Formal Entertaining Lags During The Summer But Excursions, Outings And Swimming Prove Very Popular

Formal entertaining lags along these summer days as slowly as the old vegetable cart — but meantime "summertime society" speeds by with all the gay dash of a modern roadster.

And no one misses her bridge club calendar just now—when picnics of a dozen different varieties are "in the air."

There can be long excursions into the Wallowa country. Already this season several groups of La Granderes—the more daring ones—have taken the Eagle Cap and Box Canyon trips. Then, at the other extreme of picnics are those supper parties, one of their charms being that they are "just no trouble at all."

For these small out-of-door suppers, Pine Cone is as popular as ever. Last night, for example, one saw picnicking there a number of family groups. At one of the park tables were Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Eakin and their sons, Jack and Bill, and Mrs. Eakin's mother, Mrs. Ed Kiddle. At another table were Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Morgan, Miss Melba Hanks, Miss Edna Maguire and Mrs. Avis Ferris.

At still another supper were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert R. Hanna and their daughters, Miriam and La Vella and Mrs. Lloyd Berry (Genevieve Hanna), of Walla Walla. Mrs. Berry and her baby daughter, Barbara Jean are guests at the Hanna home here.

Melba Williams To Wed Wallace Hanna

Of interest to many La Granderes is the approaching wedding of Miss Melba Williams to Wallace Hanna, of Bremerton. Miss Williams spent part of the summer in La Grande as head of the music department at the Eastern Oregon Normal school during the first six-weeks period of the summer quarter. During that time she made many friends here. Both Miss Williams and Mr. Hanna spent the past year in Bremerton, Wash., where they were in the music department of the Bremerton High school faculty. They intend to make their home in Bremerton, following the wedding, which will be solemnized soon in Eugene, Miss Williams' family home. Miss Williams is a graduate of the University of Oregon where she is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Birthday Party At Combs' Home

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Nephi Combs, on Y avenue, was the scene of a delightful affair last evening when Mr. Combs gave a surprise party, complimenting Mrs. Combs on her birthday anniversary. A group of friends, including Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kipack and Beatrice Wardell and Roy Currey, called at about 8 o'clock. The evening was spent informally and at a late hour the host served refreshments.

Mrs. Guy Ellis Hostess to Club

Mrs. Guy Ellis was hostess at an attractive summer party yesterday afternoon at her home at 1808 Third street, when all interested members of the Suncoast club. Two tables of bridge were at play for the afternoon, with Mrs. J. E. Reynolds making high score. Mrs. Harry C. McCarthy was a guest. Mrs. Charles Playle will be hostess for the club at its next afternoon.

Royal Neighbors Hold Lodge Meet

With Mrs. Velma Vedder, orator, presiding, members of the Royal Neighbors of America held a brief meeting last evening at the Odd Fellows' hall. The group devoted the entire session to transaction of routine business affairs and adjourned shortly after 8 o'clock. The next meeting will be two weeks from last night. It was announced. There will be but one session in August, on the second Monday of the month. The rest of the summer month will be a vacation period.

Hewoketa Group Is Entertained

Members of the Hewoketa Camp Fire group were entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Betty Stein. A business meeting began at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Games were enjoyed during a social hour. Miss Harriet Becker will entertain the group at its next meeting.

Chinese Girl, 13, Kills Her Mother

SALE LAKE CITY, Utah, July 26 (AP)—Pearl Chung, 13, Chinese was held in jail here today while officers continued their investigation into her asserted confession that she stabbed her foster mother, Mrs. Chung Mow, 55, to death in a fit of anger. Police said the girl admitted last night that she plunged a long kitchen knife into the heart of Mrs. Chung while the woman lay sleeping in her home here early yesterday. The girl was reported to have said anger aroused by the sudden knowledge that she was a foster child prompted her to slay Mrs. Chung. She originally told a story of a bandit entering the place and after hitting Mrs. Chung, warning her to remain quiet while he escaped.

MRS. BABCOCK, 44, SLAIN, HUSBAND HURT CRITICALLY

(Continued From Page One) getting up grappled with a man who stabbed him several times in the throat and chest. Mrs. Babcock, he said, ran for the door as he fought the intruder, and called for her son, Charles Brown, Stanford student. Then she dropped dead, her throat slashed. Babcock was taken to the Mountain View hospital, where attending doctors said his condition was critical. The importer described his assailant as a young man, rather tall, and smooth shaven. The Babcocks had been with Mrs. Buckish for the past two weeks, having just arrived from Manila. Mrs. Buckish lives in Mountain View with her two small sons, Billy, 10, and Bobby, 4. Her husband, W. G. M. Buckish, is in Manila, where he is commissioner of private schools. Officers Find Knife Sheriff William J. Enig and Constable F. M. Jarvis, conducting the investigation, found a knife, a new 10-inch butcher knife, and a can of coal oil on the front steps of the Buckish home. They took this as indication that the assassin had intended to burn the home after the crime. More than a million pounds of reindeer meat are sent to the United States from Alaska every year.

