

LOCAL BRIEFS

In Portland—
Among the La Granders in Portland yesterday were the following: D. C. Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. William N. Shale and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Eben.

Portlets $25—
Burl Conley, who was arrested on Spot street on June 30, forfeited $25 bond by failure to appear for trial last night in municipal court, according to the police.

Car Recovered—
L. C. Morehead's car, which was stolen from his home at 2607 North Ash street at 12:45 a. m., was recovered two hours later on Y avenue and returned to its owner, according to the police records.

Accident—
A car driven by W. H. Pidcock and another machine, whose owner had not reported early this morning, figured in a minor collision at Washington and Hemlock at 8:15 o'clock yesterday. No one was hurt.

Correction—
In an advertisement of the Larison-Frees Chevrolet company appearing in yesterday's Observer the price of a 1929 Chevrolet coupe should have been quoted at $295 and a 1930 Chevrolet coach should have been quoted at $365.

Visiting Sister—
Mrs. Cora Stewart, of Corvallis, is visiting in La Grande with her sister, Mrs. Alfred Cook. She arrived here last night. During the winter months Mrs. Stewart is house mother at the Chi Omega sorority house in Corvallis.

Attend Meeting—
Dr. L. B. Bouvy, accompanied by his wife and daughter, Joan, will be in La Grande today. He is a visitor for the past week. While in Seattle he attended a meeting of the medical profession, after which they took the boat to Victoria, B. C.

To Entertain—
Miss Bernice Wilson will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harve M. Bay at Enterprise and Wallowa Lake for the next few days. She will leave tonight for Enterprise and return Monday evening.

Children Hold Assembly—
The children of the J. H. Ackerman Summer school presented their first assembly, yesterday morning, in the Normal school auditorium. The children of the first grade dramatized a song and read original stories which they had written about their summer school experiences. The second grade program was in two parts. The children read stories which were illustrated by shadow pictures. As an outgrowth of their study of weather conditions they showed and explained instruments for measuring atmospheric pressure, direction and velocity of the wind, rainfall, and direction of the sun, which they had helped to make. The third and fourth grades are studying the sun, moon, stars and planets. They wore their information about the planets into a play. A number of parents and friends of the children enjoyed the assembly with them.

WE CLOSE ALL DAY JULY 4TH
Have your laundry ready early Tuesday morning.

Modern Laundry
PHONE MAIN 77

Come in and Let Us Test Your Battery and F.H. With Water Free of Charge

MCDONALD ELECTRIC CO.
Phone Main 753 1428 Adams

At Henderson Home—
Miss Lena Smith, of Portland, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Henderson for the Fourth of July. Miss Smith is the sister of Dr. Earl Smith, of Portland.

Released From Hospital—
Mrs. W. E. Jellison, of Jerome, Idaho, left the Grande Bonds hospital today, having recovered from an operation. She went to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Allen, where she was a guest when she became ill.

Camping—
Miss Leola Latham and Claude Anson, of La Grande, will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Crabill and their daughter, Jean and Lloyd Irwin, of Weiser, to Pyette Lake for the weekend. They left this afternoon to join the remaining members of the party at Weiser, and were to proceed to the lake later in the evening.

Returns—
Orville Lee, who spent the winter as a student at Oregon State college at Corvallis, has returned to La Grande and will work at the Montgomery Ward Co. store, where he was employed for three years before going to Corvallis. During the past winter he has specialized in radio work and will be active in that part of the store as well as in the other departments.

Truck Burns—
A blaze, reported by back-fire from the exhaust pipe, completely destroyed a truck owned by Frank Clevinger last night on the highway above Five Points. Mr. Clevinger was about to meet another truck and was climbing rather a steep hill when the blaze started. The loss was covered by insurance.

