by a policeman, touched off the dynamite which the bonus forces carried with them to Washington.

Waters is not only unfair and disloyal to the president in making such an utterance, but he is also injuring his own cause. Stirred as the nation's veterans have been by the tragic events accompanying the B. E. F. eviction, the majority of them will certainly not listen with sympathy to threats of violence to the president, either now or later. If the president must be blamed for a police blunder, so must Waters and his fellow leaders. Waters generally has shown himself a capable, level-headed leader, often too considerate of the laws for his more energetic followers. But the tragedy was just as much the failure of his leadership and that of his fellows as it was the failure of the authorities.

A Eugene man, returned from the B. E. F. said Waters ran out on the boys to escape trouble with federal officers in East St. Louis. From this distance it looks as though Waters and other leaders had also failed their boys in Washington. When a man accepts leadership of such a company as the B. E. F. he undertakes a tremendous responsibility and when he falls down he has no moral right to throw blame toward organized authority—Eugene News.

of what hospital attendants called a stomach ailment.

William J. Huska, shot by a policeman, was to be buried today with full military honors in Arlington national cemetery. Some B. E. F. leaders were expected to be present, but police were on the alert against any concentration in numbers. At Washington today, too, a grand jury was expected to resume its investigation of events leading to Thursday's riot.

Communists Arrested
Mayor Eddie McCloskey of Johnstown, former pugilist, returned from a vain quest for tents in time to take a hand in a clash between police and communists trying to address a crowd. Several men were arrested, one by the mayor himself.

Governor Clifford Pinchot, who has called the treatment of the B. E. F. at Washington brutal and stupid, was quoted by McCloskey as saying the state had no tents available but would protect the bonus camp from disease.

Babies cried in vain for milk in the camp while unwholesome food—and precious little of that—was steaming in greasy garbage cans over fires. The weary thousands, most of whom slept under the open sky, arose this morning wet with dew. Gen. Smedley D. Butler, who some of the leaders hope will lead a nation-wide organization of "khaki shirts," advised them to go home for the present.

But Walter W. Waters, their leader, stuck to his determination to build a permanent camp in Maryland and was to confer with Gov. Ritchie to that end today.

Other remnants of the army were hustling or being hustled home.

Reds Stage Demonstration
In New York a sea of communists filled Union Square yesterday to protest use of troops against the B. E. F. Some said there were 10,000 at the meeting, others 30,000. There were hundreds of placards, one huge one showing President Hoover in a Napoleonic hat with a skull and crossbones on his chest, pointing a pistol at a dead worker.

WARRANTS SERVED
JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Aug. 2 (AP)—Warrants charging larceny of national guard tents were served today on William Walte, commander of the camp of the bonus expeditionary force, by federal officers and Washington police.

Another warrant was served on Isadore Kanner and he was taken before United States Commissioner Ray Patton Smith. Other warrants named Frank Muggle and Buck Reynolds. The officers also had a writ of replevin on the veterans' camp near here. They planned to visit the camp this afternoon.

The warrants place the value of the tents at $1200, but the officers said they were told the shelters were worth $3000.

The papers said that there were 32 tents belonging to the national guard at Washington. They set forth that these were loaned to the veterans and were carried away when the bonus seekers left Washington last week.

The veterans' camp hummed with activity as its 7000 occupants prepared for rain this morning. The sky was overcast. Few of the men, women and children have any protection, although crude shelters of boards, grass and leaves and tents were erected hastily.

Police feared that if rain fell, there would be a stampede to a few buildings in ideal park, an amusement center. Most of these buildings were locked.

The supply of food was fairly good.

It is not probable that if the governor removes Walker that he will antagonize Tammany. It is not built that way. It will cheerfully sacrifice Jimmy for his own errors. He alone is too blame for his indiscretions—not Tammany and Walker is only one of the eggs in the machine. Tammany looks to the future and has more to gain by supporting a probable president than by antagonizing him. As a Tammany leader puts it:

Thirty days after Jimmie is removed he will be forgotten in this town. He won't be a hero any more—he'll be a has-been. McKee will be mayor. Flynn will be his patron, and Flynn is close to Roosevelt. So is McKee. That means Roosevelt will have the city hall. Tammany has about 150,000 men on the city payroll. Tammany's chief concern is to keep them there. They are not going to commit suicide because Jimmie got himself into trouble and had to take the graft—Salem Capital Journal.