I.A.A.F. Power To Be At Stake In Friday Vote

LOS ANGELES, July 26 (AP)—The battle to re-instate Paavo Nurmi in time to permit his competition for the fourth time in the Olympics will, in effect, be secondary to the fight within the International Amateur Athletic Federation over the power of its council to suspend an athlete or a nation, arbitrarily, for alleged violation of amateur rules. It is scheduled this Friday.

Executives of the I. A. A. F., led by J. S. Edstrom, of Sweden, in seeking a change in the rules to cover specifically their suspension of Nurmi last April, have run into strong opposition, in which the United States now has joined. This opposition, regardless of the merits of the Nurmi case itself, is based on objections to giving blanket powers to the I. A. A. F.

"It is the league of nations all over again," declared Frederick W. Ruben, of New York, veteran American delegate to the federation. "This country declined to be a part of an international group, endangering freedom of individual decision and action. The amateur athletic union takes the same attitude in regard to the I. A. A. F." Defeat of the proposed rules change, Finland's delegates hold, automatically will mean the reinstatement of Nurmi, inasmuch as this would leave Finland as the final authority in the case. The Finns already have cleared Paavo and repeatedly demanded his suspension be revoked.

GRIND TEAMS TO SHIFT LOS ANGELES, July 26 (AP)—The question of "to shift or not to shift" confronting the western and eastern football teams practicing for their Olympic games demonstration on the night of August 8 has been answered. Both eleven will employ the shift. The eastern squad, made up of players from Harvard, Yale and Princeton, had been expected to employ this method of attack, and will use a variation of the Notre Dame movement.

Because of the opposition of Glenn (Pop) Warner, member of the western staff, against the shift in college games, the offensive play of the athletes from Stanford, University of Southern California and California had been something of a question. Howard Jones, head of the California group, always has favored the shift, and apparently won his point.

END MARTIAL LAW IN BERLIN; RIOTS ARE CONTINUING

PORTLAND NOT TO LOSE FARM BOARD OFFICE

PORTLAND, Ore., July 26 (AP)—A telegram from Senator Charles L. McNary to the chamber of commerce here Monday said Portland will continue to be regional headquarters for the federal farm board, notwithstanding reductions in the administrative force necessitated in the interest of economy. W. D. B. Dodson, manager of the chamber, communicated with Senator McNary, when it was learned that the farm board office there had been ordered closed Aug. 1. McNary answered "the Portland office as now conducted may be curtailed, but Portland will continue to be regional headquarters for board activities." John Marshall Jr., in charge of the Portland office, said the bureau probably will be continued on a part-time basis with personnel from Washington, D. C.

Radio Reports Of Grid Games To Be Voted On Today

PASADENA, Cal., July 26 (AP)—Pacific Coast conference athletic heads gathered here today to take action on the question of banning radio broadcasting of football games with the strong possibility that its decision will be favorable to the practice although a number of colleges have taken steps in the other direction. Arrangement of grid schedules for 1933 and the reading of the report of Jonathan Butler, athletic investigator of the conference will constitute other highlights of the convention. Action is expected to be taken on the question of whether Butler will be appointed as athletic governor of the group.

RADIO DOG IS DEAD

CINCINNATI, July 26 (AP)—Mike, the dog who barked his way to radio fame, died of poison today. The dog was trained by his master, Henry Fillmore, band leader, to bark in rhythm with the music. Several days ago he became ill and death came despite efforts of medical experts.

MILLS TO REOPEN

ST. HELENS, Ore., July 26 (AP)—The Fir-Tex mills here, manufacturers of wood fiber insulating board, will resume operations Thursday for a 10-day run, A. E. Millington, manager, has announced. One hundred former employees will be given work while a special order is being filled. Three shifts daily will be employed. The mills have been down since March when they ran 30 days.

Buron Fits Not Dead, He Declares

LOS ANGELES, July 26 (AP)—The "poison tongue" individual who for the past several weeks has been calling relatives of various persons to inform them that certain relatives are dead, today chose Buron Fitts, district attorney, as the subject for one of his fictitious messages. Fitts, said a voice representing itself as being that of George Gregory, brother-in-law of the district attorney, had died early this morning at Malibu Beach. The sheriff's office, police department and newspapers were all called, and extra editions were ready to be run when Fitts arrived at his office.

Efforts to get in touch with the Malibu Beach home of Fitts had been unavailing since only one telephone line, and that to a general store, extends there. Fitts promised a speedy investigation of the false call which had friends calling floral shops to prepare flowers for the funeral. "The report is quite an exaggeration," the district attorney said.

Famous Gold Rush Figure Near Death

LOS ANGELES, July 26 (AP)—Wilson Minter, 57, whose varied career as a promoter, wit and author led him to the Klondike of gold rush days, to New York's Broadway and Hollywood's boulevard, was critically ill with bronchial pneumonia in a hotel here today. So serious is his condition that none are permitted to visit except his physician and nurses. He was taken ill with a severe cold last week when driving home in an open car from a party at the home of Tullulah Bankhead. In the gold rush days, Minter was an associate of the late Tex Rickard, and was one of the most colorful figures of the Klondike. He reputedly won and lost many fortunes at that time.

The city clerk has reported that the expenses of running Helena, Mont., total $29 per capita.