To Corvallis—
Miss Helen Moor, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. H. S. Moor, of Toledo, Ohio, left yesterday afternoon for Corvallis where they will be the guests of her son before the party on the Fourth of July. Miss Moor will return to La Grande at the close of the holiday, while her mother will remain in Corvallis on the ground of her son before going on to spend the summer in California. Miss Moor is dean of women at the Eastern Oregon Normal school. Mrs. Moor has been the guest of her daughter during the past two weeks.

Expected to Return—
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Morelock, accompanied by the sister of the former, Miss Aileen Morelock, are expected to return today and Mr. and Mrs. Morelock will visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Morelock for a few days. Miss Morelock, who is a teacher in the schools here, has been the guest of her brother in St. Helens, Ore., for the past month and is returning to her home. Mr. Morelock works for the state highway department, formerly lived in St. Helens but they are now moving to Long Creek, about 25 miles from John Day, where some new roads are under construction.

Where Luther Preached
The church of St. Nicholas Elsteben, Germany, in which Martin Luther delivered sermons in the sixteenth century, has been renovated and six monumental stained glass windows, each more than twenty feet high, have been placed in the choir. Each of the windows depicts Biblical scenes and important events of the Reformation.

In for Trouble
A feminine expert on heartstrings says a woman can love only one man at a time, but a man can love half a dozen or more women contemporaneously. If that is true, the poor fellow is going to let himself in for more trouble than the proverbial one-armed paperhanger with the hives.—Toledo Blade.

Variable
There is not so variable a thing in Nature as a lady's headress.—Addison.

Visiting Mother—
William T. Neal, who is vice president of Pacific Light and Power company, is in Portland, in a guest at the home of his mother, Mrs. Nellie G. Nell, well-known former teacher. He arrived yesterday and expects to leave soon to spend the Fourth of July in Walla Walla.

KEYNOTER IN ACTION

Here's Senator Allen W. Barkley, of Kentucky, as he looked on the Chicago stadium platform when he sounded the Bourbon keynote address June 27. He continuously lashed at the Republican party in his talk.

Miss Lena Smith, of Portland, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Henderson for the Fourth of July. Miss Smith is the sister of Dr. Earl Smith, of Portland.

Released From Hospital—
Mrs. W. E. Jellison, of Jerome, Idaho, left the Grande Bonds hospital today, having recovered from an operation. She went to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Allen, where she was a guest when she became ill.

Camping—
Miss Leola Latham and Claude Anson, of La Grande, will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Crabill and their daughter, Jean and Lloyd Irwin, of Weiser, to Pyette Lake for the weekend. They left this afternoon to join the remaining members of the party at Weiser, and were to proceed to the lake later in the evening.

Returns—
Orville Lee, who spent the winter as a student at Oregon State college at Corvallis, has returned to La Grande and will work at the Montgomery Ward Co. store, where he was employed for three years before going to Corvallis. During the past winter he has specialized in radio work and will be active in that part of the store as well as in the other departments.

Truck Burns—
A blaze, reported by back-fire from the exhaust pipe, completely destroyed a truck owned by Frank Clevinger last night on the highway above Five Points. Mr. Clevinger was about to meet another truck and was climbing rather a steep hill when the blaze started. The loss was covered by insurance.

To Corvallis—
Miss Helen Moor, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. H. S. Moor, of Toledo, Ohio, left yesterday afternoon for Corvallis where they will be the guests of her son before the party on the Fourth of July. Miss Moor will return to La Grande at the close of the holiday, while her mother will remain in Corvallis on the ground of her son before going on to spend the summer in California. Miss Moor is dean of women at the Eastern Oregon Normal school. Mrs. Moor has been the guest of her daughter during the past two weeks.

Expected to Return—
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Morelock, accompanied by the sister of the former, Miss Aileen Morelock, are expected to return today and Mr. and Mrs. Morelock will visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Morelock for a few days. Miss Morelock, who is a teacher in the schools here, has been the guest of her brother in St. Helens, Ore., for the past month and is returning to her home. Mr. Morelock works for the state highway department, formerly lived in St. Helens but they are now moving to Long Creek, about 25 miles from John Day, where some new roads are under construction.

