

SOCIETY NOTES

Misses Anne and Jane Stange Are Hostesses at Charming Party Last Night at the Home of Their Parents

The Misses Anne and Jane Stange were hostesses at a charming summer party last evening when they entertained at a shower at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stange, on Walnut street, for Miss Lois Nelson, whose wedding to Winchester H. Hejcher, of San Anselmo, Cal., will be an event of next month.

Gardening Takes Place on Calendar

Whatever else it is that comes and goes as diversion, gardening appears to have an everlasting run of popularity. Along with golf, gardening must have an almost daily place on the calendar—for it takes more than Contrary Mary's little watering pot to make fine flower specimens.

Enjoyable Picnic Given Wednesday

A delightful picnic took place yesterday at Pine Cone when 32 members of the Bond-He club gathered there at ten o'clock in the morning for an all-day affair. A potluck luncheon was served at noon, with a business meeting following. Plans were made for a contest to encourage enthusiasm and interest among club members and Mrs. Ella Koester and Mrs. Edith Lindsey were named captains of the teams.

Handicap Tourney Finals This Week

Golfing activities this week will include the match between Mrs. Charles E. Reynolds and Miss Anne Stange, to determine the winner of the annual handicap tourney. They plan to begin this 36-hole contest this afternoon and probably will finish up Friday afternoon.

SPECIALIZING IN Permanent Waving, Personality Hair Cutting, Men - Women and Children By Appointment. Loren Carver. PRICES REASONABLE. COLONIAL BEAUTY SHOP. La Grande Hotel Main 539.

JOEL'S Main 759 3 Phones Cor. Cedar & Washington. FEATURES FRIDAY & SATURDAY. 3 Palmolive Soap, 2 Giant Crystal White Soap for 23c. Tall Can Crushed Pineapple, 2 for 25c. 1 Can Mission Peas, Tomatoes and String Beans 29c. Liquid Sunshine Silver Cleaner, qt. 10c. Swansdown Cake Flour 25c. School Boy Peanut Butter, lb. 15c. Picnic Shoulders, lb. 13c. Old Potatoes, sack 50c. Home-grown Yellow Bantam Corn, dozen 25c. We Pay 18c in Trade for Large Eggs.

Miss Bess Duke, Society Editor Telephone Main 600 Until 9:30 a. m.

"Indian Givers" Swapping Horses On Tribal Visits

PONCA CITY, Okla. (AP)—Gift horses come back to look their Indian owners in the mouth, now that the plains tribes are enjoying their outdoor season. Tribal visits between tepee villagers end invariably with giveaway feasts. The visitors go home laden with bolts of calico and blankets and leading gift horses, but the hosts in turn become guests the same horses frequently are brought back to their former homes as presents.

Cash Bonus Offer Interests Turkish Women in Farms

ANGORA, Turkey (AP)—Although Turkish peasant women have tilled the soil and done the work of a man for centuries, Melahat Hanim is the first Turkish woman to be interested in agriculture. She is the only woman enrolled in the Agricultural School of Angora, which has recently been reopened. The teachers have been called from Germany and German methods are taught.

View of U. S. Makes Starlet Blink

Marylyn Hauoli Thorpe, who at three weeks has become quite a globe trotter, posed for her first outdoor picture on arriving in Los Angeles with her mother, Mary Astor, film star, the wife of Dr. Franklin Thorpe. Baby Marylyn, who was born in Hawaii, is shown getting her first glimpse of the U. S. from her mother's arms.

