

Portland's Lead Extended To 3 Games

BEAVERS WALLOP MISSIONS WHILE STARS LOSE TILT

Peterson Pitches Ducks to 6-3 Victory — Indians Win Slugging Bee — Solons Down Seals.

By the Associated Press
Hollywood now trails three games behind the league-leading Portland Beavers after Seattle took a 9 to 7 victory from the Stars Wednesday night. A six-run outburst in the third inning by the Indians built up to lead the Stars' comeback.

The Beavers gave another demonstration of their winning ways for the home fans by taking the Mission Reds into camp 6 to 1. The visitors made a run in the first inning, and when Portland came to bat, Berger slammed the first pitched ball over the left field fence for a home run.

The Ducks got three more in the fifth and two in the seventh. The Reds added one in the seventh and another in the ninth when Alameda homered.

Senators Make It Two
Duplicating their feat of the series opener, the Senators again upset the Seals, falling on four pitchers for a 9 to 5 victory. McDonald held the Seals to a single run until the seventh inning. Then he gave two walks and the Senators added three hits to score three runs and take the lead. Henderson took the mound but didn't last the eighth inning, and Hoover and Douglas also saw service.

Ed Baecht of the Angels and Pay Thonus of the Oaks staged a nice pitching duel with the game on all at the end of the seventh inning. In the eighth a seven-run bombardment by the Angels put them over the top to the tune of 8 to 1. Baecht allowed only six hits, and the run scored against him was unassisted. Joiner replaced Thomas in the midst of the heavy firing.

Yesterday's results:

Hollywood 9 13 1

Wilmer Allison Replaces Shields In The Singles

PARIS, July 28 (AP)—Wilmer Allison today was selected to take the place of Frank Shields as singles player on the United States Davis Cup team and will play Henri Cochet in the second match of the challenge round with France tomorrow.

Allison thus will play the same program as Cochet, two singles matches and one doubles, as he will pair with John Van Ryn against Cochet and Jacques Brugnon in the doubles play Saturday.

The draw assures a thrilling climax to the play on Sunday when Vines plays Cochet in the last match of the round. It is generally agreed Vines will beat Borgta tomorrow and Cochet will beat Allison.

OHIO PRODUCES CAPTAINS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio boys during the next football season will captain nine of the most powerful teams in the country. Among the leaders is Lew Hinchman of Columbus who will guide Ohio State. Hinchman last season was named as halfback on the Associated Press All-Big Ten team.

SLUGS TO EITHER FIELD

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Eddie Pick, right fielder for the Kansas City Blues in the American association, is having a good year at the plate. He is said to be the only player who ever hit homers over both the right and left field walls at the local park.

FORMER CUB OUTFIELDER GOES OVER WITH DOGERS

NEW YORK (AP)—Danny Taylor is in a fair way to convince Manager Rogers Hornsby that he made a mistake in letting the Cubs outfielder go to the Dodgers at a reported price of $7,500.

Taylor, whose talents never were highly regarded by the Cubs, was acquired by the Dodgers on their first trip to Chicago this season and since has become one of the outstanding stars of the club's outfit.

Until he twisted his ankle a few days ago, forcing him to the bench for a rest, Taylor was hitting .315 and roaming far and wide to drag down balls hit to center field. Manager Max Carey, it is reported, is "sold" on Taylor and is not likely to use him in any trades in the future designed to overhaul the club for next season.

Heavy Luncheon Slows Up Game

By Johnny Farrell
(As Told to Arnie McGovern)
What has eating to do with golf? Many persons may wonder at the question, but it took me five years to discover that I could play a much steadier game, especially in tournaments after a light luncheon than so good after a morning round.

Years ago I used to top off a regular six course meal with pal-ol-mo. Not now! A bowl of crackers and milk is my usual luncheon, varied occasionally with either a fresh vegetable plate, a fruit or light vegetable salad, or a bowl of clear soup with crackers or toasted bread.

If you have been accustomed to heavy luncheons, try this for your next golf day. You will have lost that sensation of heaviness during your afternoon round and are not likely to go back to the "soup and nuts" luncheons.

W. T. STOTT DIES

FRANKLIN, Ind., July 28 (AP)—William T. Stott, 65, managing editor of the Portland (Ore.) Telegram from 1916 to 1922, and prior to that time, city editor of the Chicago Tribune, died at his home here last night. He recently was identified with several trade journals in an editorial capacity.

Seven of the eight clubs in the Texas league put into effect at least one salary reduction during the first half of the split 1932 season.

COAST FOOTBALL SCHEDULE O. K.'D

Conference Reinstates Biancone and Giesecke—Butler Report Awaited.

PASADENA, Cal., July 28 (AP)—Faculty representatives of the Pacific Coast conference in final session here today moved over to make room for the opening meeting of the national intercollegiate athletic association.

Only a few items of unfinished business remained for the Coast college group to attend to, after two meetings yesterday which resulted in the adoption of the 1932 football program. Reinstatement of two grid players of Oregon and Oregon State, and a definite stand on athletes participating in motion pictures.

The chief business as yet unattended to was the reading of the report of Jonathan Butler, conference investigator. Faculty representatives refused to say whether this would take place today or be held over until the next mid-winter session. At any event Butler's findings, reported to be "interesting" will not be made public.

Hansome, Giesecke Reinstated
The reinstated athletes were John Hansome, star Oregon State quarterback, and Ted Giesecke, backfield player of Oregon. They were barred from competition for competing in soccer games last winter, but the faculty representatives declared that the violation of the conference code was only technical.

Other highlights of the meetings of the faculty and graduate managers were:

Permit was granted for broadcasting of football games for the 1932 season.
Reduced fees for football officials 20 per cent.
Granted news cameramen full privileges on the football during games.