Where Luther Preached
The church of St. Nicholas Elsteben, Germany, in which Martin Luther delivered sermons in the sixteenth century, has been renovated and six monumental stained glass windows, each more than twenty feet high, have been placed in the choir. Each of the windows depicts Biblical scenes and important events of the Reformation.

In for Trouble
A feminine expert on heartstrings says a woman can love only one man at a time, but a man can love half a dozen or more women contemporaneously. If that is true, the poor fellow is going to let himself in for more trouble than the proverbial one-armed paperhanger with the hives.—Toledo Blade.

Variable
There is not so variable a thing in Nature as a lady's headress.—Addison.

Visiting Mother—
William T. Neal, who is vice president of Pacific Light and Power company, is in Portland, in a guest at the home of his mother, Mrs. Nellie G. Nell, well-known former teacher. He arrived yesterday and expects to leave soon to spend the Fourth of July in Walla Walla.

BIG PARADE IS SCHEDULED FOR MORNING

(Continued From Page One)
"new-fangled" one at the open air pavilion.
A Community Affair
With the American Legion sponsoring the celebration and adding impetus to the events planned for the afternoon, completing the program which all the patriotic and fraternal organizations, many business firms and individuals will take part.

A new feature of the parade will be the bonus expedition force in which all World War veterans will participate, wearing any part or all of their old uniforms. The Western States Grocery company has donated a free package of cigars to every man taking part in this feature, of which Henry Melancon is in charge. All the vets are asked to meet at 10:15 at Hemlock and Washington where they are now moving to Long Creek, about 25 miles from John Day, where some new roads are under construction.

Where Luther Preached
The church of St. Nicholas Elsteben, Germany, in which Martin Luther delivered sermons in the sixteenth century, has been renovated and six monumental stained glass windows, each more than twenty feet high, have been placed in the choir. Each of the windows depicts Biblical scenes and important events of the Reformation.

In for Trouble
A feminine expert on heartstrings says a woman can love only one man at a time, but a man can love half a dozen or more women contemporaneously. If that is true, the poor fellow is going to let himself in for more trouble than the proverbial one-armed paperhanger with the hives.—Toledo Blade.

Variable
There is not so variable a thing in Nature as a lady's headress.—Addison.

Visiting Mother—
William T. Neal, who is vice president of Pacific Light and Power company, is in Portland, in a guest at the home of his mother, Mrs. Nellie G. Nell, well-known former teacher. He arrived yesterday and expects to leave soon to spend the Fourth of July in Walla Walla.

At Henderson Home—
Miss Lena Smith, of Portland, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Henderson for the Fourth of July. Miss Smith is the sister of Dr. Earl Smith, of Portland.

Released From Hospital—
Mrs. W. E. Jellison, of Jerome, Idaho, left the Grande Bonds hospital today, having recovered from an operation. She went to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Allen, where she was a guest when she became ill.

Camping—
Miss Leola Latham and Claude Anson, of La Grande, will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Crabill and their daughter, Jean and Lloyd Irwin, of Weiser, to Pyette Lake for the weekend. They left this afternoon to join the remaining members of the party at Weiser, and were to proceed to the lake later in the evening.

Returns—
Orville Lee, who spent the winter as a student at Oregon State college at Corvallis, has returned to La Grande and will work at the Montgomery Ward Co. store, where he was employed for three years before going to Corvallis. During the past winter he has specialized in radio work and will be active in that part of the store as well as in the other departments.

Truck Burns—
A blaze, reported by back-fire from the exhaust pipe, completely destroyed a truck owned by Frank Clevinger last night on the highway above Five Points. Mr. Clevinger was about to meet another truck and was climbing rather a steep hill when the blaze started. The loss was covered by insurance.

