

30 Register To Attend Camp For Boys At Resort

Thirty registrations have been received for the boys camp at Wallawa Lake and at least 10 more are expected before the opening on July 31. Elmo Stevenson, leader of the scouting movement, announced following a meeting held Tuesday at the Lavender Lunch.

Plans were made for issuing a preliminary letter to parents of all boys who plan to attend, in which the necessary requirements for camp will be listed, including a physical examination. The examination must be made by a doctor the day before the opening of camp to guard against the possibility of any contagious diseases during the two weeks outing from July 31 until August 14.

Hal Bohnenkamp will provide transportation for the luggage and food and for any boys who are not taken to the camp by their parents.

Eats for the camp have been planned meal by meal, and Harvey Carter, camp director, adds that the program has been worked out fully. Assisting the director in carrying out the program will be Woodrow Damersell, Russell Nelson, cook; Charles Walnum, mess officer; Robert Reuter, head waiter; Carl Coleman, Robert Linn, Carl Johnson and Arthur Stef-fan, camp counselors.

Camp honor awards will be made again this year and in addition there will be a felt numeral for satisfactory participation in camp activities, and a felt "W" for outstanding leadership.

Safety precautions will be taken during the swimming period, and no boy will be allowed in the water at any other time unless special permission is obtained from the camp director. Members of the junior and junior Red Cross life saving corps will be in charge of swimming.

Boy Scouts are out today collecting jars for the relief canning. La Grande was divided yesterday into sections, with Troop III canvassing Old Town and the territory south of Adams and west of Fourth. Troop 14 will canvass the same location east of Fourth; while Greenwood troop is collecting in the north side of town east of Depot street. The Camp Fire girls have been asked to canvass the district west of Depot street and other spots in the city.

Attending yesterday's meeting were Hal Bohnenkamp, Louis Evans, Harvey Carter, A. W. Nelson and Elmo Stevenson.