Hard Campaign No Worry To Garner; He's Stumped Texas On Horseback

WASHINGTON (AP)—It will be something new to this generation to see "Cactus Jack" Garner mount the political stump. Down in Texas, where a district that lacks just four square miles of being as large as the whole state of Maine has sent him to congress for 15 consecutive terms, the old-timer may remember him as a hard-riding, straight-talking, horseback campaigner. But to the younger crowd, he is known as a man whose constituents have thought so highly of their representative that he has found it necessary to make only a few campaign speeches in years. It will be to his behavior on the house floor, then, that observers will have to look for a clue as to what sort of a campaigner the Democratic vice presidential candidate will be. On the basis of this, his public may expect colorful and fearless speeches, a dominant thread of bluntness relieved with touches of wit and humor, and no references to manuscript or notes. He always speaks extemporaneously. His appeal largely will be to the plain people, whom he is of and for. He speaks with his whole body, waving his arms and driving home points with his fists, but his talk is of the straight-from-the-shoulder variety with no flights into oratory. His voice is high-pitched but his delivery is vigorous and he is noted for his ability to strip away the husks of a subject and drive at the facts and figures. Nervous before making a speech, he gains assurance once he is on his feet and words are clipped out with machine-gun suddenness as he warms to his subject. If his past record in Texas bears any evidence, he will be ready for whatever rigors the campaign may have in store because he has tackled many a man-sized campaigning job in his early days in congress. This time he is to be in 32 counties and he had to address rallies in every one of them. Transportation was not of the best—and he turned to the saddle as his means of covering ground.

Menus Of The Day

- By Mrs. Alexander George A JULY DAY Breakfast: Cantaloupe, Ready Cooked Wheat Cereal, Cream Buttered Toast, Coffee. Luncheon: Grilled Tomatoes and Cheese Bread, Butter, Sugar Cookies, Iced Tea. Dinner: Spinach Ring, Creamed Mushrooms, Buttered Lima Beans, Biscuit, Plum Jam, Sliced Cucumbers, Watermelon, Coffee. Grilled Tomatoes and Cheese 6 firm tomatoes, 12 slices bacon, 12 slices cheese, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1/2 teaspoon salt. Wash and peel tomatoes. Cut out stems. Cut tomatoes in halves. Place in shallow pan and spread with rest of ingredients. Broil or bake 15 minutes. Carefully arrange on a serving platter and garnish with parsley. Spinach Ring: 3 cups cooked spinach, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon paprika, 1/4 teaspoon chopped onions, 1 egg, beaten. Mix ingredients and press into buttered ring mold. Set in pan of hot water and bake 20 minutes in moderate oven. Let stand 5 minutes and carefully turn onto platter. Fill center with creamed mushrooms. Creamed Mushrooms: 4 tablespoons butter, 1 cup diced mushrooms, 4 tablespoons flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon paprika, 1/4 teaspoon celery salt, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley. Melt butter and add mushrooms. Blend well and add flour and cook until a little brown. Add rest of ingredients and cook until thick and creamy. Another Gypsy Meal: Baked Beans, Chili Sauce, Boston Brown Bread.

Chats With Parents

TOO YOUNG TO LISTEN By Alice Judson Peale. Most of us still can remember the rage we felt when two grown-ups talking stopped suddenly in the midst of an intriguing story with a "more of that some other time" and a significant motion of the head in our direction.

SAINTS FIND PAY-OFF COMES ON RUNS

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—If double plays regulated games won or lost St. Paul, 1931 champion, would be far out in front in the 1932 American association chase instead of floundering in the cellar. As mid-July the Saints led their nearest rivals in this department by about 35 double plays and were well on their way to break the league record set by the 1927 Saints. They were ahead of the '27 pace by close to 20 twin-killings. The infield combination setting such a blistering pace includes three former major leaguers, First Baseman Phil Todt, Second Baseman Irving Jeffries and Shortstop Clyde Beck. At third base is Marty Hopkins, sought by several big league teams for two seasons. The Saints are far ahead of major league leaders in double occupations too. They had registered 114 when Washington, American league leader in this department, had 84 and Brooklyn, pace-setter in the National, had racked up 80. But they don't pay off on this play also, so President Bob Connery of the Saints gladly would trade his combination's extra spark of defensive speed for some extra run-producing base hits. McCLUSKEY EYES POLITICS SOUTH MANCHESTER, Conn. (AP)—Joe McCluskey, Fordham track captain who set a new world record in the 3000 meter steeplechase to get a place on the Olympic team, wants to enter politics after he is graduated.

OWN INCOME TAX RATE

LONDON (AP)—Registry office officials who marry a blushing bride and her swain and then pocket his fee with a smile have been brought into line with those of more regular income who have had salaries cut. The fees are not subject to income tax but the registrar-general felt that a percentage should go to the treasury regardless. He pointed out that registration officials on salary had suffered reductions in income whereas those who elected to depend upon fees had sacrificed nothing. As a consequence the fee officials are making "voluntary contributions" to the treasury.