To Corvallis—
Miss Helen Moor, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. H. S. Moor, of Toledo, Ohio, left yesterday afternoon for Corvallis where they will be the guests of her son before the party on the Fourth of July. Miss Moor will return to La Grande at the close of the holiday, while her mother will remain in Corvallis on the ground of her son before going on to spend the summer in California. Miss Moor is dean of women at the Eastern Oregon Normal school. Mrs. Moor has been the guest of her daughter during the past two weeks.

Expected to Return—
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Morelock, accompanied by the sister of the former, Miss Aileen Morelock, are expected to return today and Mr. and Mrs. Morelock will visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Morelock for a few days. Miss Morelock, who is a teacher in the schools here, has been the guest of her brother in St. Helens, Ore., for the past month and is returning to her home. Mr. Morelock works for the state highway department, formerly lived in St. Helens but they are now moving to Long Creek, about 25 miles from John Day, where some new roads are under construction.

Where Luther Preached
The church of St. Nicholas Elsteben, Germany, in which Martin Luther delivered sermons in the sixteenth century, has been renovated and six monumental stained glass windows, each more than twenty feet high, have been placed in the choir. Each of the windows depicts Biblical scenes and important events of the Reformation.

In for Trouble
A feminine expert on heartstrings says a woman can love only one man at a time, but a man can love half a dozen or more women contemporaneously. If that is true, the poor fellow is going to let himself in for more trouble than the proverbial one-armed paperhanger with the hives.—Toledo Blade.

Variable
There is not so variable a thing in Nature as a lady's headress.—Addison.

Visiting Mother—
William T. Neal, who is vice president of Pacific Light and Power company, is in Portland, in a guest at the home of his mother, Mrs. Nellie G. Nell, well-known former teacher. He arrived yesterday and expects to leave soon to spend the Fourth of July in Walla Walla.

SOCIETY NOTES

Mrs. J. K. Wright, of La Grande, is Appointed Chairman of Memorial Continental Hall Library Group

Mrs. J. K. Wright, of La Grande, who was elected to the office of state librarian at the annual conference of the D. A. B. in Portland last month, has received the appointment of chairman of the Memorial Continental Hall library committee for Oregon from the state regent, Mrs. John Y. Richardson. Mrs. Woodson, of Baker, will be in charge for the state of the filing and lending of all historical papers written about Oregon which are sent to Washington to be loaned out over the United States. Other state chairmen living in Eastern Oregon will be Mrs. J. Roy Roberts, of Redmond, who heads the committee on girl home-makers, and Mrs. Burt Thomas, of The Dalles, state chairman of Constitution hall finance. These committees are but a few of the many necessary to carry on the work of the Daughters of the American Revolution which has 23 chapters in Oregon. Mrs. J. E. Ferguson of Hood River is second vice regent of the state society and is in charge of the Eastern Oregon district.

Miss Williams is Active At Camp
A new outdoor theatre is the chief interest of Miss Joan Williams of La Grande, head of dramatics at Camp Namanu, for Camp Fire girls near Portland. Miss Jackie Morency and Miss Irene Clark came from Seattle, are working on the permanent camp craft exhibition grounds, which they promise to be practical as well as ornamental. The old nature museum, the only building in camp which was on the original homestead, is to be equipped for use as a dark room for making blue prints this summer. Under direction of "Miss Pat" Louisa Odell of Portland, the girls cleaned up the Garden of Eden the past week and started outfitting the cabin called Eve for a new nature museum. Adam and Eve were formerly cooks' cabins. Adam is to be used as a home for the men who spend the night in camp.

Plans For Next Winter Discussed
Plans for next winter were discussed last night when the new officers of the Women of the Moose conducted their first meeting at the Moose hall. Some committee appointments were made and they are now ready for an interesting year. Because of the Fourth of July activities, the next meeting has been postponed until July 15 when a camp party will be held.

