MAX' MANAGER EJECTED FROM BOXING JOBS

NEW YORK, June 24 (AP)—Joe Jacobs, manager of the former world heavyweight champion, Max Baer, was indefinitely suspended today by the New York state athletic commission both as a manager and second to boxers for a happy double. The commission announced the action after a hearing on the charges that Jacobs had arranged for Baer to fight a second round with a third place winner with a total of 140.

NEW YORK, June 24 (AP)—Thomas Phillips Perkins, former British amateur champion, recently turned professional, shot a sub par 69 today in the second round of the United States open golf championship, and led him in third place with a total of 140.

PHILADELPHIA, June 24 (AP)—Leo Diegel, of Agua Caliente, who held second place, four strokes behind Olin Dutra yesterday with a 73 shot a 74 today for a 147. He slipped behind Perkins on the income after holding a two stroke advantage over the former British champion at the turn.

The pair of kings, Gene Sarazen and Bill Burke, both failed to improve and slipped a little further out of the picture. The British open champion, Sarazen, used up 78 strokes for a total of 225.

COOLIDGE'S 'BEST SECRETARY' RETURNS FROM LAW PRACTICE TO GUIDE HOOVER'S CAMPAIGN

By Alexander R. George WASHINGTON (AP)—Directing the Republican forces in the big battle of 1932 will be the log-cabin born Hoover who for four years was President Coolidge's "shock-absorber."

As chairman of the Republican national committee, Everett Sanders, of Indiana, comes back into the center of the political spotlight after four years of relative obscurity. He had predicted that he was headed for high place in his party.

When Sanders, as secretary to President Coolidge from 1925 to 1928, was doing his "shock-absorbing" work for the chief executive, observers said he was destined to be an important figure in politics for years to come.

So well did he perform his job as a buffer between the president, the politicians and the public, that Mr. Coolidge himself said he was the best secretary a president ever had.

When the president "chose not to run again" and the Hoover regime came in, Sanders returned to law practice. His selection now to head the party in the coming campaign is described as a strategic alliance of the Hoover and Coolidge political forces.

Same Old Problems, From Tariff To Taxes, Will Confront Voters

By Byron Price (Chief of Bureau, Associated Press, Washington) Events of mammoth import have rocked the nation since the party's rickety session of 1912 in Chicago. One might suppose that so stirring a double decade would have wiped the slate clean of the old problems and the old animosities. The fact is quite to the contrary.

It is true that new problems, like prohibition, have arisen to trouble the present platform-makers, and promote new troubles. They may obscure the troubles of previous years, but no one who reads between the lines of what is happening in Chicago just now can doubt that those troubles remain an essential part of the convention problem.

OLD QUESTIONS UNSOLVED—The issues on which the party split 20 years ago were economic issues—party has been reunited in a physical sense, having learned a bitter lesson; but not one of the questions on which it divided in 1912 has been solved to the mutual satisfaction of old guard and insurgents.

PRECIOUS RELICS FOUND—ALEXANDRIA, Egypt (AP)—Three gold axes and several saws with gold blades were among Phoenician relics found by excavators of a temple site at Jehl in Syria. The antiquities date back 3000 years.

'NEW WOMEN' RECOGNIZED—ISTANBUL (AP)—New "first women" items in the Turkey of Mustafa Kemal: at the Black Sea port of Trebizond a woman has been appointed customs inspector; in Istanbul the first woman truck driver has been licensed.

HALF CASTES INCREASE—SYDNEY (AP)—The dominion bureau of statistics says that although the aborigine population of Australia has been stationary for 10 years at 60,000, intermarriage has increased the number of half castes from 12,630 to 19,014.

SAME ECONOMIC PROBLEMS—Of course the nominal party alignments are not at all like those of 20 years ago. Old Guard and insurgents are not so clearly defined as they were in 1912; the same old domestic economic problems are pressing for solution, and there is a definite line of disagreement as to how they should be solved.

PILES GO QUICK

Without Salves or Cutting Thousands of sufferers from itching, bleeding or protruding piles have learned that quick and permanent relief can only be accomplished with an internal medicine. Neither salves nor cutting remove the cause.

Bad circulation of the blood in the lower bowel causes piles. The veins are flabby, the bowel walls weak, the parts almost dead. To end Piles an internal medicine must be used to stimulate the circulation, heal and restore the affected parts.

Dr. J. S. Leonard was the first to discover a real internal Pile remedy. He called his prescription HEM-ROID, and prescribed it for 1000 patients with the marvelous record of success in 999 cases, and then decided every Pile sufferer should be able to get HEM-ROID tablets from their own druggist with a rigid money back guarantee.

Dr. Leonard's prescription has a wonderful record of success right in this city and Red Cross Drug Store invites every Pile sufferer to try a bottle of HEM-ROID and guarantees to refund the purchase price if they do not end Piles in any form.

After an unprecedented midnight inauguration, Mayor John F. Dore of Seattle, Wash. (above), former police reporter, launched a wholesale clean-up of the police department, warned the underworld that graft and vice must cease, and slashed salaries of all city officials, including his own.

Franco-German Parley Controls Lausanne Meet

LAUSANNE, Switzerland, June 24 (AP)—Important Franco-German negotiations which may have a decisive effect on the reparations question here opened today with a half hour conversation between Chancellor von Papen of Germany and Premier Herriot of France.

Their chief problem is to discover how far each can go by way of compromise on the various economic proposals which each side has advanced.

During this session Count Schwerin von Krosigk, the German minister of finance, submitted a detailed explanation of the bad state of the German finances. It was learned that the fundamentals at issue were not approached, however, and that the Franco-German discussions will continue.

The Belgian delegation outlined this morning a plan which was submitted to the Germans yesterday. This would set up a great German public utility trust administered by the Bank for International Settlements as trustee and also envisage an international credit institution to aid the Danubian countries.

The morning brought no developments in connection with the starting proposal for a happy double. It was made privately and thus far has not received the formal consideration which would put it officially in the record. The German chancellor materialized in the morning of ending one of the most important meetings of the French plea for security, if the Paris and Locarno pacts and the Rhineland guarantee are not sufficient.

Hague Statement Puzzles

Hague, convention floor manager of Smith and vice chairman of the Democratic national committee, declared in his statement last night Roosevelt "has no chance of winning" if nominated by the convention, predicted he would not carry a single state east of the Mississippi and asserted before the convention where names of several men who were better fitted for the nomination than Roosevelt.

The Roosevelt camp greeted the declaration without any outward show of concern. Its only answer was this statement of James A. Farley, manager of the New York governor's campaign:

"Governor Roosevelt's friends here do not come to Chicago to cry down, or to defend any Democrat from any part of the Union. This I believe is sufficient answer to Mayor Hague's statement."

But elsewhere there was a flood of speculation as to whether Hague would imply Smith would readily retire in favor of some candidate should Roosevelt do likewise. The decision of the friends of Roosevelt to declare war on the two-thirds rule.

Smith Defeat Hurts—It is generally known some party leaders would look askance at Smith's renomination by the convention in view of his defeat by President Hoover in the 1928 campaign.

Smith himself conferred with Hague while the latter was drafting the statement and this added fuel to the fire of speculation. As candidates "better fitted" in addition to Smith, Hague named Governor Ritchie of Maryland, Melvin A. Traylor of Chicago, Speaker John N. Garner, New York D. Baker, Governor White of Ohio, Governor Murray of Oklahoma, former Senator Reed of Missouri, former Governor Byrd of Virginia and