The council and rules committee of the N. C. A. A. meets at 9 p. m. today, with Col. John Griffith, chief ten athletic commissioner, the big speaker for the convention, which has for its main topic informal discussion of radio broadcasting as concerning college athletics. A second session takes place tomorrow.

On Friday more than a hundred members of the American football coaches association gathered here for a three day meeting which begins tomorrow on August 7 and 8.

Technical discussions will predominate in this Bill Ingram University of California coach, who will discuss rule changes, said he intends to come out boldly with a request that the rules committee take an extended vacation and cease to tamper with the grid.

Schedule Approved
Faculty approval was given the 1932 football schedule drawn up yesterday by graduate managers including four intercollegiate coaches. Stanford plays Northwestern at Evanston, Ill., Oct. 14. Utah plays Oregon at Eugene, Nov. 4. Oregon State travels to New York to meet Fordham Nov. 18 and Southern California clashes with Notre Dame at South Bend, Ind. Nov. 25. The schedule as released today:

Sept. 30—U. C. L. A. at Stanford; Idaho at Washington; Montana at Oregon State.
Oct. 7—Washington State at Southern California.
Oct. 14—Stanford at Northwestern; Evanston, Ill.; Oregon at Washington; Idaho at Oregon State; Washington State at Montana.

Oct. 21—California at Washington State; Stanford at Oregon; Oregon State at St. Mary's at U. C. L. A.; Idaho at Oregon.
Oct. 28—Southern California at California; Stanford at Washington; Oregon at U. C. L. A.; Washington State at Oregon State; Montana at Idaho.
Nov. 4—Utah at Oregon.
Nov. 11—Washington at California; Stanford at Southern California; Oregon at Oregon State; Washington State at Idaho.

Nov. 18—Idaho at California; Montana at Stanford; U. C. L. A. at Washington; Oregon at Southern California; Oregon State at Fordham, N. Y.
Nov. 25—California at Stanford; Washington at Washington State; Southern California at Notre Dame, South Bend, Ind.

Dec. 9—Washington at Southern California.

Sport Slants
By Alan J. Gould
(Associated Press Sports Editor)
The performance of Canada's Olympic team shattered the popular idea that the survivor of the American final tryouts automatically could be relied upon to sweep majestically to victory over all world rivals on the Olympic course at Long Beach, Cal.

In breaking six minutes for the 2000 meter distance, the Canadian posted the fastest time on record, under any conditions, and stamped themselves as real rivals for the University of California eight.
The Dominion eight, perhaps, may be the only real barrier to a sweep that California took charge of four years ago, following triumph on the Olympics by the Navy and Yale.

There will be at least six other eight-oared crews, however, in the competition this year, representing Great Britain, Germany, France, Brazil, New Zealand and Japan. This is about as far-flung an entry as it could be possible to gather from the natives of the world and should furnish an interesting regatta.

Rowing, in fact, although a new sport for Southern California fans, has drawn a bigger throng to the Olympic ticket offices than any other events except the track sports and football demonstration.

Back Door Entries
There's more than one way to get into the Olympic games, as a number of athletes demonstrated.

Harvard's Eugene Red Beard failed to make the American track team in either of the hurdles but moved into the Olympic village, nevertheless, as a member of the eastern football squad gathered for the demonstration night game with a western all-star team.

George Theodoratus of the Olympic club, San Francisco, failed to qualify in the shotput at Palo Alto but turned up soon afterward wearing the colors of Greece, along with a Southern California pole vaulter, Mike Chlentzos, who has scored for S. C. in intercollegiate competition.

Bob Hall, Southern California shotputter who also was among the "also-rans" in the American tryouts, turned in his Olympic credentials as a football warrior.

FOOD MENACE
All will be well with the American Olympic wrestlers if they do not eat themselves out of their classes beforehand. Several of the grapplers reported a much overweight at the Olympic village that "Bill" Street of Alabama, the team manager, forthwith ordered them on a diet.

JARVINEN TOO GOOD
Olympic officials have become a trifle worried about the menacing distances of the Jelinin throw, Matti Jarvinen, the champion Finnish spear-thrower. Jarvinen is expected to do better than 340 feet and outclass all rivals, including the Scandinavian.

Matti is the youngest of the Jarvinen boys, only 24 years old, and the second among them to become a world record-breaker.

GERMAN FIGHT TEAM IN MID-WEIGHT
CHICAGO, July 28 (AP)—Big blond Heinrich Kohlhans, bred in Munster, occupied a place among Germany's fistic heroes today.

The Teuton Olympic boxing team lost four of the first seven matches against midwest amateurs fighting for Chicago in Soldiers Field last night. Then in the heavyweight class, last to be decided, Kohlhans overwhelmed Duff Dronoth, a sailor from the Great Lakes naval training station, and gained a draw for his country over the evening's route.

His victory kept Germany's slate in international matches clear of defeat. The Germans left today for Los Angeles to compete in the Olympics.

The invaders won the first three matches on points with Werner Spanagel, Hans Ziegler and Josef Schinkofer of Munich.

Henry Bother, Moine, Ill., lightweight, Tony Sutton, Nichols, Ia., middleweight, and Adolph Walter, of Green Bay, Wis., light heavyweight, then outpointed their rivals. The home team took the edge when Johnny Phagan, Chicago negro welterweight, knocked out Eric Campe, a Berlin policeman, in the first round of their bout.

A crowd of 45,000, largest ever to witness amateur fights in America, watched the spectacle staged by the Chicago Tribune.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salt, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only wave the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels, gas builds up your stomach. You have a thick, sour taste and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

Don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Beest & substitute, 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.
