LEADERSHIP OF PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE AT STAKE

Both Leaders Lose Series But Portland Continues at Top of Standings as Week Ends.

By the Associated Press
Portland lost its series with Oakland by dropping the second Sunday game, but emerged from the week's campaign with a one-game lead in the league standing. The Angels kept Hollywood in second place by beating the Stars twice yesterday, taking the series.

The Ducks won the first Sunday game 1 to 0, with Paul Zahniser allowing only three hits while Portland squeezed in but four. Oakland took the nightcap 4 to 4, clinching the game with three runs in the opening frame. The series ended Oakland 4, Portland 3.

Angels Win Series

Los Angeles squared the series with Hollywood by winning the first game 3 to 2, and took the odd game 5 to 1. Charley Moncrief, recruit pitcher on the mound for the Angels in the opener, allowed only four hits. In the second game Leroy Herrmann pitched his twentieth victory of the season.

Celebrating old timers' day, the Seals and Missions broke even in a doubleheader, the Seals winning the first game 4 to 0, and the Beds the second, 5 to 1. San Francisco won the series, five games to two. Curt Davis pitched one-hit ball for the Seals in the opener.

Indians Win Nightcap

The Senators defeated Seattle in the morning game at Stockton 3 to 2, while the Indians won the farewell game 7 to 1. Sacramento won the series, five games to two.

Games tomorrow: Oakland at San Francisco; Missions at Portland (night); Sacramento at Los Angeles (night).

LA GRANDE NINE WINS TITLE BY DOWNING BURNS

Burns, whiffed 10. La Grande made three hits, but bunched two of them in the second to score the only earned run of the game.

Except for Irwin's misplays in the last of the game, the La Grander played faultless ball in the field. Four Burns boys figured in the error column, the Burns shortstop making four bobbles.

La Grande scored in the second when Kimmell singled and came home on Mills' two-bagger. In the third Crouser walked, advanced two bases on two errors, and scored on a fielder's choice. The third score came in the fifth when Crouser went to first on an error, to second on another misplay and scored when Fowler grounded to shortstop, who picked Fowler off at first.

In the ninth Smith went to first on an error. Allen struck out. Cockerell and Higgs were hit by pitched balls, filling the bases, and then Allen and Cockerell scored on an error. Then came the play around which the dispute centered.

A large crowd of fans witnessed the game.

Baker Wins 14 to 2.

In a six-inning consolation game to decide third place, the Baker team hammered two Ontario pitchers to win with ease, 14 to 2. Ontario's run came in the sixth on a three-bagger, a walk and an error by Densley. Baker shortstop, Gover, pitching for Baker struck out eight men and allowed but two hits. Baker batted around in the second and 10 men faced the Ontario hurlers in the third.

Dreibach, of Baker, hit a homer and a three-bagger. Southern hit for three bases and Connell connected with a circuit drive. Baird was the only Ontario boy to hit for extra bases, getting a triple.

PENDLETON PLAYING THE DALLIES

PENDLETON, Ore., July 18—With a good chance of winning a three-day baseball series with The Daxies, the American Legion Junior baseball team formed this year with a group of enthusiastic young players as members, has gone to the Wasco country city.

If the local team wins it will play La Grande. Local players are: Jenkins, catcher; Eagles, Oregon and Metz, pitchers; J. Hodgen, first base; B. Hodgen and Potter, second base; Russell, third; Graybeal, short; Weber, St. Dennis, Payant, Langley, Rogers and Gilchrist, fielders.

J. I. (Shorty) Howard is district supervisor of baseball during the absence of Austin Landreth, now on the Oregon State college campus and has been most active in promoting the baseball activities. Coach Miller of the Athena high school will coach the team. A number of Pendleton men went to The Daxies for the series.

Women Can Keep Secrets!

In the African jungle there are several tribes whose women have a secret language of their own which they never have taught and never will teach to any man.

Altering Style Harms Putting

WHAT ARE YOU DOING?
CHANGING MY PUTTING STYLE
IT LOOKS DA-GAME TO ME

Missing a three-foot putt inevitably makes a player timid in approaching his next shot.

In the belief that he has been in error in some fundamental rule, he attempts to change his stance and stroke, and this change all too often is for the worse.

In many cases, this "complex" causes the player to look up too soon in his anxiety to follow the ball. This action is the secret of many a bungled putt.

If you are putting badly, not matter how strong the temptation may be, do not change your regular style in any respect.

In practicing with the putter, remember to putt for the back of the club. Line up your putt, take your usual stance, play the stroke in your regular style, and don't look up until you hear the ball drop into the cup.

