BEAVER PITCHING STAFF CONTINUES TO SHOW ABILITY

Gives Portland Team Three-Game Lead Over Hollywood — Oaks, Angels and Indians All Win

For the second time in a row Portland's Beavers demonstrated why they head the league, as Fitcher John Prudhomme blanked the second-place Hollywood Stars 4 to 0 last night. The victory put Portland three games ahead of the challengers. Prudhomme allowed but four hits while the Ducks gathered eight off Turner.

Ken Douglas pitched only three and one-third innings for the Seals against Oakland Wednesday, but it was long enough for the Acorns to build up a five-run lead to defeat San Francisco 5 to 3.

Dolph Camilli, Sacramento first sacker, saved his team from a shutout with a homer in the third inning, as Los Angeles cleaned the Senators the second time this week, 3 to 1. The Angels made all their scores in the sixth on two doubles and a pair of singles.

The Seattle Indians and the Mission Reds pounded opposing pitchers for ten hits each, the northerners outed a 3 to 2 victory.

Robin Reed Wins; Referee Uses Fist

PORTLAND, Ore., July 21 (AP)—Robin Reed, Beaufort, Ore., defeated Bulldog Jackson, "bad man" of the welterweight division two out of three falls here last night in another "wild night" of wrestling. The first fall went to Reed in 15 minutes, 42 seconds with a double reverse wing-lock to pour Jackson headfirst into the mat. Jackson evened the score in 17 minutes two seconds with a right hand swing to the stomach. Reed took the final fall in 14 minutes 20 seconds when he seized Jackson's legs, upending him.

During the bout, Jackson attempted to kick a ringsider in the face and started a small sized riot. He also took a punch at Referee Verne Harrington, who returned the compliment, flooring the Bulldog with a right to the chin.

LOMSKI WINS BY KAYO

MEDFORD, Ore., July 21 (AP)—Leo Lomski, of Portland, recovered from knockdowns in the first, second and third rounds last night to knock out Jack McCarthy, of San Francisco, in the fourth round of a bitter battle. Lomski weighed 185, McCarthy 190.

GIRLS TEAM DUE HERE ON MONDAY

S. K. S. L. Team Expects to Defeat Eagles By at Least a Five-run Margin

With only three and one half more days to wait until the S. K. S. L. Girls' team arrives here to tangle with the local Eagles baseball team next Monday afternoon at the high school field, local baseball fans are showing a decided and increasingly keen interest in the coming contest.

It is expected that a record crowd will watch the unusual spectacle of a girls' baseball squad attempting to wallop one of the best men's teams in Eastern Oregon. The Eagles baseball squad, even though pursued by a "home grounds" jinx this year, has established a record which proves it a strong aggregation. It has played 18 games so far this season, winning eight and losing 10. Several of the wins have been against teams acknowledged the strongest in Eastern Oregon, such as the 7 to 0 victory over the Mission Indians, a 5 to 3 victory over Baker, and the 6 to 5 win over Cove two weeks ago.

The girls' team has set up an enviable record in a tour through 13 western states this summer. The girls have beaten such teams as the Portland West Side team, Salem, Marysville and Stockton, Cal., and many others. The percentage of wins to defeats is well over 600.

Girls Expect To Win

The girls, in their correspondence through their manager, Irvin Van Blarcom, to D. W. Hall, manager of the Eagles team, have evidenced considerable interest in the coming game here. The present opinion of the girls is that they will beat the La Grande squad by at least a five-run margin.

The visiting team will be composed of girls who have been chosen from all over the country for their outstanding athletic ability, and who have gained nationwide fame for their baseball ability on the S. K. S. L. team. Managed by Irvin Van Blarcom, an ex-college athletic coach, and assistant coach, Harold Reynolds, a former big league baseball star, the girls have the reputation of playing "bang-up" baseball at all times. It has been said of Lefty Langford, the girls' star pitcher:

"Lefty's figure, husky for a girl, but slight, is her only handicap. If she had a 200-pound physique she would be in Lefty Grove's class now because of her ability to learn weaknesses of opposing batsmen. She can curve a ball with the sharpest hook of any pitcher in the country."

It is tentatively scheduled that Lefty Langford will pitch against the La Grande team. In turn, "Red" Courtney, La Grande's pitching ace will face the girls. They have heard about "Red's" ability and the statements of the girls' hitters might well be summed up in Myrtle Brockett's comment: "All I want is a chance to step up to the plate and see what that red-headed boy throws across. If I can't lay the wood to his offerings I'll say he's the best pitcher we've ever been up against!" Miss Brockett is the heavy hitter of the girls' club.

The lineup which is expected to face the Eagles here was sent to Mr. Hall today by the girls' team manager, and is as follows:

Hills, c.; Langford, p.; Jaak, 1b; Brockett, 2b; Hills, ss.; Harrod, 3b; Harris, cf.; Champlain, if.; Cieller, rf.

The Eagles lineup will be as follows: Nichols, c.; Courtney, p.; Braden, 1b.; Posey, 2b.; Hartman, ss.; Evans, 3b.; Cochran, cf.; Nelson, if.; Parker, rf.

McCOY FREED FROM PRISON THIS MORNING

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, July 21 (AP)—"Kid" McCoy, past master of boxing, packed his belongings here today in preparation for a return to the world after seven years and three months in prison.

