

Angels Drub Beavers -- Stars Swaney Senators

HOLLYWOOD AND PORTLAND AGAIN TIED FOR FIRST

Seattle Noses Out Frisco 2 to 1 and Missions Win Fifth Straight By Downning Oakland 5-2.

Portland's Beavers and Hollywood's Stars in a see-saw struggle for first place in the Pacific Coast league, were tied again at the top in the percentage column today.

The Beavers slipped from a one-game margin they held yesterday as a result of a defeat by Los Angeles last night while the Stars were trimming Sacramento.

Portland received a 14 to 5 drubbing from the Angels at Portland as the southerners went on a hitting spree to drive Bill Shores from the box and then show his relief hurler, Peterson, a rough time. The Angels piled up nine runs in one inning, the fourth. Batteries: Los Angeles, Balfou and Campbell; Portland, Shores, Peterson, Prud'homme and Fitzgerald, Lipanovic.

Stars Win

In Los Angeles, the Stars staged a "big inning" drive also against Sacramento and ended up on the long end of a 17 to 4 score. Of their total, the Stars scored ten in the fifth frame. Frank Shellenback, Hollywood, Shellenback and Buesler, Mayer, Cook, Seattle, behind the four-hit pitching of Hal Hald, defeated the Beavers from San Francisco two to one as Curt Davis, on the mound for the Beavers, engaged him in a pitching duel. George Burns, Seattle first baseman, knocked in the winning run with a timely single in the eighth. Batteries: San Francisco, Davis and Wallgren; Seattle, Hald and Cook.

Playing in their home town, the San Francisco Missions turned in their fifth straight victory by defeating Oakland 5 to 2. The Missions, with four runs in the fourth, put the game away. Batteries: Oakland, Laidolph and Smith; Missions, T. Pilleto and Rice.

Pirates Make It Seven Straight And Hold Lead

By Gayle Talbot
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Today was the fifth straight for the Pittsburgh Pirates at the top of the National league race, and that comes close to being a record for sustained leadership of President Heydler's effervescent circuit this summer.

Bill Swift, the rookie right-hander, deserves a special mention for the part he has played in the Pirates' present streak. Of their seven straight victories, the lad from Kansas City has received credit for three as a relief pitcher. He rescued Heinie Meine in the fifth inning of yesterday's game with the Cardinals, yielding only four hits and one run the rest of the way, and his name came from being hit for in the 9th. Pie Traynor cracked four singles for the leaders.

Cubs Blank Reds

The Chicago Cubs held tight in second place by shutting out the pitiless Cincinnati Reds, 5 to 0. While his mates were pounding Red Lucas for 12 hits and 26 bases, Guy Bush managed to keep eight Red blows well scattered. Charlie Grimm had a homer and two doubles.

Defeating Brooklyn, 9 to 3, the Phillies jumped from sixth place in the league standing to fourth, passing both the Dodgers and the Cards. Chuck Klein and Hal Lee each belted two home runs, the 23rd and 24th of the year for Klein.

Bill Terry's 15th homer with one of his operatives on base touched off a six-run rally in the fourth inning, that routed Lefty Brandt and gave the Giants a triumph in their opener with the Boston Braves.

Yanks Whip Boston

The Yankees found Boston easy pickings and increased their lead over the American league to nine and a half games as the second place Detroiters lost. Danny MacFayden, pitching against his old mates for the first time, received great batting support to win, 10-4.

Wes Ferrell was entirely too much for Detroit. The Cleveland ace held the Tigers to eight hits and knocked across three runs to give the Indians a 7 to 4 victory. Webb and Gehring each hit a home run for Detroit. It was Ferrell's 14th win of the year. The St. Louis Browns, while resting in sixth place, climbed well above the 500 mark in games won by defeating Chicago, 7 to 6. The Browns jumped on Vic Prasier for five runs in the first inning, and the White Sox made all of their when they knocked Blalocher loose in the fourth.

Philadelphia and Washington were idle.

HELEN MOODY IS CHAMPION AGAIN

Defeats Helen Jacobs in Wimbledon Finals—Allison, Van Ryn Beaten.

WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 1 (AP)—Mrs. Helen Wills Moody won the Wimbledon tennis championship for the fifth time, defeating Helen Jacobs, fellow Californian, in the final match, 6-3, 6-1.

Mrs. Moody won the Wimbledon title first in 1927 as Helen Wills and repeated the next three years. She did not go abroad last year and the title fell to Cilly Aussem, of Germany, who did not compete this year.

The American champion's victory repeated the result of the last meeting between the two American women. Mrs. Moody winning last summer, she also had the match in hand and the strokes to gain the points when needed. Mostly she contented herself with getting the ball back over the net, letting Miss Jacobs make the errors.

Allison, Van Ryn Beaten

Wilmer Allison and John Van Ryn, Wimbledon doubles champions in 1929 and 1930 and present American Davis Cup pair, were defeated in the semi-finals by the veteran French combination of Jacques Brugnon and Jean Borotra, 6-3, 6-2, 6-4.

Breaking Of Club Means Certain 9

By Johnny Farrell
(As Told to Artie McGovern)

A good golf swing, embodying all the fundamental rules of the game, is essential in keeping scores below 100, but many golfers have excellent golf form but cannot turn in a good score, simply because of their frequent outbursts of temperment.