SOCIAL CALENDAR
Tuesday, July 5
8:00 Neighbors of Woodcraft, Odd Fellows hall.
Wednesday, July 6
2:00 Parkdale club, at Riverside park.
2:00 Baptist women, with Mrs. Lucy Gilman.
2:30 St. Peter's Guild, at Home hall.
7:30 Crystal Rebekah lodge, No. 50, Odd Fellows hall.
Thursday, July 7
2:00 Home department of the Presbyterian church, at Riverside.
Friday, July 8
10:00 Baptist Sunday school picnic, at Riverside park.

About Ourselves
We may not be able to create beautiful pictures or embroideries for people to remember us by, but we may be remembered by beautiful deeds, by little acts of courtesy and kindness.

At Henderson Home—
Miss Lena Smith, of Portland, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Henderson for the Fourth of July. Miss Smith is the sister of Dr. Earl Smith, of Portland.

Released From Hospital—
Mrs. W. E. Jellison, of Jerome, Idaho, left the Grande Bonds hospital today, having recovered from an operation. She went to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Allen, where she was a guest when she became ill.

Camping—
Miss Leola Latham and Claude Anson, of La Grande, will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Crabill and their daughter, Jean and Lloyd Irwin, of Weiser, to Pyette Lake for the weekend. They left this afternoon to join the remaining members of the party at Weiser, and were to proceed to the lake later in the evening.

Returns—
Orville Lee, who spent the winter as a student at Oregon State college at Corvallis, has returned to La Grande and will work at the Montgomery Ward Co. store, where he was employed for three years before going to Corvallis. During the past winter he has specialized in radio work and will be active in that part of the store as well as in the other departments.

Truck Burns—
A blaze, reported by back-fire from the exhaust pipe, completely destroyed a truck owned by Frank Clevinger last night on the highway above Five Points. Mr. Clevinger was about to meet another truck and was climbing rather a steep hill when the blaze started. The loss was covered by insurance.

To Corvallis—
Miss Helen Moor, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. H. S. Moor, of Toledo, Ohio, left yesterday afternoon for Corvallis where they will be the guests of her son before the party on the Fourth of July. Miss Moor will return to La Grande at the close of the holiday, while her mother will remain in Corvallis on the ground of her son before going on to spend the summer in California. Miss Moor is dean of women at the Eastern Oregon Normal school. Mrs. Moor has been the guest of her daughter during the past two weeks.

Expected to Return—
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Morelock, accompanied by the sister of the former, Miss Aileen Morelock, are expected to return today and Mr. and Mrs. Morelock will visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Morelock for a few days. Miss Morelock, who is a teacher in the schools here, has been the guest of her brother in St. Helens, Ore., for the past month and is returning to her home. Mr. Morelock works for the state highway department, formerly lived in St. Helens but they are now moving to Long Creek, about 25 miles from John Day, where some new roads are under construction.

Where Luther Preached
The church of St. Nicholas Elsteben, Germany, in which Martin Luther delivered sermons in the sixteenth century, has been renovated and six monumental stained glass windows, each more than twenty feet high, have been placed in the choir. Each of the windows depicts Biblical scenes and important events of the Reformation.

In for Trouble
A feminine expert on heartstrings says a woman can love only one man at a time, but a man can love half a dozen or more women contemporaneously. If that is true, the poor fellow is going to let himself in for more trouble than the proverbial one-armed paperhanger with the hives.—Toledo Blade.

Variable
There is not so variable a thing in Nature as a lady's headress.—Addison.

Visiting Mother—
William T. Neal, who is vice president of Pacific Light and Power company, is in Portland, in a guest at the home of his mother, Mrs. Nellie G. Nell, well-known former teacher. He arrived yesterday and expects to leave soon to spend the Fourth of July in Walla Walla.

At Henderson Home—
Miss Lena Smith, of Portland, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Henderson for the Fourth of July. Miss Smith is the sister of Dr. Earl Smith, of Portland.

Released From Hospital—
Mrs. W. E. Jellison, of Jerome, Idaho, left the Grande Bonds hospital today, having recovered from an operation. She went to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Allen, where she was a guest when she became ill.