Chats With Parents

TOO YOUNG TO LISTEN By Alice Judson Peale. Most of us still can remember the rage we felt when two grown-ups talking stopped suddenly in the midst of an intriguing story with a "more of that some other time" and a significant motion of the head in our direction. We know that we were considered too young to listen. Sometimes we were even sent from the room with the remark that "children mustn't know everything." What could be more insulting? And what mountains of resentment children have piled up over just this sort of thing. What passionate curiosity has been built up for no faintly serviceable end! Adults have secrets that one is thought too silly and stupid to know. Adults exclude one from everything that is most exciting. Grandparents, aunts and uncles, as well as parents and older brothers and sisters, conspire to keep one in ignorance about everything that is really important. And all this too tense curiosity, this resentment, with its accompaniment of inferiority feeling and jealousy, can be avoided. Adults need only to be courteous. Nine times out of ten it is not at all necessary to broach a topic of conversation which a listening child may not hear through to the end. And when as sometimes happens, it actually is necessary to discuss something which a child may not hear, he should, in a tactful manner, be asked to leave the room. It can be explained to him that the grown-ups have something to discuss which concerns only them, just as he often has a secret with one of them or with a friend, that everybody sometimes must talk over matters with only one person.

OWN INCOME TAX RATE

LONDON (AP)—Registry office officials who marry a blushing bride and her swain and then pocket his fee with a smile have been brought into line with those of more regular income who have had salaries cut. The fees are not subject to income tax but the registrar-general felt that a percentage should go to the treasury regardless. He pointed out that registration officials on salary had suffered reductions in income whereas those who elected to depend upon fees had sacrificed nothing. As a consequence the fee officials are making "voluntary contributions" to the treasury.

Chats With Parents

TOO YOUNG TO LISTEN By Alice Judson Peale. Most of us still can remember the rage we felt when two grown-ups talking stopped suddenly in the midst of an intriguing story with a "more of that some other time" and a significant motion of the head in our direction. We know that we were considered too young to listen. Sometimes we were even sent from the room with the remark that "children mustn't know everything." What could be more insulting? And what mountains of resentment children have piled up over just this sort of thing. What passionate curiosity has been built up for no faintly serviceable end! Adults have secrets that one is thought too silly and stupid to know. Adults exclude one from everything that is most exciting. Grandparents, aunts and uncles, as well as parents and older brothers and sisters, conspire to keep one in ignorance about everything that is really important. And all this too tense curiosity, this resentment, with its accompaniment of inferiority feeling and jealousy, can be avoided. Adults need only to be courteous. Nine times out of ten it is not at all necessary to broach a topic of conversation which a listening child may not hear through to the end. And when as sometimes happens, it actually is necessary to discuss something which a child may not hear, he should, in a tactful manner, be asked to leave the room. It can be explained to him that the grown-ups have something to discuss which concerns only them, just as he often has a secret with one of them or with a friend, that everybody sometimes must talk over matters with only one person.

MAKES REFRESHING AND DELICIOUS ICED TEA. LIPTON'S ORANGE TEA PEKOE. Be Thrifty... Loretta Young—First National Pictures star. SERVE Kellogg's often. For lunch, children's suppers, and late snacks, as well as breakfast. Costing only a few cents a package, it is a most economical food. Ready prepared. Delicious with milk or cream, fruits or honey. Quality Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Enjoy a bowl of Kellogg's.

SAFEWAY STORES DISTRIBUTION WITHOUT WASTE. Prices Effective Friday and Saturday, July 29 - 30. 2 GIANT BARS Free CRYSTAL WHITE BUTTER WITH 3 CAKES OF PALMOLIVE FOR 23c. 2 Lbs. 45c. Pineapple Clorox Salmon. No. 10 Can 49c, Pint Bottles 12c, 2 Cans 25c. No. 2 Size—Del Monte Fancy Corn Whole Kernel 3 cans. 33c. Honey Cereals Sugar. 5-lb. Pail 43c, 10-lb. Pail 79c. Cantaloupe Standard Vegetables 3 cans 25c. VANILLA WAFERS IVORY SNOW. Pound 23c With 2 Pkgs. 25c.