The former claimant to the middleweight championship of the world arrived from a prison road camp last night, unguarded. He was to leave the prison at 9 a. m. for a short trip to the office of State Parole Agent Ed Whyte in San Francisco. There he was to meet two sisters from Los Angeles and to receive the parole papers which will permit him to leave for the Ford plant at Detroit, Mich., where he has been offered a position as instructor.

McCoy, whose real name is Norman Selby, was congratulated on his good fortune by his prison friends.

OPEN ITALIAN POOL

ACQUA, Italy (AP)—What is claimed to be the largest artificial swimming pool in Europe has been opened here. It is 385 feet long, 160 feet wide, with a capacity of 9000 cubic yards of water. One-third of the water is removed every 24 hours. The pool is surrounded by an open-air dance floor, a clubhouse and pavilions for games of chance.

Olympic Boxing Finals Held In Ring At Frisco

By Russell J. Newland (Associated Press Sports Writer)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21 (AP)—Out of a bombardment of leather gloves, America's prospective Olympic boxing team took on a more definite shape today while on the back trail of preliminaries last night were contested two national A. A. U. champions and an intercollegiate titleholder in the scattering of former contenders.

In an evening of six hours of steady battling, which saw the pick of the country's amateurs start out in quest of eight places on the team, three such outstanding favorites as Dennis Flynn of New Orleans, Richard Carter of New York and A. B. Wertheimer of Buffalo, N. Y., were tumbled into the discard.

The upset of Flynn in the 100 lb. division stood out in the opening of the three night program which will end Saturday at the Loyola university boy into the ranks of the defeated. Game and willing, Flynn was a badly beaten fighter when the bout was stopped.

Carter, husky little negro who holds the 128-pound A. A. U. title, and Wertheimer, intercollegiate king in the same division, saw their chances slip away through defeats by opponents they figured to beat. Holman Williams, another dusky performer, from Detroit, took Carter's measure by passing out a first class boxing lesson. It was a "turn about" proposition as in the recent A. A. U. tournament, Carter was the one who had his hand raised. Wertheimer, a Syracuse university student, was eliminated by Fred Lynch of the Multnomah A. C., Portland, Ore. Lynch clearly outclassed the collegiate champion and added to his lead with a short knockdown.

Other national titleholders, waded through their first round matches without difficulty.

The far west brought through the largest delegation with ten winners in the 28-bout program. Eight eastern representatives punched their way through the first barricade while six mid-westerners successfully passed opening tests. The south graduated three into tonight's bouts and the southwest claimed one winner. While upending of the three champions overshadowed all other bouts, another unexpected reversal saw Fenlon Gentry of Chattanooga, a University of Virginia 175 pounder, defeated by W. R. Hechler of Salt Lake City. Hechler landed punches on a two for one basis.

Hildebrand Big Aid to Indians In Bid For Top

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—A star basketball player is the new-found pitching ace who has given the Cleveland Indians an important leg on their mid-season spurt toward the top in the American league standings.

Oral Hildebrand, even when he was the All-America center on two of Butler university's best basketball teams, had difficulty in staying off the baseball field.

Two years before he left college he had been signed by the Indianapolis Indians, and when he finally was declared ineligible for college competition in 1930 because he had been playing summer ball, he promptly quit school and took up his duties on the mound.

Winning three and losing eight was not so good a record, even for a beginner, but he came to Cleveland the next year for a trial. He was returned to Indianapolis, however, where he won 12 and lost 8.

Finishing the season here, he won seven out of three.

The most retiring member of the Indian camp, Hildy started slowly this year, but when the club began its second eastern invasion he was called upon to face the Senators. The lean rookie pitched the best game turned in so far this season by a Cleveland moundman, a six-hit affair that accounted for one of the Indians' four victories in one series with Washington.

His next start was against the Athletics, a ten-inning winning effort in which "Hildy" twice fanned the redoubtable Jimmy Foxx—each time with two out and bases loaded.

Hildebrand's courage in pitching to Foxx brought him no end of praise. For the first time the lanky, 28-year-old Hoosier enjoyed the sensation of having "arrived."

Twice in his time Hildebrand has come close to a no-hit game. Once Chuck Klein, now with the Phillies, then a semi-pro, ruined the attempt with a triple, and in 1930 the Columbus team nipped him for but one hit.

Beach mining at Nome, which produced several million dollars' worth of gold in the rush of 1898, is being revived.

The Whole Trend is toward a Milder Cigarette

Do you remember the days when you first started to smoke?

ALL CIGARETTES tasted somewhat alike to you, but after a while you noticed that some cigarettes were decidedly stronger than others... Remember?

As smokers become more experienced, they demand milder cigarettes. Chesterfields are milder. There is no argument about that. Their mildness is a feature as distinctive as their package or their trade mark.

Their tobaccos are mild to begin with. Patient aging and curing make them milder still.

Chesterfields contain just the right amount of Turkish—but not too much—carefully blended and cross-blended with ripe, sweet Domestic tobaccos.

In this nerve-racking time, smokers—men and women—are showing a decided preference for milder cigarettes.

Chesterfields are milder. They taste better. That's why "They Satisfy."