Camping—
Miss Leola Latham and Claude Anson, of La Grande, will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Crabill and their daughter, Jean and Lloyd Irwin, of Weiser, to Pyette Lake for the weekend. They left this afternoon to join the remaining members of the party at Weiser, and were to proceed to the lake later in the evening.

Returns—
Orville Lee, who spent the winter as a student at Oregon State college at Corvallis, has returned to La Grande and will work at the Montgomery Ward Co. store, where he was employed for three years before going to Corvallis. During the past winter he has specialized in radio work and will be active in that part of the store as well as in the other departments.

Truck Burns—
A blaze, reported by back-fire from the exhaust pipe, completely destroyed a truck owned by Frank Clevinger last night on the highway above Five Points. Mr. Clevinger was about to meet another truck and was climbing rather a steep hill when the blaze started. The loss was covered by insurance.

To Corvallis—
Miss Helen Moor, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. H. S. Moor, of Toledo, Ohio, left yesterday afternoon for Corvallis where they will be the guests of her son before the party on the Fourth of July. Miss Moor will return to La Grande at the close of the holiday, while her mother will remain in Corvallis on the ground of her son before going on to spend the summer in California. Miss Moor is dean of women at the Eastern Oregon Normal school. Mrs. Moor has been the guest of her daughter during the past two weeks.

Expected to Return—
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Morelock, accompanied by the sister of the former, Miss Aileen Morelock, are expected to return today and Mr. and Mrs. Morelock will visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Morelock for a few days. Miss Morelock, who is a teacher in the schools here, has been the guest of her brother in St. Helens, Ore., for the past month and is returning to her home. Mr. Morelock works for the state highway department, formerly lived in St. Helens but they are now moving to Long Creek, about 25 miles from John Day, where some new roads are under construction.

Where Luther Preached
The church of St. Nicholas Elsteben, Germany, in which Martin Luther delivered sermons in the sixteenth century, has been renovated and six monumental stained glass windows, each more than twenty feet high, have been placed in the choir. Each of the windows depicts Biblical scenes and important events of the Reformation.

In for Trouble
A feminine expert on heartstrings says a woman can love only one man at a time, but a man can love half a dozen or more women contemporaneously. If that is true, the poor fellow is going to let himself in for more trouble than the proverbial one-armed paperhanger with the hives.—Toledo Blade.

Variable
There is not so variable a thing in Nature as a lady's headress.—Addison.

Visiting Mother—
William T. Neal, who is vice president of Pacific Light and Power company, is in Portland, in a guest at the home of his mother, Mrs. Nellie G. Nell, well-known former teacher. He arrived yesterday and expects to leave soon to spend the Fourth of July in Walla Walla.

At Henderson Home—
Miss Lena Smith, of Portland, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Henderson for the Fourth of July. Miss Smith is the sister of Dr. Earl Smith, of Portland.

Released From Hospital—
Mrs. W. E. Jellison, of Jerome, Idaho, left the Grande Bonds hospital today, having recovered from an operation. She went to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Allen, where she was a guest when she became ill.

Camping—
Miss Leola Latham and Claude Anson, of La Grande, will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Crabill and their daughter, Jean and Lloyd Irwin, of Weiser, to Pyette Lake for the weekend. They left this afternoon to join the remaining members of the party at Weiser, and were to proceed to the lake later in the evening.

SOCIETY NOTES

Mrs. J. K. Wright, of La Grande, is Appointed Chairman of Memorial Continental Hall Library Group

Mrs. J. K. Wright, of La Grande, who was elected to the office of state librarian at the annual conference of the D. A. B. in Portland last month, has received the appointment of chairman of the Memorial Continental Hall library committee for Oregon from the state regent, Mrs. John Y. Richardson. Mrs. Woodson, of Baker, will be in charge for the state of the filing and lending of all historical papers written about Oregon which are sent to Washington to be loaned out over the United States. Other state chairmen living in Eastern Oregon will be Mrs. J. Roy Roberts, of Redmond, who heads the committee on girl home-makers, and Mrs. Burt Thomas, of The Dalles, state chairman of Constitution hall finance. These committees are but a few of the many necessary to carry on the work of the Daughters of the American Revolution which has 23 chapters in Oregon. Mrs. J. E. Ferguson of Hood River is second vice regent of the state society and is in charge of the Eastern Oregon district.