Wille Kamm, another Coast star who cost Chicago a pretty penny back in '22, is playing base-up ball at third base for Roger Peckinpaugh. The pair have rounded out an infield that stacks up defensively with the best of them.

For all their winning, however, the Indians are finding it difficult to whittle down the Yankees' big lead. The New Yorkers also captured a Sabbath doubleheader, taking the Chicago White Sox by scores of 4 to 3 and 3 to 2. Babe Ruth's angle won the first in the 12th inning, and Charlie Ruffing pitched and batted his side to victory in the nightcap.

Solons Win 9 Straight

Washington's winning streak was stretched to nine straight with a 9 to 2 triumph over the St. Louis Browns.

Jimmy Fox's two home runs, his 37th and 38th of the year, helped the Athletics tame the Detroit Tigers, 4 and 3.

The Chicago Cubs picked up a full game on the idle Pittsburgh Pirates when Pat Malone and Charley Root quelled the Giants, 3 to 1 and 8 to 2. Malone allowed six hits and struck out seven in the first.

The Boston Braves also gained ground on the leaders by socking Cincinnati twice, 5 to 3 and 3 to 1.

St. Louis and Brooklyn divided honors, the Cards winning 9 to 2 bestly, Saturday in qualifying for three places on the United States Olympic team. In the high jump she shared a world record of 5 feet 3 1/8 inches with Jean Shibley of Philadelphia, and set a new javelin record of 139 feet, 3 inches, but was entered in so many events that she didn't have time to do "real justice" to any of them.

She does not pay any attention to what kind of marks other girls accomplish, and doesn't even know who holds world records unless she herself is the record holder.

"Records don't mean anything," she says. "It's what you do at the time. Some of the boys who were defeated at Palo Alto Saturday held records, but they didn't help them make the Olympic team."

"We will win the women's Olympics all right. I don't know how good the foreign girls are, but I don't think it will be good enough to beat us."

The women's Olympic squad of 16 members left today for Los Angeles.

Local Horseshoe Team Wins From Pendleton 22-14

By Laufer

There was much elation in La Grande's horseshoe circles today, resulting from the first victory this city ever has scored over Pendleton at the grand old game—at least in recent years. And the nice part about it all was that Pendleton lost in its own backyard.

Six La Grande horseshoe players went to Pendleton yesterday, and none of them made a poorer showing than 500 per cent of the games played. The scores follow:

Pendleton	W. L.	La Grande	W. L.
Pell	6 0	Breathers	4 2
Davis	4 2	H. Oliver	5 1
Kerns	1 5	H. Slack	3 3
Stephens	1 5	E. O. Morris	3 3
Baker	1 5	J. B. Smith	3 3
Huffman	1 5	A. McKenzie	4 2

Total 14 22 Total 22 14
A return match will be played in La Grande later this summer.

Navy's New Air Giant Turns Up Its Nose

The U. S. Navy's mammoth new airship, the U. S. S. Macon, entered the final stages of construction at the Goodyear-Zeppelin dock in Akron, O., when its 75-foot bow was lifted into place with elaborate ceremonies.

The larger photo above depicts the scene as Miss Susan Myrick, chief of Macon, Ga., blew a whistle to start cranes hoisting the airship's nose into place. Resembling its sister ship, the U. S. S. Akron in shape, dimensions and equipment, the Macon is a 6,500,000-cubic-foot craft, designed for a speed of 80 miles an hour and non-refueling cruising range of nearly 11,000 miles. Like the Akron, it will carry several fighting airplanes.

ON A VOLCANO

There likely will be many upheavals before another big league season is launched.

Falling attendance, taxes and other problems beset the magnates, many of whom feel that they did not take drastic enough action when they slashed the payrolls, player limits and expenses this spring.

The American league must do something about the Boston Red Sox if it hopes to keep this franchise alive. The talk persists that Babe Ruth may be moved to his old stomping grounds "for the good of the cause" in 1933.

The National league's thanks to the world's champion Cardinals, salvaged Cincinnati's baseball interest for the time being, but the financial burdens still hang heavy over the head of the Reds' ownership.

CARDS STILL ALIVE

Despite the failure of Pepper Martin to duplicate anything like his world's series performances, the disposal of a flock of stars and a general shake-up, the feeling persists among National league men that the Cardinals will remain the team to beat in the big drive down the hot and dusty stretch.

Gabby Street has enough sharpshooters left to give him a substantial advantage. The temporary loss at various times of players like Frisch, Wilson and Martin handicapped the world's champions but the reserves have done well enough to keep the club in a contending position.
