along to prominence.

A year ago his sight failed again. He was off to physicians at Rochester, Minn., and at Chicago and again he listened to that count through long months in a hospital bed. One eye remained sightless but the other has improved and Fliegel, his spirit reawakened, is getting back into shape for further managerial activity.

This Game of Golf

Speaking of the national open—were we?—my idea in a very general way is not a long knocker is going to win at Fresh Meadow Country club.

If true, this leaves in the running Gene Sarazen, certainly, whom I especially favor in the blue ribbon tournament; and Harry Cooper, and Leo the Dog; and Sir Walter Hagen. And plenty of others.

The idea is, I know, that Fresh Meadow is a "second shot" course, somewhat opposed to Inverness of 1931, and Olympia Fields, of 1928, where, if you did not place that drive with a very decent accuracy, your second shot was less a matter of stopping on the green than of getting back within striking distance of the same.

I should not say that Fresh Meadow is the same type of second-shot course as Winged Foot, which carries the same terminology though the flushing layout and that at Manassas are about as similar as any brace of championship tests offered in the last score of years.

Here, however, is the idea that suggests the long-knocker as an automatic favorite, other points being at all near equal.

COURSE PLENTY LONG
The Fresh Meadow course is 6770 yards around, which is a lot of golf course, especially when you reflect that the one-shot holes are not particularly long, and that there are only two three-shotters. These latter are the fifth hole, 581 yards, and the sixteenth, 584, neither of which is at all likely to succumb to the second stroke of the longest wall-poppers. Wherefore, the big hitters will have no special advantage on the two par 5 holes.

The par 3 holes are of 135, 150, 160 and 170 yards—very neatly gauged for the mashie-niblick, the spade or maulie, the light iron, and the big iron or spoon.

And eleven of the remaining holes are of 405 yards, or better—the tough two-shot type where you need at the same time a big drive well placed and plenty of second shot.

A simple calculation reveals the correlative fact that this leaves only three holes of the drive-and-kick type so popular with competitors who have a straight, moderate tee-shot and a deadly pitch. These players, it is safe to say, will not get far on this course in the open championship on such qualifications alone.

Far is a vicious 35-35-70 for a course measuring 3375-3325-6770 yards.

COULDN'T EQUAL PAR
In one of the best remembered competitions at Fresh Meadow by two players who know and like the course—Sarazen and Tommy Armour—the latter won the P. G. A. title two years ago by a single hole. Tommy did a 71 in the morning round and Gene a 72. Each scored a 73 in the afternoon. Both were playing excellent golf.

If this indicates anything, it is that par of the Fresh Meadow course, 350, is not figured within ten strokes of being fractured by the 1932 winner, and that the score of Billy Burke and George Von Elm on the much shorter layout at Inverness, 292, should be somewhere around the winning mark at Flushing, while Billy will have to stretch his drives a bit, and Von Elm adjust his irons, if either is to come close to repeating.

It is reasonably certain that no drive-and-pitch artist is going to win this year.