The golfer who misses his tee shot and tries to break his club in a fit of anger, is surely going to finish the hole with a 9. On the other hand, if he laughs it off, he still has a chance of making par by getting down in one putt.

In a tight situation, Mr. Average Golfer, starts to fret and get angry, working himself up to such a pitch that the chances are he will miss the next shot entirely. As soon as you play a shot, forget it. It's the next one that's important and that will count in your final score.

Remember that golf is a game to give you recreation, outdoor exercise, sunshine and fresh air. When you make a poor shot, assume the attitude that it's all in the game and you will soon find an amazing difference in your score.

This Game of Golf

By O. B. Keeler
I wonder if Miss Enid Wilson, British lady golf champion for the second time in two years, will come over here again and take a whack at our ladies' championship, September 26 through October 7, at the Saleten country club, Peabody, Mass.

Miss Wilson came over last season, after winning the British championship, and Helen Hicks defeated her and Glenna Collett Vare in successive rounds, in winning her own first major title.

British girls don't do so well over here, and our girls don't do so well over there, but it should be said that a lot more of our girls have been making the effort. We have a very good delegation, this year, good enough to win the international team match bandily. But in the tournament at Staunton—well, Mrs. Pressler-Cheney was the last American, and she was out in the semi-final round, to Miss Wilson.

HERE'S THE ANSWER

Miss Wilson in an article published not long ago in an Edinburgh magazine gives her ideas quite frankly concerning American girls' golf, which, as Dr. Wilson's own opinion recently pointed out, appears as much below British women's golf as American men's golf is better than British men's.

Miss Wilson advances some ideas which appear to me to be original. "First of all," she says, "we must realize that women's golf is still in comparative infancy in the U. S. A. This is due to the shortness of the golfing season and the vast distances which have to be covered by players who specialize in competitive golf.

Three Portland Golfers Remain In Semi-Finals

PORTLAND, Ore., July 1 (AP)—With the certainty that an out of state player will win the women's championship and the numerical three-to-one odds against them, the men's championship will go to Oregon player, the semi-finals of the Pacific Northwest Amateur Golf association tournament were reached at the Alderwood course here today.

Eddie Hogan and Johnny Robbins, both of Portland, and H. Chandler Egan, of Medford, are the three Oregonians remaining in the running, while Ohmni Shields, of Seattle, Washington state champion, is the only surviving out of state representative.

Hogan defeated Vincent Delp, Portland, 3 and 2, in yesterday's quarter final; Eddie downed Dr. O. F. Willing, Portland, 5 and 3; Shields beat Joe Brown, Portland, 7 and 6, and Robbins bested George Mend, Portland, 4 and 3.

Shields was scheduled to fight it out with Hogan today while Egan was to meet Robbins.

Mrs. Vera Hutchings, Vancouver, British Columbia, yesterday by defeating Mrs. Guy Beigels, Spokane, Washington state champion 9 and 7, in yesterday's play, won the right to enter the semi-finals today against Mrs. Harry Braddock, San Francisco, who yesterday defeated Mrs. B. E. Eva, Portland, 5 and 4.

The defeat of Allison and Van Ryn, who had never ahead in their match, was a blow to British tennis critics who had labeled the Americans the world's eluding doubles pair.

Before the play Borotra went to the local box and asked for a few minutes with former King Manuel, of Portugal and former King Alfonso, of Spain, and other guests. Then he went down on the court and showed them how tennis was played.

PRETTY BUT SLOW

A rather more interesting and (I fancy) more germane point made by Miss Wilson is the difference in style.

With the notable exceptions of Miss Hicks, Miss Hollins, Miss Orrcutt and Mrs. Vere, says Miss Wilson, "American" women pin their faith to a safe swing, hoping thereby to obtain length by means of timing. Consequently they sacrifice all their power and length to the development of a pretty style which looks nice but makes a minimum of way to be made up in the short game."

Well, my own humble opinion is that it is mainly a difference of playing conditions and surroundings and climate—though denying the 100 degrees. Anyway, Miss Cecil Leitch did not win over here, or Miss Wilson here, and neither ever paid us visit. Miss Dorothy Campbell, later Mrs. Hurd, did best of the British girls in our country.

Sport Slants

By Alan J. Gould
(Associated Press Sports Editor)

The renewal of football rivalry between Cornell and Michigan, after all along a long and welcome sign along the gridiron path.

These two schools have waged many a friendly and frequently a spectacular athletic duel. They have a good deal in common in sports and academic standards.

Their football relations go all the way back to 1889 and into the subsequent many decades, during which Cornell's powerbase in sports and one of the gridiron sport's newcomers rather roughly. The Ithacans ran up around 268 points on the Wolverines in five straight seasons, playing two games in 1902.

The series lapsed from 1895 to 1911, then continued for seven straight years. The late Charley Hart's 1912 40-0 big victory in 1915 and Fritz Shilvers' toe broke a 20-20 tie in a sensational game in their last game to win by 42 to 0 in 1917.

All told, Cornell has won 11 games and Michigan four.

Not since he was a Minnesota quarterback has Gil Dobie, Cornell's football coach, led a team against Michigan. It will revive memories of the original "brown jug" for him when he goes back to Ann Arbor in October, 1932, to renew a few ancient arguments with Professor Fielding H. Yost.