A THREAT AGAINST THE PRESIDENT
Commander Walter W. Waters of the Oregon section of the B. E. F. has gone so far in his statements, if he is accurately quoted in a Chicago Tribune dispatch appearing in the Portland Oregonian. These words were attributed to him:

"I am frank to say that after Mr. Hoover goes out of office as president on March 4, I will not feel sure of his safety as long as he remains in this country. Hoover signed his doom when he sent those troops in upon defenseless men, women and children with bayonets and tear gas." The dispatch further credits him with blaming Hoover for the killing of Veteran Walter Huska. That killing, we suggest that it be called "cantillevor bridge," when you can't tell ever what your partner means by psychic bidding.

Insisting upon "equality of rights," the Germans appear to have demonstrated the equality of both rights and lefts in recent domestic exchanges.

Mr. A. McClaran arrived here the latter part of the week from Lexington creek where he helped with haying and other work on the farm there. He reports that all grain hay and the first two cuttings of alfalfa have been harvested and that the third cutting is making an excellent growth.

Mrs. L. V. Lathrop, of Leap, was picking cherries at Meek's the latter part of the week.

Giles Pines has been busy the past several days putting up hay at his farm in the hills.

The Mark Schaeffer and George Richards families recently made a trip into the woods in search of huckleberries. They report finding a good quantity of berries, but the most of them were quite green for picking.

Oscar Maxwell has been busy the past several days cutting hay at the U. G. Couch ranch in the Leap section.

By G. C. Meek (Observer Correspondent)
WALLOWA, Ore. (Special)—L. W. Mior and wife and H. C. Hearing and wife, of Evans, returned home the latter part of the week from a week's camping trip into the mountains. They report an excellent time and fair luck in fishing in some of the lakes there.

Mrs. John Couch and daughters, of Leap, accompanied by some of the children of that community, spent Sunday picnicking in the Whiskey creek district.

Sam Meek, Ed Bell, R. J. Conner, Mr. Renfrow and others of the Whiskey creek section have been busy during the past week binding their fall wheat crops. They report getting the greater part of the grain cut without losing much from shattering while cutting.

ROOSEVELT AND WALKER
Mayor Walker of New York City in a $750000 defense to Governor Roosevelt denied guilt of the charges filed by the legislative committee and Samuel Seabury, its investigator, says that he is the victim of a political frame-up, the target of misrepresentation, and demands full exoneration. He denounces Seabury's "man hunt," his methods and his "plan of calumny."

The mayor's answer and the governor's action hold national significance, for although Roosevelt has declared he would not be influenced by political considerations, the case has been injected into the national campaign largely to embarrass him. If he ousts Walker it is said he will antagonize a large element in Tammany. If he does not, he will antagonize many throughout the nation. But the chances are that he will not as the case merits, reparative of political effect, for he is the type of a man to do what he thinks right, though a political motive will be attributed regardless of what he does.

Despite his defense, the mayor's own testimony proves that he does not come with clean hands and the chances are that the governor will remove him. For while no criminal case has been made against Walker, enough of a case has been made to remove him under the law Roosevelt laid down in the Tin-Box Parley outing.

It is not probable that if the governor removes Walker that he will antagonize Tammany. It is not built that way. It will cheerfully sacrifice Jimmy for his own errors. He alone is too blame for his indiscretions—not Tammany and Walker is only one of the eggs in the machine. For judgment and decree against the defendant, Freda F. That the plaintiff's mortgage given to secure said note as heretofore described, be declared to be a first and prior lien over all other liens or encumbrances and that the said sum of money above set forth be decreed to be a good, valid and subsisting lien upon the said premises under and by virtue of said mortgage, upon all of the property heretofore described and as described in plaintiff's mortgage to-wit:

Commencing at a point sixty (60) feet North of the Southwest corner of out Lot numbered one hundred fifty (150) in Chaplin's Supplemental Addition to the Town of La Grande "B," Union