Miss Williams is Active At Camp
A new outdoor theatre is the chief interest of Miss Joan Williams of La Grande, head of dramatics at Camp Namanu, for Camp Fire girls near Portland. Miss Jackie Morency and Miss Irene Clark came from Seattle, are working on the permanent camp craft exhibition grounds, which they promise to be practical as well as ornamental. The old nature museum, the only building in camp which was on the original homestead, is to be equipped for use as a dark room for making blue prints this summer. Under direction of "Miss Pat" Louisa Odell of Portland, the girls cleaned up the Garden of Eden the past week and started outfitting the cabin called Eve for a new nature museum. Adam and Eve were formerly cooks' cabins. Adam is to be used as a home for the men who spend the night in camp.

Plans For Next Winter Discussed
Plans for next winter were discussed last night when the new officers of the Women of the Moose conducted their first meeting at the Moose hall. Some committee appointments were made and they are now ready for an interesting year. Because of the Fourth of July activities, the next meeting has been postponed until July 15 when a camp party will be held.

SOCIAL CALENDAR
Tuesday, July 5
8:00 Neighbors of Woodcraft, Odd Fellows hall.
Wednesday, July 6
2:00 Parkdale club, at Riverside park.
2:00 Baptist women, with Mrs. Lucy Gilman.
2:30 St. Peter's Guild, at Home hall.
7:30 Crystal Rebekah lodge, No. 50, Odd Fellows hall.
Thursday, July 7
2:00 Home department of the Presbyterian church, at Riverside.
Friday, July 8
10:00 Baptist Sunday school picnic, at Riverside park.

About Ourselves
We may not be able to create beautiful pictures or embroideries for people to remember us by, but we may be remembered by beautiful deeds, by little acts of courtesy and kindness.

At Henderson Home—
Miss Lena Smith, of Portland, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Henderson for the Fourth of July. Miss Smith is the sister of Dr. Earl Smith, of Portland.

Released From Hospital—
Mrs. W. E. Jellison, of Jerome, Idaho, left the Grande Bonds hospital today, having recovered from an operation. She went to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Allen, where she was a guest when she became ill.

Camping—
Miss Leola Latham and Claude Anson, of La Grande, will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Crabill and their daughter, Jean and Lloyd Irwin, of Weiser, to Pyette Lake for the weekend. They left this afternoon to join the remaining members of the party at Weiser, and were to proceed to the lake later in the evening.

Returns—
Orville Lee, who spent the winter as a student at Oregon State college at Corvallis, has returned to La Grande and will work at the Montgomery Ward Co. store, where he was employed for three years before going to Corvallis. During the past winter he has specialized in radio work and will be active in that part of the store as well as in the other departments.

Truck Burns—
A blaze, reported by back-fire from the exhaust pipe, completely destroyed a truck owned by Frank Clevinger last night on the highway above Five Points. Mr. Clevinger was about to meet another truck and was climbing rather a steep hill when the blaze started. The loss was covered by insurance.

To Corvallis—
Miss Helen Moor, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. H. S. Moor, of Toledo, Ohio, left yesterday afternoon for Corvallis where they will be the guests of her son before the party on the Fourth of July. Miss Moor will return to La Grande at the close of the holiday, while her mother will remain in Corvallis on the ground of her son before going on to spend the summer in California. Miss Moor is dean of women at the Eastern Oregon Normal school. Mrs. Moor has been the guest of her daughter during the past two weeks.

