Eugene Woman Hit By Car; Hurt Badly

EUGENE, July 22 (AP) - Critical injuries were suffered by Mrs. Joanna Baxter, 77, of Eugene, when she was struck by an automobile at a street intersection here last night. Peter Ewoniuk of Springfield, driver of the machine, said he saw Mrs. Baxter step into the street, and slowed his car. She became excited, he declared, and ran into the automobile. The woman suffered a fractured pelvis, a large cut on her right side, lacerations and bad head bruises, and injuries to her right hand which necessitated amputation of two fingers.

The TINNITES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

"DON'T let that fine horse run away," exclaimed the owner. "He'll just play, if you will let him race around as free as he can be. He loves to kick his heels up high. We'll watch, now, as you race him by. If you're a real rough rider, it will be a sight to see." "Oh, gee! I'll do my very best," said Scouty. "Then all of the rest can also have a little ride. I don't think I'll ride long." "Fine horses I have had before, but now I don't know what's in store. Please come right to my rescue, lads, if anything goes wrong."

THE NEW FANGLES (Mom'n Pop)

What a Day! GREAT HEAVENS! TWENTY-TWO YEARS AGO TO-DAY AND YET THE TIME HAS SLIPPED BY SO FAST! HOW THRILLED I WAS!! POP HAS BEEN A GRAND HUSBAND. IT WAS MY LUCKY DAY.

WELL, I THOUGHT IT'D BE NICE TO TAKE THE AFTERNOON OFF AND DIVE INTO THE COUNTRY SOMEPLACE FOR DINNER AND DANCE.

COME OTHER TIME, MOM. I GOT A DATE T. PLAY GOLF WITH JEROME. BEAUTY AND - POP! HAVE YOU FORGOTTEN WHAT HAPPENED TWENTY-TWO YEARS AGO TO DRY?

FORGOTTEN? NOT ME! THAT WAS THE DAY I FIRST BROKE A HUNDRED!!

"YOU bet we will, but see if you can stay on tight. It's hard to do," snapped Windy. "When you've had your turf at riding, I'll take mine."

"Then, all the points you do not know 'bout riding I will gladly show. When you see me, I know that you will say that I am fine!"

Just then the horse swung round real quick and this turned out a real mean trick. It caught poor Scouty unawares and through the air he flew.

It gave the others quite a treat when he came down upon his feet. Then Scouty shouted loudly, "Well, that's one thing I can do!"

THE other Tinnites felt that they had best pass up this sort of play. Why, even little Windy had a sudden change of mind.

"I'd rather not be tossed around," said he. "I'd flop upon the ground. Let's go into the Indian camp and see what we can find."

When they got there wee Duncy said, "I want some feathers on my head." One of the Indians laughed at him and wildly waved his hand. An Indian boy responded. He brought feathers, pretty as could be. And, as he wore them, he was called a member of the band.

(The Tinnites have some fun with a baby camel in the next story.)
