BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—Colombian history records probably the first use of poison gas in warfare, more than 400 years ago.

The victims were Federmann and Allinger, hired generals of the Spanish conquistadors. It was they who led an expedition from Venezuela in 1528 in search of the "Golden Mine" of the Chibcha Indians who founded Bogota.

Dorothy Lewis, 37, Radio Star, Dies

PORTLAND, Ore., July 11 (AP)—Miss Dorothy Lewis, 37, whose mezzo-soprano voice was known to radio audiences along the Pacific coast and throughout the northwest, died here Sunday at the home of her father, H. L. Lewis.

Miss Lewis for the past two years had been in San Francisco with the National Broadcasting company, singing over station KFO.

Before taking up radio work, Miss Lewis was in vaudeville, singing on the Pantheon circuit for about seven years. She was born in Portland November 28, 1894.

Besides her father she is survived by two brothers. Police Captain H. A. Lewis and John L. Lewis, and a sister Miss Helena M. Lewis, all of Portland.