Expected to Return—
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Morelock, accompanied by the sister of the former, Miss Aileen Morelock, are expected to return today and Mr. and Mrs. Morelock will visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Morelock for a few days. Miss Morelock, who is a teacher in the schools here, has been the guest of her brother in St. Helens, Ore., for the past month and is returning to her home. Mr. Morelock works for the state highway department, formerly lived in St. Helens but they are now moving to Long Creek, about 25 miles from John Day, where some new roads are under construction.

Where Luther Preached
The church of St. Nicholas Elsteben, Germany, in which Martin Luther delivered sermons in the sixteenth century, has been renovated and six monumental stained glass windows, each more than twenty feet high, have been placed in the choir. Each of the windows depicts Biblical scenes and important events of the Reformation.

In for Trouble
A feminine expert on heartstrings says a woman can love only one man at a time, but a man can love half a dozen or more women contemporaneously. If that is true, the poor fellow is going to let himself in for more trouble than the proverbial one-armed paperhanger with the hives.—Toledo Blade.

Variable
There is not so variable a thing in Nature as a lady's headress.—Addison.

Visiting Mother—
William T. Neal, who is vice president of Pacific Light and Power company, is in Portland, in a guest at the home of his mother, Mrs. Nellie G. Nell, well-known former teacher. He arrived yesterday and expects to leave soon to spend the Fourth of July in Walla Walla.

At Henderson Home—
Miss Lena Smith, of Portland, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Henderson for the Fourth of July. Miss Smith is the sister of Dr. Earl Smith, of Portland.

Released From Hospital—
Mrs. W. E. Jellison, of Jerome, Idaho, left the Grande Bonds hospital today, having recovered from an operation. She went to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Allen, where she was a guest when she became ill.

Camping—
Miss Leola Latham and Claude Anson, of La Grande, will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Crabill and their daughter, Jean and Lloyd Irwin, of Weiser, to Pyette Lake for the weekend. They left this afternoon to join the remaining members of the party at Weiser, and were to proceed to the lake later in the evening.

Returns—
Orville Lee, who spent the winter as a student at Oregon State college at Corvallis, has returned to La Grande and will work at the Montgomery Ward Co. store, where he was employed for three years before going to Corvallis. During the past winter he has specialized in radio work and will be active in that part of the store as well as in the other departments.

Truck Burns—
A blaze, reported by back-fire from the exhaust pipe, completely destroyed a truck owned by Frank Clevinger last night on the highway above Five Points. Mr. Clevinger was about to meet another truck and was climbing rather a steep hill when the blaze started. The loss was covered by insurance.

To Corvallis—
Miss Helen Moor, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. H. S. Moor, of Toledo, Ohio, left yesterday afternoon for Corvallis where they will be the guests of her son before the party on the Fourth of July. Miss Moor will return to La Grande at the close of the holiday, while her mother will remain in Corvallis on the ground of her son before going on to spend the summer in California. Miss Moor is dean of women at the Eastern Oregon Normal school. Mrs. Moor has been the guest of her daughter during the past two weeks.

Expected to Return—
Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Morelock, accompanied by the sister of the former, Miss Aileen Morelock, are expected to return today and Mr. and Mrs. Morelock will visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Morelock for a few days. Miss Morelock, who is a teacher in the schools here, has been the guest of her brother in St. Helens, Ore., for the past month and is returning to her home. Mr. Morelock works for the state highway department, formerly lived in St. Helens but they are now moving to Long Creek, about 25 miles from John Day, where some new roads are under construction.

Where Luther Preached
The church of St. Nicholas Elsteben, Germany, in which Martin Luther delivered sermons in the sixteenth century, has been renovated and six monumental stained glass windows, each more than twenty feet high, have been placed in the choir. Each of the windows depicts Biblical scenes and important events of the Reformation.

In for Trouble
A feminine expert on heartstrings says a woman can love only one man at a time, but a man can love half a dozen or more women contemporaneously. If that is true, the poor fellow is going to let himself in for more trouble than the proverbial one-armed paperhanger with the hives.—Toledo Blade.

Variable
There is not so variable a thing in Nature as a lady's headress.—Addison.